

Tulaiha al-Asadi

1. He was from the tribe of Banu Asad and he had visited the Prophet ﷺ during the year of delegations, 9AH. Banu Asad had not accepted Islam wholeheartedly.
2. Soon after his return to his homeland, Tulaiha claimed to be a prophet.
3. The Prophet ﷺ sent Diraar ibn al-Azwar to fight him but the contingent was not strong enough to fight Tulaiha's army.
4. Soon, the members of Asad and Ghatafan tribe also joined the ranks of Tulaiha. Following suit, Banu Abs and Dhibyaan tribes also joined them.
5. On one side, Abu Bakr sent an army under the command of Khalid ibn al-Waleed to fight them. On the other side, Tulaiha convinced the sub-tribes of Taiy tribe, Banu Jadeelah and Ghauth to join them.
6. But prior to sending Khalid ibn al-Waleed, Abu Bakr had sent Adee bin Hatim towards his clans to convince them to return to Islam.
7. Adee bin Hatim managed to convince both clans to return to Islam and Allah saved these two tribes through him and they joined Khalid's army.
8. The battle with the army of Tulaiha took place in the place called "Buzaakhah" and the battle is known as the "Battle of Buzaakhah".
9. The army of Khalid ibn al-Waleed crushed the army of Tulaiha and fled to Syria and accepted Islam. After his repentance, he took part in several battles and died as a martyr in the Battle of Nahwand in 21 AH against the Sassanid.
10. Khalid's army stayed there for a while and set an example so that no one would dare to apostate.
11. After the humiliation, delegates from the tribes of Banu Asad and Ghatafan visited Abu Bakr in order to ask for a truce. Abu Bakr gave them two options:
 - a. Continue the all-out war.
 - b. Accept some humiliating conditions.
12. Ukasha bin Mihsan and Thabit bin Arqam (debated) were martyred in this battle.

Sujaah bint al-Harith

1. She was a Christian Arab who claimed to be a prophetess who belonged to the tribe of Banu Tamim.
2. But instead of attacking Madinah, she first decided to attack Musailamah in Yamamah.
3. Musailamah was already occupied dealing with the armies of Thumamah bin Uthaal and Ikrimah bin Abi Jahl. So he decided to talk his way out with Sujaah.
4. He presented a lucrative offer of half of the land of the Quraish if he were to conquer it and asked for her hand in marriage so that both the armies can fight the Muslims together.
5. When the people of Sujah asked about the dowry she was given, Musailamah responded, "Verily, Musailamah ibn Habeeb, messenger of Allah, has removed from you the obligation of performing two of the prayers that Muhammad ﷺ came to you with- the Fajr prayer and Isha prayer."

6. After this event, she decided to retreat and wait for the consequences of the battles. But some of her army faced Khalid when he was on his way to Yamamah and they were dealt with by Khalid. Years later, Muawiyah bin Abi Sufyan confronted her and her people banished her from their land.

Musailamah bin Thumamah al-Kazzab

1. He belonged to the tribe of Banu Haneefah and he visited the Prophet ﷺ in the year of delegations (9AH) and he asked for a deal with the Prophet ﷺ, either give him some portion of land or appoint him as a successor. The Prophet ﷺ took a branch and said to him, "Were you to ask me for this palm branch, I would not give it to you."
2. When the delegates returned to Yamamah (the place where Banu Haneefah resided), he declared that he was a prophet.
3. A vast majority of Banu Haneefah tribe followed him as they were evil people.
4. Musailamah wrote to the Prophet ﷺ, "We should have one half of the earth and the Quraish should have the other half but the Quraish are not just with us."
 - a. The Prophet ﷺ responded,
"In the name of Allah, the Most Beneficent, the Most Merciful. This is from Muhammad ﷺ, the Prophet, to Musailamah, the liar. To proceed: Verily, the earth belongs to Allah, and He gives it to whomsoever He pleases among His slaves. And the good ending is for those who fear Allah. And so peace be upon those who follow true guidance."
5. Musailamah had sent this letter with two men, the Prophet ﷺ asked them, "And what do the two of you say?" They responded, "Whatever Musailamah says, we say." The Prophet ﷺ said, "Lo! By Allah, had it not been for the fact that messengers are not killed, I would have struck your necks."
6. Khalid placed Shurahbeel ibn Hasanah to lead the front of the army and the two wings were led by Zaid ibn al-Khattab and Abu Hudaifah ibn Utbah ibn ar-Rabee'ah.
7. After the initial opposition faced by Musailamah's army, they managed to regroup in a garden that was later on called as "The Garden of Death". It was at this time when the Muslim army entered the garden, Washshi bin Harb threw his javelin towards Musailamah and it pierced his body but he was still standing and therefore Abu Dujanah raced towards him and struck him with his sword and he ended up falling on the ground.
8. It was a fierce battle and the Muslims came out victorious but a lot of companions died during the battle. Some of the famous names included: Thabit bin Qais, Zaid ibn al-Khattab, Abdullah bin Suhail bin Amr, Abu Dujanah, Abbad bin Bishr.

The Compilation of the Qur'an

1. As many companions died on the day of Yamamah, Umar ibn al-Khattab gave advice to Abu Bakr to compile the Qur'an. Initially, Abu Bakr refused but later he agreed to compile it.
2. They selected Zaid bin Thabit to do the task. When Zaid was asked to do the task, he responded, "By Allah, had you charged me with the task of moving a mountain from one place to another, you would have not placed a greater burden than you place upon me now by ordering to gather the Qur'an."

3. There were several reasons for selecting Zaid:
 - a. Young, around 21.
 - b. Intelligent and had a great memory.
 - c. Trustworthy, never known for lying.
 - d. Trusted by Prophet ﷺ and had expertise in the field because he was one of the scribes of the Prophet ﷺ.
4. Zaid had some strict conditions including:
 - a. The verse which a companion would narrate should have been written down in the presence of Messenger of Allah ﷺ and the companion should have memorized it.
 - b. If someone would come with a verse, he would have to produce two witnesses.
