

1.1. Why Study Seerah?

1. Knowing the meaning of Seerah.
2. Knowing why knowing the why of anything you do is important.
 - a. You can decide whether you want to do it or not.
 - b. You realize how important it is to you.
 - c. You develop the zeal required to do it.
 - d. You can identify the end result and aspire hard to do it.
1. Loving the Prophet ﷺ is an essential part of faith and you cannot love someone without knowing about him. It is a closed loop, the more you love the more you study and the more you study the more you love.

فَوَالَّذِي نَفْسِي بِيَدِهِ لَا يُؤْمِنُ أَحَدُكُمْ حَتَّىٰ أَكُونَ أَحَبَّ إِلَيْهِ مِنْ وَالِدِهِ وَوَلَدِهِ

صحيح البخاري، كتاب الإيمان، باب حب الرسول صلى الله عليه وسلم من الإيمان ، رقم الحديث ١٤٠١، ٥٨-

أَمْ لَمْ يَعْرِفُوا رَسُولَهُمْ فَهُمْ لَهُ مُنْكَرُونَ

Incident of Sawad ibn Ghaziyyah just before the battle of Badr.

Talha bin Ubaydullah protecting the Prophet ﷺ by his body

2. The Qur'an commands us to follow the Prophet ﷺ. So how can one follow someone if he doesn't know him?!

قُلْ أَطِيعُوا اللَّهَ وَالرَّسُولَ

How humbly he ﷺ entered the holy city of Makkah

3. It shows us how to live a life which is pleasing to Allah in all aspects of our life, including our:
 - a. Personal life (with parents, with children, with wives),
 - b. Social life (with relatives, with neighbors, with general masses),
 - c. Connection with Allah,
 - d. Interaction with inanimate things/beings,
 - e. Interaction with people of other religions,
 - f. Political interactions.

وَإِنَّكَ لَعَلَىٰ خُلُقٍ عَظِيمٍ

(68:4)

4. You cannot understand Qur'an without knowing the life of the Prophet ﷺ as the Qur'an revolves around his ﷺ life and the events which took place during his ﷺ lifetime. Here are some of the examples:

g. Surah al-Kauthar

h. Surah ad-Duha

i. قَدْ سَمِعَ اللَّهُ قَوْلَ الَّتِي تُجَدِّدُكَ فِي زَوْجِهَا

j. هُوَ الَّذِي أَخْرَجَ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا مِنْ أَهْلِ الْكِتَابِ مِنْ دِيَارِهِمْ لِأَوَّلِ الْحَشْرِ

k. يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا لَا تَتَّخِذُوا عَدُوِّي وَعَدُوَّكُمْ أَوْلِيَاءَ تُلْقُونَ إِلَيْهِمْ بِالْمَوَدَّةِ

l. وَإِذَا رَأَوْا تِجْرَةً أَوْ لَهْوًا آنَفَضُوا إِلَيْهَا وَتَرَكَوْكَ قَائِمًا

m. إِذَا جَاءَكَ الْمُتَنَفِقُونَ قَالُوا نَشْهَدُ إِنَّكَ لَرَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ

5. Seerah affirms our iman/increases optimism and raises optimism as we get to know that there were people who were tested with regards to their faith more so than us in every aspect.

وَكَلَّا نَقْصُ عَلَيْكَ مِنْ أَنْبَاءِ الرُّسُلِ مَا نُنَبِّئُ بِهِ ءَفْوَادَكَ ؕ وَجَاءَكَ فِي هَذِهِ الْحَقُّ وَمَوْعِظَةٌ وَذِكْرٌ
لِلْمُؤْمِنِينَ

Death of Ibrahim, the son the Prophet ﷺ

Arrival of the Prophet ﷺ in Madinah after the battle of Badr and realizing that his ﷺ daughter had passed away

Lost his loved ones, one by one

Had problems with wives

6. It is a sign that you love Allah. How can you love Allah without loving the one whom Allah loves the most from His creation?

قُلْ إِنْ كُنْتُمْ تُحِبُّونَ اللَّهَ فَاتَّبِعُونِي يُحْبِبْكُمُ اللَّهُ وَيَغْفِرْ لَكُمْ ذُنُوبَكُمْ

(3:31)

أَفَلَا أَكُونُ عَبْدًا شَكُورًا

Bukhari: 4557

7. It is a means to dive into the lives of the best people to walk on the face of this earth and learn from them.

فَإِنْ ءَامَنُوا بِمِثْلِ مَا ءَامَنْتُمْ بِهِ فَقَدْ أَهْتَدُوا وَإِنْ تَوَلَّوْا فَإِنَّمَا هُمْ فِي شِقَاقٍ ؕ فَسَيَكْفِيكَهُمُ اللَّهُ ؕ وَهُوَ السَّمِيعُ

8. The Prophet ﷺ should be the role model of every single Muslim. How can we have a role model regarding whom we don't know how he ﷺ spent his life.

لَقَدْ كَانَ لَكُمْ فِي رَسُولِ اللَّهِ أُسْوَةٌ حَسَنَةٌ لِّمَن كَانَ يَرْجُوا اللَّهَ وَالْيَوْمَ الْآخِرَ وَذَكَرَ اللَّهَ كَثِيرًا

(33:21)

2.1. Sources of Seerah

How the life of the Prophet ﷺ was preserved?

1. The Qur'an gives us a broader picture of almost all major events of his life.
2. The companions who accompanied him in different expeditions shared their experience which they related to their family and their students.
3. Many younger companions got to know about different journeys of the Prophet ﷺ through their fathers who took part in them.
4. The Tabi'oon would write and memorize things they would learn from the companions. For example:
 - a. The journey of conquest of Makkah is narrated from Urwah bin Zubair (born in 23AH).

[Passing away of the first three generation:

- a. (Companion) Abu Tufail Amr bin Laithee (d. 110AH)
- b. (Tabi'ee) Khalaf bin Khaleefa al-Kufi (d. 181AH)
- c. (Taba Tabi'ee) Hasan bin Arfa al-Abadai al-Baghdadi (d. 257AH)]

 - a. Seal of Prophethood was slightly on the left side of the size of a pigeon's egg.

2.3. Specialties of the Prophet ﷺ

1. He is the leader of the progeny of Adam.
2. He will be the first one to intercede in front of Allah and whose intercession would be accepted.

"أَنَا سَيِّدُ وَلَدِ آدَمَ يَوْمَ الْقِيَامَةِ وَأَوَّلُ مَنْ يَنْشَقُّ عَنْهُ الْقَبْرُ وَأَوَّلُ حَدَّثَنِي أَبُو هُرَيْرَةَ، قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ شَافِعٍ وَأَوَّلُ مُشَفِّعٍ

3. His enemies would fear him at a month's distance of travel.
4. Whole of earth is made a mosque for his ummah to pray.
5. War booty was made halal for his Ummah whereas it was not halal for the nations before his ummah.
6. He has been given the right of ash-Shifa'ah-al-Kubra, which no other human is granted.
7. He has been send to the whole of humanity.

"أُعْطِيتُ خَمْسًا لَمْ يُعْطَهُنَّ أَحَدٌ قَبْلِي نُصِرْتُ بِالرُّعْبِ مَسِيرَةَ أَخْبَرَنَا جَابِرُ بْنُ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ، أَنَّ النَّبِيَّ ﷺ قَالَ شَهْرٍ، وَجُعِلَتْ لِي الْأَرْضُ مَسْجِدًا وَطَهُورًا، فَأَيُّمَا رَجُلٍ مِنْ أُمَّتِي أَدْرَكْتُهُ الصَّلَاةُ فَلْيُصَلِّ، وَأُحِلَّتْ لِي الْمَغَانِمُ وَلَمْ تَحِلَّ لِأَحَدٍ قَبْلِي، وَأُعْطِيتُ الشَّفَاعَةَ، وَكَانَ النَّبِيُّ يُبْعَثُ إِلَى قَوْمِهِ خَاصَّةً، وَبُعِثْتُ إِلَى النَّاسِ عَامَّةً

(Bukhari: 335)

8. All the Messengers will be gathered under his flag.
9. He will be the first one whose grave will be opened on the Day of Judgment.

عَنْ أَبِي سَعِيدٍ، قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ "أَنَا سَيِّدُ وَلَدِ آدَمَ يَوْمَ الْقِيَامَةِ وَلَا فَخْرَ وَبِيَدِي لَوْاءُ الْحَمْدِ وَلَا فَخْرَ وَمَا مِنْ نَبِيٍّ يَوْمَئِذٍ آدَمُ فَمَنْ سِوَاهُ إِلَّا تَحْتَ لَوَائِي وَأَنَا أَوَّلُ مَنْ تَنْشَقُّ عَنْهُ الْأَرْضُ

(Tirmidhi: 3148)

10. His Ummah will be the largest.
11. He will be the first one to knock on the door of Jannah.
12. The gate of Jannah will be first opened for him only.

عَنْ أَنَسِ بْنِ مَالِكٍ، قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ "أَنَا أَكْثَرُ الْأَنْبِيَاءِ تَبَعًا يَوْمَ الْقِيَامَةِ وَأَنَا أَوَّلُ مَنْ يَفْرَعُ بَابَ الْجَنَّةِ

(Muslim: 196-97)

13. He has been given concise words with comprehensive meanings.

أُعْطِيتُ جَوَامِعَ الْكَلِمِ

14. He has not been addressed with his name in the Qur'an by Allah.
15. He will be given the highest station in Paradise (مقام المحمود).

3.1. Context of the world at the birth of the Prophet ﷺ:

3.1.1 The Rulership/superpowers of the world:

1. Roman Empire:

- Mainly Christians, engulfed in trinity,
- Covering the areas of Asia, Palestine, Syria, Egypt and Northern Africa.

2. Persian Empire:

- Mainly Zoroastrians,
- Stronger than the Roman Empire,
- Covered modern day Iran, parts of Iraq, Pakistan, Afghanistan and Turkey.

B. Some of the main religions were:

- Christianity: The Roman Empire was originally polytheistic. They used to worship the celestial bodies until when their emperor Constantine became Christian and Christian doctrine was promoted and later, in 380 CE, Christianity became the official religion of the Roman Empire with the beliefs of Pauline Christianity. So, at the advent of Prophet ﷺ, Christianity was the main religion of Roman Empire.
- Judaism: Influenced with polytheism and superstitious beliefs. They were waiting for the Christ. There was no Jewish state at this time at all. The Jews were scattered in Yathrib, Khyber & Yemen.
- Magianism: They were fire worshippers and they would built houses and follow a strict set of guidelines inside and nothing outside so much so that you would not be able to distinguish between an atheist and the people of these religion. They would worship fire, moon and water. They believed in two gods: god of light and god of darkness.

4. Buddhism & Brahmanism: Beliefs prevalent in India.

وَإِنَّ اللَّهَ نَظَرَ إِلَى أَهْلِ الْأَرْضِ فَمَقَّتَهُمْ عَزَبَهُمْ وَعَجَمَهُمْ إِلَّا بَقَايَا مِنْ أَهْلِ الْكِتَابِ

“And verily, Allah looked towards the people of the world and He showed hatred for the Arabs and the non-Arabs, but with the exception of some remnants from the People of the Book.”

(Muslim: 2865)

3.1.2. Context of the Arab World:

1. Rulership/Government:

- a. Tribal system ruled as they had no central government, and each tribe would follow what was expected from them by their tribe and abide by it. A lot was expected from him including generosity and bravery and a lot of benefits were granted to him. The honor of their tribe was their honor. They would support their tribe even if the tribe was at fault. Wars because of tribalism were common.
- b. Only three areas had crowned kings: Yemen, Heerah (Lakhmid dynasty) and Ghassan. Two sons of Ismaeel, Nabat & Qidar, had some restricted rights over Ka'bah, after their maternal grandfather took charge after Isma'eel, passing the ownership to Jurhum.
 - i. Makkah: Jurhum led the city after Isma'eel and later on resorted to ill treatment of the pilgrims due to the harsh conditions they had to live in. Consequently, leading to their expulsion by the Adnanites and the tribe of Khuza'a (Qahtani Arabs) in the mid second century. Khuza'a monopolized the ownership of Makkah (they had the hold for three hundred years). however the tribe of Mudar had three privileges:
 1. Leading pilgrims from Arafat to Muzdalifah, meaning that they were not allowed to throw stones until family of Mudar did so.
 2. Al-Ifadah: They couldn't leave Mina until the family of Mudar left.
 3. Postponement of the sacred months.

Qusai was the one, who took the custodianship from Khuza'a in 440CE and expelled them out of Makkah as the descendants of Isma'eel were the one who were the real custodians of Ka'bah.

- ii. Yemen: It came under Christian control in 525 AD when Abyssinians attacked the jewish rule with the help of Roman army of 70,000. Abraha was in this army and killed his chief and started ruling Yemen and then went on to destroy Ka'bah. After Abraha, the Yemenis, through the assistance of Persian Empire, revolted and took back their independence and after that the Persian Empire made it a Persian colony until 638AD.
- iii. Heerah (Lakhmid): It was an Arab kingdom, covering southern Iraq and eastern Arabia, but highly influenced by the Persian Empire and was annexed in 602AD before it was conquered by Khalid Bin Waleed in 632AD.
- iv. Ghassanids: Arab people, having arab kings but under the influence of the Roman Empire.

2. Religious state:

Some of the deviations from true religion of Ibrahim were as follows:

- a. Idol worshipping started in the Arab world when 'Amr b. Amir bin Luhay (leader of Khuza'a) saw the amalqa (Amalkites) worshipping idols in the region of Balqa (modern day Jordan) and brought Hubal to the Arabian Peninsula. They would call upon these idols for help/make dua to them.

قَالَ سَمِعْتُ سَعِيدَ بْنِ الْمُسَيَّبِ، قَالَ الْبَحِيرَةُ الَّتِي يُمْنَعُ دَرُّهَا لِلطَّوَاغِيتِ وَلَا يَحْلُبُهَا أَحَدٌ مِنَ النَّاسِ،
وَالسَّائِبَةُ الَّتِي كَانُوا يُسَيِّبُونَهَا لِأَلِهَتِهِمْ فَلَا يُحْمَلُ عَلَيْهَا شَيْءٌ. قَالَ وَقَالَ أَبُو هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ النَّبِيُّ ﷺ " رَأَيْتُ
عَمْرَو بْنَ عَامِرِ بْنِ لُحَيٍّ الْخُزَاعِيَّ يَجُرُّ قُضْبَهُ فِي النَّارِ، وَكَانَ أَوَّلَ مَنْ سَيَّبَ السَّوَائِبَ

Al-Bahira was an animal whose milk was spared for the idols and other dieties, and so nobody was allowed to milk it. As-Saiba was an animal which they (i.e infidels) used to set free in the names of their gods so that it would not be used for carrying anything. Abu Huraira said, "The Prophet (ﷺ) said, 'I saw `Amr bin `Amir bin Luhai Al-Khuza'i dragging his intestines in the (Hell) Fire, for he was the first man who started the custom of releasing animals (for the sake of false gods).'"

(Bukhari: 3521)

The first to worship idols were the tribe of Ishmael. They considered these idols to be intermediaries between them and Allah. The idols of Arabian Peninsula are mentioned below.

قَالَ سَمِعْتُ أَبَا رَجَاءٍ الْغَطَارِدِيَّ، يَقُولُ كُنَّا نَعْبُدُ الْحَجَرَ، فَإِذَا وَجَدْنَا حَجَرًا هُوَ أَحْيَرُ مِنْهُ أَلْقَيْنَاهُ وَأَخَذْنَا الْآخَرَ، فَإِذَا لَمْ نَجِدْ حَجَرًا جَمَعْنَا جُثْوَةً مِنْ تُرَابٍ، ثُمَّ جِئْنَا بِالشَّاةِ فَحَلَبْنَاهُ عَلَيْهِ، ثُمَّ طُفْنَا بِهِ

“We used to worship stones, and when we found a better stone than the first one, we would throw the first one and take the latter, but if we could not get a stone then we would collect some earth (i.e. soil) and then bring a sheep and milk that sheep over it, and perform the Tawaf around it.”

(Bukhari: 4376)

- Wadd: Worshipped by Banu Kalb in Dumat-al-Jandal,
- Suwa: Worshipped by Banu Hudhayl in Ruhaat.
- Yaghuth: Worshipped by Banu An’aam in Tayyi and the people of Jurash in Madhhij.
- Ya’uq: Worshipped by Banu Khaywan Land of Hmadan in Yemen.
- Nasr: Worshipped by Dhul-Khula in the land of Himyar.
- Hubal, Isaf & Naila: Worshipped by the Quraish in Makkah.
- Al-Uzzah: Worshipped by Quraish & Banu Kinanah and Banu Shayban of Sulaym (allies of Banu Hashim). Destroyed by Khalid ibn-al-Waleed.
- Al-Laat: Worshipped by Banu Thaqeef in Taif. Destroyed by Abu Sufyan and Mugheerah b. Shu’bah.
- Manaah: Worshipped by Aws and Khazraj in Madeenah. Destroyed by either Abu Sufyan or Ali ibn Abi Talib رضي الله عنهما
- Dhul Khalasa: Worshipped by Daws, Khath’am and Bajeela in the land of Tabaala. Known as “Southern ka’bah”

Al-Laat and al-Uzza were considered to be the greatest of all idols

- b. Venerating animals for the sake of idols was also initiated by Amr bin Aamir bin Luhai. They would seek the pleasure of idols through this.

وَقَالُوا هَذِهِ أَنْعَمٌ وَحَزْتُ حِجْرٌ لَا يَطْعَمُهَا إِلَّا مَنْ نَشَاءُ بِرَعْمِهِمْ وَأَنْعَمٌ حُرِّمَتْ ظُهُورُهَا وَأَنْعَمٌ لَا يَذْكُرُونَ أَسْمَ اللَّهِ عَلَيْهَا افْتِرَاءٌ عَلَيْهِ سَيَجْزِيهِمْ بِمَا كَانُوا يَفْتَرُونَ

“They say, “These cattle and crops are reserved—none may eat them except those we permit,” so they claim. Some other cattle are exempted from labour and others are not slaughtered in Allah’s Name—falsely attributing lies to Him. He will repay them for their lies.”

c. Setting a portion of animals or crops and sacrificing animals for the sake of idols.

وَجَعَلُوا لِلَّهِ مِمَّا ذَرَأَ مِنَ الْحَرْثِ وَالْأَنْعَامِ نَصِيبًا فَقَالُوا هَذَا لِلَّهِ بِرْغَمِهِمْ وَهَذَا لِشُرَكَائِنَا فَمَا كَانَ لِشُرَكَائِهِمْ فَلَا يَصِلُ إِلَى اللَّهِ وَمَا كَانَ لِلَّهِ فَهُوَ يَصِلُ إِلَى شُرَكَائِهِمْ سَاءَ مَا يَحْكُمُونَ

"The pagans set aside for Allah a share of the crops and cattle He created, saying, "This 'portion' is for Allah," so they claim, "and this 'one' for our associate-gods." Yet the portion of their associate-gods is not shared with Allah while Allah's portion is shared with their associate-gods. What unfair judgment!" (6:136)

d. Casting lots in front of the idols in order to decide important matters like marriage, important travels, legitimacy of children etc.

e. Superstition was widespread.

f. People had firm belief in soothsayers, diviners and astrologers.

g. Pilgrimage to Ka'bah was changed in several ways:

- i. People of Makkah thought they had a special status and thus they would refrain from going to Arafat.
- ii. They changed the talbiyyah.
- iii. The guests had to buy clothes from the people of Makkah otherwise they had to do the tawaf naked.
- iv. They would enter the house through the front gate but the back gate and considered it a sign of piety. (2:189)

Urwah ibn az-Zubair narrated:

"During the Pre-Islamic period of Ignorance, the people used to perform Tawaf of the Ka'ba naked except the Hums; and the Hums were Quraish and their offspring. The Hums used to give clothes to the men who would perform the Tawaf wearing them; and women (of the Hums) used to give clothes to the women who would perform the Tawaf wearing them. Those to whom the Hums did not give clothes would perform Tawaf round the Ka'ba naked. Most of the people used to go away (disperse) directly from 'Arafat but they (Hums) used to depart after staying at Al-Muzdalifa. 'Urwa added, "My father narrated that 'Aisha had said, 'The following verses were revealed about the Hums: Then depart from the place whence all the people depart--(2.199) 'Urwa added, "They (the Hums) used to stay at Al-Muzdalifa and used to depart from there (to Mina) and so they were sent to 'Arafat (by Allah's order)."

(Bukhari: 1665)

h. Some of the remnants of the religion of Ibrahim عليه السلام were still there, including:

- Venerating the Ka'bah,
- Circambulating the Ka'bah,
- Making Hajj to Ka'bah,
- Going to Muzdalifah and the mount of 'Arafah.
- Recite talbiyyah

All of these things were done but it would also include innovations from their ends, like that added in the talbiyah:

كَانَ الْمُشْرِكُونَ يَقُولُونَ: لَبَّيْكَ لَا شَرِيكَ لَكَ، قَالَ: فَيَقُولُ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ: وَيْلَكُمْ! قَدْ قَدْ، فَيَقُولُونَ: إِلَّا شَرِيكًا هُوَ لَكَ، تَمْلِكُهُ وَمَا مَلَكَ. يَقُولُونَ هَذَا وَهُمْ يَطُوفُونَ بِالْبَيْتِ

Ibn 'Abbas (Allah be pleased with them) reported that the polytheists also pronounced (Talbiya) as:

“Here I am at Thy service, there is no associate with Thee. The Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) said: Woe be upon them, as they also said: But one associate with Thee, you possess mastery over him, but he does not possess mastery (over you). They used to say this and circumambulate the Ka'ba.”

(Muslim: 1185)

3. Economic: There was no agriculture, manufacturing by the Arabs. They were best in trading. Highway robbery was common but due to them being the custodians of Ka'bah. (29:67). Usury was very common. Ukaz, Majannah & Dhul-Mijaz were common marketplaces and not only served for buying and selling but also as public speaking areas. Quraish would send their caravans, one to Yemen in winter and one to Syria in summer, for trade purposes.
4. Media: The media of that time was poetry. One verse could raise or lower the status of a tribe.
5. Treatment of women:
 - i. With regards to marriage, they would be transferred to the eldest son as a property along with the other inheritance of their father (if she is not his real mother).
 - ii. They were not given right in inheritance (death of Aus bin Thabit and the unlawful consumption of his inheritance by his two nephews from his wife, one young son and two blind daughters).
 - iii. As they couldn't earn, cannot fight, can be taken as captives and used as prostitutes, they would be upset if a girl was born in their house and sometimes kill her (81:8-9), (17:31).

وَإِذَا بُشِّرَ أَحَدُهُم بِالْأُنثَىٰ ظَلَّ وَجْهُهُ مُسْوَدًّا وَهُوَ كَظِيمٌ ۚ يَتَوَارَىٰ مِنَ الْقَوْمِ مِن سُوءِ مَا بُشِّرَ بِهِ ۚ أَيُمْسِكُهُ عَلَىٰ هُونٍ أَمْ يَدُسُّهُ فِي التُّرَابِ ۚ أَلَا سَاءَ مَا يَحْكُمُونَ

Whenever one of them is given the good news of a baby girl, his face grows gloomy, as he suppresses his rage. He hides himself from the people because of the bad news he has received. Should he keep her in disgrace, or bury her "alive" in the ground? Evil indeed is their judgment!

6. Marriage: Four types of marriages (Bukhari: 5127):

- i. Like the one we have today,
- ii. Marriage would be normal, but her husband would send her to another man to have intercourse with her so that he can have a child of noble lineage.
- iii. Less than 10 men would enter upon a woman and if she gave birth, she would select the man of her choice to be his father.
- iv. A woman (zaaniyah/fallen women) would be available for all (would have mentioned in front of her house, like a prostitute) and anyone could have relations with her and if she would give birth, the people with knowledge of physical attributes would name the child's father and he would not be able to refuse.
- v. Mut'ah was also practiced (marriage for a temporary period of time).
- vi. One man would give his wife to another man and take his wife.
- vii. One would give his daughter in marriage to another man and take his daughter.
- viii. A man would marry sisters as well.
- ix. A man could take as many wives as he wanted.
- x. A man would divorce his wife endless times, torturing her, neither releasing her nor keeping her and giving her rights. Islam gave an end to this system (2:229).
- xi. Men would perform zihar, torturing their wives mentally, neither keeping them and giving their rights nor divorcing them.

وَقَالَ وَهَبُ الْأَسَدِيِّ - قَالَ أَسَلَمْتُ وَعِنْدِي ثَمَانُ نِسْوَةٍ فَذَكَرْتُ ذَلِكَ لِلنَّبِيِّ ﷺ فَقَالَ النَّبِيُّ ﷺ " اخْتَرِ مِنْهُنَّ أَرْبَعًا

Narrated Al-Harith ibn Qays al-Asadi:

"I embraced Islam while I had eight wives. So I mentioned it to the Prophet (ﷺ). The Prophet (said) said: Select four of them."

(Abu Dawood: 2241)

7. Wars over trivial things:

- i. War between the tribe of Bakr & Taghlib started when a she-camel of one of the people of Bakr was killed by the leader of Kaleeb because it came in his pasture area. In return, the leader of Kaleeb was killed by one of the people of Bakr in anger and thus a war started which continued for 40 years.
- ii. Wars between Aus & Khazraj in Yathrib before the migration of the Prophet ﷺ.

8. Literacy: Almost all of the Arabs were illiterate and very few could read or write.

9. Some of the good qualities:

- i. Amazing memories: Because of their high reliance on their memory to pass down things to each other and because of lack of distractions, they had mindboggling memories.
- ii. Less complicated belief system as compared to other religions of that time.

- iii. Extremely generous.
- iv. Bravery.
- v. Truthfulness: The incident of Abu Sufyan in the court of Heraclius. (Bukhari: 7).
- vi. Resilient: They were resilient because of the harsh environment they lived in.

10. Some of the prominent figures:

- i. There were very little individuals who refused to worship idols. They were known as "Hunafa". These hunafa were:
 - Zaid bin Amr bin Nufail (father of Saeed bin Zaid, from the ten promised Jannah).
 - He would refuse to eat from the food that was slaughtered in the name of idols.
 - He would ask people to give their daughters to him instead of killing them.
 - Al-Khattab (the father of Umar ibn al-Khattab) was the uncle (through father) and brother (through mother, because they had the same mother) of Zayd
 - The following is narrated regarding him:
Asma, daughter of Abi Bakr, said: 'I saw Zayd b. Amr b. Nufayl leaning his back against the kacha saying, "O tribe of Quraysh, by Him in whose hand is Zayd's soul, not one of you apart from myself follows the religion of Abraham." Moreover, he would say, "O God, if only I knew the way most favoured by you, I would worship you by it, but I do not know." Also he would bow in prayer while on his mount.'
 - Al-Khattab would torture him.
 - He went on to search for the true religion and travelled to all mesopotemia and Syria and ended up in a church in al-Balqa who informed him of the coming of the last Prophet ﷺ, but he was killed on his way back to Mecca in the area of Lakham.
 - He once came to a Jew and told him he wanted him to induct him into his religion. The Jew replied, 'I will not accept you in my religion until you experience your share of God's anger.' Zayd replied, 'It is from the anger of God that I am fleeing.' Zayd went on further till he came to a Christian, telling him he would like to engage with him in his religion. The Christian replied, 'I'll not accept you in my religion until you experience your share of false guidance.' Zayd replied, 'It is from false guidance that I flee.' The Christian then told him: 'I will show you the way to a religion in which, if you follow it, you will be rightly guided.' 'What religion is that?' asked Zayd. 'The religion of Abraham,' he replied. So Zayd said, 'O God, I swear to you that I will follow the religion of Abraham; in it I shall live and die.' When Zayd's story was referred to the Prophet (SAAS) he stated, 'He will be as a nation all by himself on Judgement Day.'
 - He would face the Qibla saying that this is the direction in which Ibrahim & Ismaeel used to pray.
 - He would say the right talbiyyah.
 - He sent his salam to the Prophet ﷺ through 'Amir bin Rabi'ah and the Prophet ﷺ returned his greetings and said that he saw him in Paradise with long robes.
 - Regarding animal sacrifices, he would say:

"Sheep are created by God; He sends rain down from the skies and makes things grow for them from the earth. But then you slaughter them in the name of gods other than Him, denying all of that and venerating them!"

- Ubaydullah bin Jahsh,
 - He was the cousin of the Prophet ﷺ through his aunt Umaymah bint-e-Abd al-Muttalib.
 - He was the brother of Zainab bint-e-Jahsh and Abdullah bin Jahsh.
 - He became Christian before the Prophethood.
 - Accepted Islam after the Prophet ﷺ began preaching his message.
 - He was married to Umm-e-Habibah Ramla bint-e-Abi Sufyan and they had a daughter named Habibah bint-e-Ubaydullah.
 - They migrated to Abyssinia and he became an apostate and died a Christian.
- Waraqah bin Naufal:
 - Accepted Christianity.
 - He accepted Islam and died shortly after the first revelation. He was more than eighty years old at this time and was blind.
- Uthman bin Huwairath.
 - He accepted Christianity and died before Prophethood.

4.1. Lineage of the Prophet ﷺ

1. Mostly, the Arabs are divided into two broad categories:

الْبَائِدَة: Those who were perished like: 'Aad (lived in the northern part of Hadramout, Yemen), Thamud, Amalkites etc.

الْبَاقِيَة

- a. Adnan (from the lineage of Ismael) are Arabized Arabs, who came in the Arab land and settled there.
- b. الْعَرَبِيَّة (from the lineage of Ya'rub ibn Yashjo ibn Qahtan, Qahtani), mostly in the southern Arabia like Yemen, Himyar etc. They are considered to be pure Arabs from the lineage of Ya'rub.
 - i. They mostly lived in Yemen. Out of these, two tribes were famous: Himyar and Kahlan. Famous from Kahlan are: Tai', Kindah, Aws & Khazraj.
 - ii. Kahlan left Yemen due to failure in trade but Himyar remained in Yemen.

The term عرب المستعربة is used for the Arabized Arabs and are considered to be the descendants of Ismaeel عليه السلام

2. Lineage of the Prophet ﷺ can be divided into three categories:

- a. From Prophet ﷺ to Adnan is agreed upon,
- b. From Adnan to Ibraheem various disagreements (obviously, we are not certain),
- c. From Ibraheem to Adam, we don't know for sure.

3. Virtues of the lineage of the Prophet ﷺ

- a. Best of the generations:

- i. He himself informed us.

"بُعِثْتُ مِنْ خَيْرِ قُرُونِ بَنِي آدَمَ قَرْنَا فَقَرْنَا، حَتَّى كُنْتُ عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ. رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُ. أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ ﷺ قَالَ مِنَ الْقُرْنِ الَّذِي كُنْتُ فِيهِ "

(Bukhari: 3557)

- ii. When Heraclius, the Roman emperor, asked Abu Sufyan questions relating to the qualities of the Prophet (SAAS), he wanted to know how good his lineage was in his people. Abu Sufyan replied, "He does indeed have good lineage in us."
- iii. His progeny continued through legal marriages all the way from Adam to him ﷺ
- iv.

- b. From which tribes Allah chose the Prophet ﷺ

"إِنَّ اللَّهَ اصْطَفَى كِنَانَةَ مِنْ وَلَدِ أَنَّهُ سَمِعَ وَائِلَةَ بِنَ الْأَسْقَعِ، يَقُولُ سَمِعْتُ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ ﷺ يَقُولُ
إِسْمَاعِيلَ وَاصْطَفَى قُرَيْشًا مِنْ كِنَانَةَ وَاصْطَفَى مِنْ قُرَيْشٍ بَنِي هَاشِمٍ وَاصْطَفَانِي مِنْ بَنِي هَاشِمٍ

(Muslim: 2276)

4. He had six paternal aunts and nine, ten or twelve uncles.

Seerah of the Prophet ﷺ

Ali Ahmed Saeed

5. He had no maternal uncles and aunts as Aminah was the only daughter of her parents.
6. All the people of Quraish were related to the Prophet ﷺ in one way or the other as narrated by Ibn-e-Abbas in the tafseer of the verse:

قُلْ لَا أَسْأَلُكُمْ عَلَيْهِ أَجْرًا إِلَّا الْمَوَدَّةَ فِي الْقُرْبَىٰ

Say, "O Prophet," "I do not ask you for a reward for this 'message'—only honour for 'our' kinship."

(40:23)

7. Some of the important forefathers of the Prophet ﷺ

وَسَلِّمْ

Ali Ahmed Saeed

Seerah of the Prophet ﷺ

Ali Ahmed Saeed

1. Ismaeel عليه السلام:

- a. Married to the daughter of Mudar bin Amr, from the tribe of Jurhum (Qahtani Arabs, southern Arabs).
- b. He had twelve sons and they all spread throughout the Arabian Peninsula. Except for two sons Nabet and Qidar, we don't have record of the rest of his progeny.
- c. The Nabeteans made government in the north of Hijaz. It was ended by the Roman Empire.
- d. Qidar remained in Makkah and from his progeny came Adnan. Prophet ﷺ would take the ancestry back to Adnan and would stop there, saying that the genealogists lie.
- e. After Ismaeel, the maternal father of Qidar took hold of Makkah and this is how Jurhum got control over Makkah.
- f. With time, the Jurhum starting exploiting the pilgrims as they were having economic difficulties. So, the Adnanides along with Khuza'a, in the second century CE managed to take them out of Makkah. However, Khuza'a (Qahtani arabs, pure arabs) were able to monopolize the rulership over Makkah with very few rights handed over to Adnanides.

2. Qusai bin Kilab

- a. It was Qusai who first got the complete rulership over Makkah in 440CE as he got married to the daughter of the leader of Makkah (belonging to Khuza'a, a Qahtani tribe). After the death of his father in law, he took on Makkah and this is how Quraish got its reputation. Some of the notable works of Qusai were:
 - i. Formation of an-Nadwa (at the north of Ka'bah), where consultation regarding important matters was done and marriage contracts were announced.
 - ii. The liwa (banner of the army) belonged to him and he would act as the chief of army.
 - iii. No caravan could leave without his authority and under his or his sons' leadership.
 - iv. Doorkeeping of al-Ka'bah: Only one eligible to open its gate.
 - v. Giving water to the pilgrims.
 - vi. Giving food to the pilgrims and imposed tax on the Makkans for this purpose.

3. Hashim:

- a. His name was 'Amr bin Abd Manaf.
- b. He was given the name "Hashim" as he was the first one to crumble the bread in broth for the pilgrims.
- c. He would entertain pilgrimages each year.
- d. He initiated the two journeys, in the winter to Yemen and in the summer to Syria.
- e. Married to Salmah bint Amr bin Zaid Najjariyyah (from the tribe of Khazraj) and they had the son named Shaibah.
- f. Died on his way back to Makkah from Syria in Ghazza from a trade journey, while his wife and son remained in Yathrib for around 7 years.

4. Abdul Muttalib:

- a. His name was "Shaibah" because of the grey hair with which he was born.
- b. He got his name when his uncle Muttalib bin Abd Manaf brought him back to Makkah from Yathrib and people thought that he was the slave of Muttalib.
- c. He had a great personality.
- d. Amir bin Harith Jurhami had hid the zamzam well with the precious gifts of Ka'bah and the stone of Rukn-e-Yamani.
- e. Dream of Abdul Muttalib regarding zamzam:
 - i. First day the man said to him إِخْفِرْ بَرَّةً
 - ii. Second day the man said to him إِخْفِرْ الْمَصْنُوتَةَ
 - iii. Third day the man said to him إِخْفِرْ طَيِّبَةً
 - iv. Fourth day, he said إِخْفِرْ زَمْزَمَ
 - v. The place was between the idols of Isaf and Nailah.
 - vi. At this time only the eldest son, al-Harith was alive and this was the time when he took an oath that if Allah would give him 10 sons, he would sacrifice one.
 - vii. Quraish wanted to have a share in the well after its discovery, but Abdul Muttalib refused and they decided to resolve the dispute through a soothsayer of Banu Sa'd Hudhaim living in a place near Syrian border. On their way, their water resource ended and they end up digging their graves waiting for death. Then for the last time they decided to search for water and a spring of water gushed forth under the camel of Abdul Muttalib and they considered it to be a divine sign and gave the authority to Abdul Muttalib.
- f. When he had ten sons, he drew lots between his sons in front of Hubal and it was Abdullah whom he had to sacrifice. Quraish resisted him and asked him to try an alternate. They were given a way out by a priestess and he ultimately had to sacrifice 100 camels to save Abdullah. This is why the Prophet ﷺ is known as "Ibnu-Dhabeehatain".
- g. The incident of Elephants:

- i. In 525AD, because of the Himyari oppression in Yemen, the Christian kingdom of Ethiopia sent an army to invade Yemen.
- ii. Once Abraha got control of Yemen, he decided to build a church in San'a, Yemen, called Ekklesia (by Greeks) or al-Qalees/al-Qulais. It was built in order to compete with Ka'bah and taking control of trade routes of Arabs and convert people to Christianity. It is said to have been built somewhere between 527CE-late 560sCE. It was destroyed in 634CE in the caliphate of Umar ibn al-Khattab.
- iii. But Led an army of sixty thousand and thirteen elephants in order to destroy Ka'bah.
- iv. He faced opposition from some of the Arab Yemeni leaders, but they couldn't resist him.
- v. When he reached Ta'if, the people Thaqeef, in order to save their places of worship, offered him help and a slave named Abu Rughaal was sent to guide Abraha to Makkah. But Abu Rughaal died on the way. His grave is known and stoned by the people to this day.
- vi. Another guy from the army was sent forward and they were able to catch 200 camels of Abdul Muttalib who are grazing outside Makkah.
- vii. Abdul Muttalib went to talk to Abraha and requested that his camels be returned to him. On this, Abraha, who was initially impressed by the looks of Abdul Muttalib, got upset as he expected Abdul Muttalib to talk regarding Ka'bah instead of his camels. When he expressed this concern to Abdul Muttalib, Abdul Muttalib responded by saying:

"I am the lord of these camels. And this house (Ka'bah) has a Lord who will protect it."

- viii. The camels were returned to Abdul Muttalib and he returned to Makkah and informed Quraish of the situation and asked them to seek refuge in the mountains.
- ix. But when Abraha asked the army to load their arms and march to attack, when camping at the Muhasir valley, the elephants refused to budge. This is when the birds were sent with baked clay who pelted them with stones. Many died, but not all and Abraha escaped, only to die a painful death at San'a because of an infection he had developed.

Lessons learnt from the story of Elephants:

1. The sanctity of Ka'bah should not be violated. Also, keep in mind that the sanctity of a Muslim is more than that of Ka'bah.

حَدَّثَنَا عَبْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ عُمَرَ، قَالَ رَأَيْتُ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ ﷺ يَطُوفُ بِالْكَعْبَةِ وَيَقُولُ " مَا أَطْيَبُكَ وَأَطْيَبَ رِيحِكَ مَا أَعْظَمَكَ وَأَعْظَمَ حُرْمَتَكَ وَالَّذِي نَفْسُ مُحَمَّدٍ بِيَدِهِ لِحُرْمَتِهِ الْمُؤْمِنِ أَعْظَمُ عِنْدَ اللَّهِ حُرْمَةً مِنْكَ مَالِهِ وَدَمِهِ وَأَنْ نُنْظَرَ بِهِ إِلَّا خَيْرًا

It was narrated that 'Abdullah bin Umar said:

"I saw the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) circumambulating the Ka'bah and saying: 'How good you are and how good your fragrance; how great you are and how great your sanctity. By the One in Whose Hand is the soul of Muhammad, the sanctity of the believer is greater before Allah than your sanctity, his blood and his wealth, and to think anything but good of him.'"

(Sunan Ibn-e-Majah: 3932: Saheeh li-Gharihi (correct narration because of other evidences)

2. Traitors will never gain respect. Similar is the example of a munafiq. He doesn't get anything from the world, and the hereafter.
3. Allah saved the Ka'bah being violated by the Christians against the pagans, whereas the pagans were also violating the sanctity of Ka'bah. However, Allah had His plans to purify Ka'bah of the filth that was there.

5. Abdullah bin Abdul Muttalib:

- a. He was the youngest from his wife Fatimah bint Amr, but not the youngest as Hamzah and Abbas were younger than him.
- b. He was married to Aminah bint Wahb. She also died young, some say younger than thirty years.
- c. Died on his way back from a trade journey to Syria in Yathrib and is buried in dar-un-Nabighah along with his uncles of Banu Adi ibn an-Najjar.
- d. The age at which he died is disputed, however, it is agreed that he died at a young age and the age of 25 is known to be the most accurate of them.

5.2. Birth of the Prophet ﷺ

- a. Unanimous agreement on the year of birth.
 - i. Ibn al-Qayyim (may Allah have mercy on him) said:
"There is no difference of opinion concerning the fact that he (blessings and peace of Allah be upon him) was born in Makkah, and that his birth was in the Year of the Elephant." (Zad al-Ma'ad fi Hadiy Khayr al-'Ibad, 1/76)
 - ii. Musa b. Uqba was of the view that the birth occurred 30 years after the year of elephant.
- b. There is a consensus according to Ibn al-Jawzi that the Prophet ﷺ was born in the month of Rabi al-Awwal. Some say it was Ramadan.
- c. The day is known to be Monday based on a Saheeh Hadith

قَالَ وَسُئِلَ عَنْ صَوْمِ الْإِثْنَيْنِ قَالَ " ذَاكَ يَوْمٌ وَلِدْتُ فِيهِ وَيَوْمٌ بُعِثْتُ أَوْ أُنْزِلَ عَلَيَّ فِيهِ

(Muslim:1162- From Abu Qatadah)

- d. No unanimous agreement on the date. Different dates presented are as follows:
 - i. 2nd (al-Waqidi)
 - ii. 8th (az-Zuhri from Muhammad b. Jubayr b. Mut'im)
 - iii. 9th,
 - iv. 10th,
 - v. 12th (Ibn-elshaq, Ibn-e-Hisham, Dr. Ali Muhammad as-Sallabi),
 - vi. 17th,
 - vii. 22nd.

According to Sheikh Muhammad bin Saleh al-Munajjid:

"What appears to us to be the case is that the strongest opinion concerning the birth of the Prophet (blessings and peace of Allah be upon him) is that he was born between the eighth and the twelfth of Rabee' al-Awwal. Some Muslim mathematicians and astronomers have determined that the Monday in question was the ninth of Rabee' al-Awwal. It may be that this is another opinion, and it has some merit. That corresponds to 20th April 571 CE. This is what the authors of some modern books on Seerah (Prophet's biography) regard as most likely to be correct, including Professor Muhammad al-Khudari and Safi ar-Rahman al-Mubarakfuri."

- e. It was narrated from Khaalid ibn Ma'daan that the Companions of the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) said: "O Messenger of Allah, tell us about yourself."

He said: "I am the answer to the prayer of my father Ibraaheem, and the glad tidings of 'Eesa, and when my mother became pregnant with me, she saw something as if a light came out of her and illuminated the palaces of Busra in the land of Syria."

Narrated by Ibn Ishaq with his isnaad; Seerat Ibn Hishaam, 1/166. Narrated with a different isnaad by al-Tabari in his Tafseer, 1/566, and by al-Haakim in al-Mustadrak, 2/600. He said: its isnaad is saheeh although they [al-Bukhaari and Muslim] did not narrate, and al-Dhahabi agreed with him. See al-Silsilah al-Saheehah, 1545.

- f. There was nothing miraculous regarding the birth of the Prophet ﷺ.

5.3. Fostering & Childhood

g. Why the trend of wet nursing?

- i. Belief that child reared in desert would be tougher,
- ii. Healthier as they would be safer from diseases rampant in the cities and,
- iii. More eloquent in language as the Arabic of rural areas was purer than the cities.
- iv. Fostering in rural areas also helped children to develop their faculties according to many educational psychologists.

h. Ladies who fostered the Prophet ﷺ

- i. His biological mother, Aminah bint Wahb,
- ii. Thuwaibah, the bondwoman of Abu Lahb. Through her the Prophet ﷺ had the following foster brothers:

1. Hamza bin Abdul Muttalib,
2. Abu Salamah,
3. Abdullah bin Jahsh,
4. Thuwaibah's son, Masrooh.

iii. Halimah Sa'diyah:

1. Belonged to the tribe of Banu Sa'd from the tribe Qais 'Ailan and she along with Banu Hawazin were settled in the suburbs of Taif.
2. Abu Sufyan Bin Harith bin Abdul Muttalib was his foster brother through her.
3. Many scholars believed that she accepted Islam.
4. Story of fostering:
 - a. Accompanied by her husband, her child who was also being nursed but due to her health in the draught he wasn't able to get proper feed and would cry all night because of hunger due to which they couldn't get proper sleep, a female donkey and a female camel which would not give even a drop of milk, they left for Makkah to get a child.

- b. It had been a year with a draught.
- c. None liked to take the Prophet ﷺ as he was orphan and thinking that they won't get a good wage against him.
- d. When every lady had a baby and she didn't, she took advice from his husband and took the Prophet ﷺ, not wanting to leave empty handed.
- e. That very night, she was able to feed the Prophet ﷺ and her son as well. Also, her husband went to the camel and to his surprise the camel gave milk and all of them had a good night as they were all satiated.
- f. Her husband realized that they had taken a blessed soul.
- g. On their way back, the donkey was the fastest who was at the back all the time on their way to Makkah and kept the caravan lagging was now at the front with all the caravan at the back.
- h. When home, their sheep would now give milk after grazing. People would ask their shepherds to take their cattle to the places from where the cattle of al-Harith ibn Abdul Uzza would graze from. But still, the sheep of Haleemah would come back and give milk whereas those of the other would not.
- i. After the completion of fostering, they requested Aminah to give them more time to take the Prophet ﷺ with them (because of the blessings they got). Initially Aminah resisted, but as she was sick, she agreed.

iv. Umm-e-Aiman Baraka al-Habashiyyah.

2. Splitting of chest:

- a. This incident took place when he ﷺ was around three or four years old.
- b. Heart washed with Zamzam in a gold bowl and a black spot was removed.
- c. Traces of this incident were physically visible as per the account of Anas bin Malik.

عَنْ أَنَسِ بْنِ مَالِكٍ، أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ ﷺ أَتَاهُ جِبْرِيلُ ﷺ وَهُوَ يَلْعَبُ مَعَ الْغُلَمَانِ فَأَخَذَهُ فَصَرَعَهُ فَشَقَّ عَنْ قَلْبِهِ فَاسْتَخْرَجَ الْقَلْبَ فَاسْتَخْرَجَ مِنْهُ عِلْقَةً فَقَالَ هَذَا حَظُّ الشَّيْطَانِ مِنْكَ . ثُمَّ غَسَلَهُ فِي طَسْتٍ مِنْ ذَهَبٍ بِمَاءٍ رَمَزَمَ ثُمَّ لَأَمَهُ ثُمَّ أَعَادَهُ فِي مَكَانِهِ وَجَاءَ الْغُلَمَانُ يَسْعَوْنَ إِلَى أُمِّهِ - يَعْنِي ظِلْرَهُ - فَقَالُوا إِنَّ مُحَمَّدًا قَدْ قُتِلَ . فَاسْتَقْبَلُوهُ وَهُوَ مُنْتَقِعُ اللَّوْنِ . قَالَ أَنَسٌ وَقَدْ كُنْتُ أَرَى أَثَرَ ذَلِكَ الْمَخِيطِ فِي صَدْرِهِ

Seerah of the Prophet ﷺ

Ali Ahmed Saeed

Anas b. Malik reported that Gabriel came to the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) while he was playing with his playmates. He took hold of him and lay him prostrate on the ground and tore open his breast and took out the heart from it and then extracted a blood-clot out of it and said:

That was the part of Satan in thee. And then he washed it with the water of Zamzam in a golden basin and then it was joined together and restored to its place. The boys came running to his mother, i. e. his nurse, and said: Verily Muhammad has been murdered. They all rushed toward him (and found him all right) His color was changed, Anas said. I myself saw the marks of needle on his breast.

Lessons

- The one whom Allah wants to protect; none can harm. And the one whom Allah harms, no one can protect.
- Allah chooses the best for his servant. As Haleemah didn't want to take the Prophet ﷺ, but Allah gave her the best child of the city without her realizing this fact.
- These are the mere blessings of the Prophet ﷺ before his Prophethood and as a small boy, Imagine the immense blessings one will achieve if he obeys the Prophet ﷺ.
- It is important that we take time to contemplate the signs (universe and the creation) in our daily lives and give ourselves relief from this robotic lifestyle.
- This splitting of chest was done to assure that the Prophet ﷺ is saved from any sort of thing that may tarnish his character and save him from Satan in every way.
- Allah made this event a physical event, which could have been only spiritual as well, so we must realize that the sharee'ah emphasizes on means.
- The soul has effect on the body and vice versa.

3. Death of Aminah:

- a. Visits Yathrib to meet the relatives from Banu Najjar. These relatives were the maternal relatives of the grandfather of the Prophet ﷺ. Also, one of the reasons quoted is the grave of Abdullah was also there in Yathrib so Aminah would visit it.
 - b. Stay was about a month.
 - c. Died on her way back to Makkah in a place called al-Abwa.
 - d. Umm-e-Ayman, the slave girl of Aminah, was with them in this journey and took him ﷺ back to Makkah.
 - e. The death of Aminah brought back the pain of Abdullah for Abdul-Muttalib and this made him even more sensitive with regards to his grandson.
- The pain the Prophet ﷺ went through in his childhood and throughout his life and the gratitude he ﷺ showed despite these difficulties.
 - To keep him ﷺ away from the lure of comfort, wealth and power.

- No one could blame him ﷺ in the future that (if he had wealth and power before Prophethood) that he did that to supplement his temporal power.
- Leadership requires gentleness to the weak and wakefulness for their protection.

4. Treatment of Abd al-Muttalib with the Prophet ﷺ:

- a. The mat on which Abd al-Muttalib would sit and the Prophet ﷺ would sit on it or around it with Abdul Muttalib as a young boy and his uncles would try to move him from there and Abd al-Muttalib would ask them to leave him alone.
- b. Once the Prophet ﷺ was sent to search for a lost camel and it took him more than usual, so Abdul Muttalib, being worried of his grandson went to the Ka'bah and starting asking desperately for his grandson in the following manner:

رَبِّ رُدِّ إِلَيَّ رَاكِبِي مُحَمَّدًا

يَا رَبِّ! رُدَّهُ وَاصْطَنِعْ عِنْدِي يَدًا

- c. It was not long that the Prophet ﷺ was again destined to become an orphan and at a tender age of 8, he had to bid farewell to his loving grandfather as well.

6.1. Grooming and Adulthood

5. In the Care of Abu Talib:

- a. The Prophet ﷺ, as a young boy, started tending the animals of Quraish at a very nominal wage in order to support his uncle Abu Talib who was not well-off and had to support a large family.

عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ. رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُ. عَنِ النَّبِيِّ ﷺ قَالَ " مَا بَعَثَ اللَّهُ نَبِيًّا إِلَّا رَعَى الْغَنَمَ ". فَقَالَ أَصْحَابُهُ وَأَنْتَ فَقَالَ " نَعَمْ كُنْتُ أَرْعَاهَا عَلَى قَرَائِطٍ لِأَهْلِ مَكَّةَ "

Narrated by Abu Hurairah:

The Prophet (ﷺ) said, "Allah did not send any prophet but shepherded sheep." His companions asked him, "Did you do the same?" The Prophet (ﷺ) replied, "Yes, I used to shepherd the sheep of the people of Mecca for some Qirats."

(Bukhari: 2262)

- The time for contemplation one gets when tending sheep is extremely helpful in developing the ability to think rationally.
- Develops patience. And there's nothing better that a slave can be granted other than patience as per the hadith:

وَمَا أُعْطِيَ أَحَدٌ عَطَاءً خَيْرًا وَأَوْسَعَ مِنَ الصَّبْرِ

Nobody can be given a blessing better and greater than patience. (Bukhari: 1469)

- Make one humble because as the shepherd has to guard the sheep, he gets polluted with their urine and droppings but does not get annoyed.
 - Makes him brave as he has to defend his sheep from the predators.
 - He develops the feelings of compassion.
 - You get to know how to handle different types of people.
- b. Whenever the Prophet ﷺ would eat with the family of Abu Talib, they were satiated and whenever he ﷺ was not there with them, they still felt hungry.
 - c. Bahira:
 - i. This incident is mentioned in the Seerah books and it narrates some strange events that happened in the surroundings of the Prophet ﷺ, indicating that he would be the last Prophet that is to be sent by Allah. However, some scholars object to its authenticity because of the content mentioned in the narrations. But, some hold the opinion that the incident is authentic indeed.
 - ii. He travelled with Abu Talib to Syria on a trade journey and met this monk when they reached Busra in Sham.

Seerah of the Prophet ﷺ

Ali Ahmed Saeed

- iii. He recognized the Prophet ﷺ by the fact that he saw stone and trees prostrating to him. Also, he saw the seal of Prophethood between his shoulders.
- iv. He asked Abu Talib to send the boy back from the fear of Jews/the people of Book.
- v. Orientalists use this incident to accuse the Prophet ﷺ of learning all the stuff from Bahira and claiming his Prophethood using this information after around 28 years! Their claim is rationally absurd for the following reasons:
 - 1. Had he received his education from Bahira, he would have adopted the Christian doctrine of polytheism, instead of pure monotheism.
 - 2. The stories of the previous Prophets narrated in Bible are opposite to those mentioned in the Qur'an. In the bible, the Prophets are accused of heinous crimes which don't befit a Prophet.
 - 3. What about the prophecies that the Qur'an present, like Abu Lahb & his wife would end up in Hellfire (meaning they will not accept Islam, which he actually didn't), victory of Romans over the Persians, the fact that the Muslims will prevail over the Disbelievers (who could've believed that at the time the Muslims were being persecuted?) and many other incidents.

6. Youth of the Prophet ﷺ:

a. Fijar Wars:

- i. The Quraish were fighting this war in order to protect the sanctity of the House of Allah.
- ii. A dispute broke out between Hawaazin and Kinanah.
- iii. Kinanah took refuge in Makkah as it was considered sacred, but Hawaazin broke the sanctity of Makkah and attacked Kinanah.
- iv. On this, Quraish helped Kinanah against Hawaazin and this war came to be known as "Fijar" meaning involving sin as it involved the great sin of violating the sanctity of the Haram.
- v. The Prophet ﷺ helped his uncles by providing them arrows. He is assumed to be around 14 or 15 years old at this time.
- vi. These wars continued for around 5 years.

b. Hilf-al-Fudool:

- i. The name of this covenant comes from the word فضل which means "virtue" as it was an act of virtue by the Quraish.
- ii. It is also known as the "Hilf al-Muttayybeen".
- iii. A tradesman from Yemen brought some merchandise to Makkah which Aas bin Wa'il purchased and refused to pay for it.

Seerah of the Prophet ﷺ

Ali Ahmed Saeed

- iv. The tradesman tried everything to get aid but wasn't helped by anyone. Getting desperate, he went to Ka'bah and versed some verses of poetry and called out the children of Fihir (Quraish) to stand for justice against him.
- v. Listening to his plea, Zubair bin Abdul Muttalib (uncle of the Prophet ﷺ) summoned the noblemen to Abdullah bin Jud'aan's house and a treaty was approved there that they will help everyone who is oppressed and this came to be known as "Hilf-al-Fudool (Alliance of the virtuous)".
- vi. The Prophet ﷺ said regarding this alliance that he would not break the terms of that alliance even at the cost of red camels. And in another narration he said that even if today in Islam he is invited to such an alliance, he would do so.

شهدتُ حلفَ الْمُطَيِّبِينَ وأنا غلامٌ معَ عمومي ، فما أحبُّ أن لي حُمْرَ النَّعَمِ وأني أَنْكُثُهُ

(Ahmad: 2909)

- No matter what, you should always take the side of the truth and justice.
- There will always be righteous acts by people in a society, no matter how much evil has spread.
- One should strive to have a positive effect on the society.

c. Allah's protection for his Prophet ﷺ:

- i. Through a hadith whose authenticity is debated, we get to know that the Prophet ﷺ only twice tried to do something similar to those of the people of Jahiliyyah, but both the times Allah protected him. He went to a place in Makkah where music was being played, so he sat there but soon was overtaken by sleep and only woke up when it was morning.
- ii. Nobility is not that one does not have desires; rather nobility is that the power of chastity is more than that of desire.

7. Trade Journey and Marriage with Khadeejah:

- a. Allah chose for the Prophet ﷺ such a wife who would be a source of comfort for his Prophet ﷺ in the times of struggle and turmoil.
- b. Initially, the sister of Khadeejah, Halah bint-e-Khuwailad, hired the Prophet ﷺ to graze camels for her along with a partner. When the time to collect wages came, the Prophet ﷺ asked his partner to take his wages for him as he felt shy going to ask for wages. This impressed Khadeejah's sister.
- c. When Khadeejah heard of the honesty of the Prophet ﷺ, he asked him to take her merchant to Syria for trading and gave him more wages than the other merchants and asked her slave Maysarah to accompany the Prophet ﷺ.
- d. The Prophet ﷺ earned more profit than the rest of the tradesmen because of two reasons:

Seerah of the Prophet ﷺ

Ali Ahmed Saeed

- i. Firstly, it was his ﷺ blessings which helped make more profit.
- ii. Secondly, it was his honesty that he presented Khadeejah with the correct amount of goods that were sold against the correct price for which they were sold.
- e. She sent the idea of proposal through her friend Nafeesah bint-e-Munabbah, who asked the Prophet ﷺ if he would like to marry Khadeejah if she wants to marry him. The Prophet ﷺ didn't show any sign of rejection but only asked that would she even want to marry him. This was a positive notion from the Prophet ﷺ.
- f. The Prophet ﷺ consulted his uncles and Khadeejah asked her uncle, Amr bin Asad, to marry her to the Prophet ﷺ, to which he agreed and the both of them were married.
- g. Khadeejah was married twice previously and had children with them as well.
- h. The Prophet ﷺ, being financially stable now, decided to help his uncle and took Ali with him. So, Ali grew up in the household of the Prophet ﷺ.
- i. The Prophet ﷺ had six children with Khadeejah:
 - i. Al-Qasim (died around the age of 4-6 years),
 - ii. Zainab,
 - iii. Ruqayyah,
 - iv. Umm-e-Kulsoom,
 - v. Fatimah,
 - vi. Abdullah/Tahir/Tayyab (born after Prophethood).
- Trustworthiness/honesty & truthfulness in a businessman are virtuous qualities. According to one hadith:

"التَّاجِرُ الصَّدُوقُ الْأَمِينُ مَعَ النَّبِيِّينَ وَالصِّدِّيقِينَ وَالشُّهَدَاءِ". قَالَ أَبُو عَنْ أَبِي سَعِيدٍ، عَنِ النَّبِيِّ ﷺ قَالَ عَيْسَى هَذَا حَدِيثٌ حَسَنٌ

Abu Sa'eed narrated that the Prophet (ﷺ) said:

"The truthful, trustworthy merchant is with the Prophets, the truthful, and the martyrs."

[Abu 'Eisa said:] This Hadith is Hasan (Tirmidhi: 1209)

- There was a continuous turmoil in the life of the Prophet ﷺ (losing his sons) as the Prophets are tested the most. It endures them with forbearance and they are then more likely to show sympathy to those afflicted with calamity.
- The Prophet ﷺ is accused of "womanizing" as he later on in his life married multiple ladies.
 - He, at the peak of his youth, marrying a lady almost twice his age and already been married twice is a slap on their faces. Had he been a womanizer, he would never marry a lady of this age in this time of his life.
 - Also, he had one wife till the age of fifty in a society where men would marry tens of wives.

Seerah of the Prophet ﷺ

Ali Ahmed Saeed

- He only married more wives once he was above fifty and only with the command of Allah to serve a broader purpose (to convert tribes to Islam by marrying the daughters of leaders to convert to Islam).

8. Zaid ibn al-Harithah:

- a. He belonged to a Yemeni tribe and a war waged out there and as a result he was kidnapped and sold in the market of Ukaaz.
- b. He was purchased by Hakim bin Hizam (nephew of Khadeejah bint-e-Khuwailad).
- c. Khadeejah at the time of marriage gifted him to the Prophet ﷺ.
- d. After a few years, Zaid's father got to know that he is a slave in Makkah under someone from Banu Hashim. He along with his brother (Zaid's uncle) went to Makkah and came to the Prophet ﷺ and asked him to take ransom and give them back their son. Upon this the Prophet ﷺ said that he will leave the matter to Zaid and if he wants to go with them he ﷺ won't take any money from Zaid's father and if Zaid choses to stay with the Prophet ﷺ then he will not hand him over to Zaid's family.
- e. Zaid's father and uncle were very happy upon hearing this and agreed.
- f. When Zaid was called and he recognized his father and uncle and was presented with the offer either go back or to stay with the Prophet ﷺ, he said:

"I can never choose anyone over you, for you are more than a father and uncle combined."

- g. Upon hearing this, Zaid's father was surprised and asked Zaid if he is in his senses or not as he was choosing the life of slavery over freedom, to which Zaid replied:

"I have seen from this man which prevents me from choosing anyone over him."

- h. On this, the Prophet ﷺ took Zaid in front of Ka'bah and exclaimed that he has adopted Zaid and he is now his son and he will inherit from him. This gave some comfort to Zaid's father and uncle and they left contended.
- i. Zaid is the ONLY companion mentioned by name in the Qur'an. And he was known as "حُبُّ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ" (The beloved of the Prophet ﷺ).

9. Rebuilding of the Ka'bah:

- a. Ibrahim alaihissalam was the first one to build it. The opinion that it was first built by Adam or by the angles is da'eef.
- b. The sanctuary itself serves as a reminder of the objective it aims for, that is the protection of people's blood, honor & wealth. It is similar to the purpose of Sharee'ah that is to protect people's blood, honor & wealth.
- c. There was a need to rebuilt Ka'bah for the following reasons:
 - i. It was a low building so anyone could climb it easily.

Seerah of the Prophet ﷺ

Ali Ahmed Saeed

- ii. It was roofless, so adding to the point one it would allow thieves to enter and steal the treasures kept inside,
- iii. Its walls had weakened because of the floods, specially some recent ones at that time, in Makkah.
- iv. An immediate reason also mentioned that when a lady who was perfuming the Ka'bah, its cloth caught fire and caused damage.
- d. The Quraish decided to use only lawful money in order to honor the Ka'bah.
- e. Initially, they were afraid of bringing down the Ka'bah, however, Waleed bin Mugheerah initiated the task by saying, "O Allah! We have not gone astray. We only want what is good." Seeing that he was unharmed, the Quraish accompanied him in the task until they reach the foundations laid by Ibrahim.
- f. The walls were divided between the major clans. The Prophet ﷺ and Abbas are also reported to have carried the stones to build the Ka'bah (Bukhari: 1582).
- g. A dispute arose when the black stone was to be placed. Abu Umaiyah bin Mugheerah (the father of the mother of believers Umm-e-Salamah) proposed a solution that whoever enters Ka'bah first will decide the matter and it was the Prophet ﷺ who entered and all were happy.
- h. The Prophet ﷺ after listening to their dispute asked them to bring a piece of cloth and asked each tribe to hold the corners of the cloth and then took the stone himself and placed it in its place and a war was averted.
- i. However, the Quraish couldn't built the Ka'bah completely as they ran out of pure wealth and left the "Hijr" with a short wall to indicate that it was a part of the Ka'bah.

Lecture No-7: The Dawn of Prophethood and early Phases

1. Signs of Prophethood:

a. Salutation of Stones.

عَنْ جَابِرِ بْنِ سَمُرَةَ، قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ " إِنِّي لَأَعْرِفُ حَجْرًا بِمَكَّةَ كَانَ يُسَلِّمُ عَلَيَّ قَبْلَ أَنْ أُبْعَثَ إِنِّي لَأَعْرِفُهُ الْآنَ "

Jabir b. Samura reported Allah's Messenger (ﷺ) as saying:

I recognise the stone in Mecca which used to pay me salutations before my advent as a Prophet and I recognise that even now. (Muslim: 2277)

b. Closure of Skies for the Jinns (after the beginning of Prophethood).

وَأَنَا لَمَسْنَا السَّمَاءَ فَوَجَدْنَاهَا مُلِئَتْ حَرَسًا شَدِيدًا وَشُهُبًا

'Earlier' we tried to reach heaven 'for news', only to find it filled with stern guards and shooting stars. (Surah al-Jinn, verse 8)

c. True dreams.

d. The love of seclusion, which according to some scholars lasted for three years.

2. The First Revelation:

a. Narrated 'Aisha (the mother of the faithful believers):

- i. The commencement of the Divine Inspiration to Allah's Messenger (ﷺ) was in the form of good dreams which came true like bright daylight, and then the love of seclusion was bestowed upon him. He used to go in seclusion in the cave of Hira where he used to worship (Allah alone) continuously for many days before his desire to see his family. He used to take with him the journey food for the stay and then come back to (his wife) Khadija to take his food likewise again till suddenly the Truth descended upon him while he was in the cave of Hira.
- ii. The angel came to him and asked him to read. The Prophet (ﷺ) replied, "I do not know how to read." The Prophet (ﷺ) added, "The angel caught me (forcefully) and pressed me so hard that I could not bear it any more. He then released me and again asked me to read and I replied, 'I do not know how to read.' Thereupon he caught me again and pressed me a second time till I could not bear it any more. He then released me and again asked me to read but again I replied, 'I do not know how to read (or what shall I read)?' Thereupon he caught me for the third time and pressed me, and then released me and said,

Seerah of the Prophet ﷺ

Ali Ahmed Saeed

أَقْرَأْ بِاسْمِ رَبِّكَ الَّذِي خَلَقَ ۝ ۱ خَلَقَ الْإِنْسَانَ مِنْ عَلَقٍ ۝ ۲ اقْرَأْ وَرَبُّكَ الْأَكْرَمُ ۝ ۳
الَّذِي عَلَّمَ بِالْقَلَمِ ۝ ۴ عَلَّمَ الْإِنْسَانَ مَا لَمْ يَعْلَمْ

'Read, in the Name of your Lord Who has created (all that exists), has created man out of a clot, Read! And your Lord is the Most Generous. Who has taught (the writing) by the pen, has taught man that which he knew not.' (96.1-5)

- iii. Then Allah's Messenger (ﷺ) returned with the Inspiration and with his heart beating severely. Then he went to Khadija bint Khuwailid and said, "Cover me! Cover me!"
- iv. They covered him till his fear was over and after that he told her everything that had happened and said, "I fear that something may happen to me." Khadija replied,
 - "Never! By Allah, Allah will never disgrace you. You keep good relations with your kith and kin,
 - help the poor and the destitute,
 - serve your guests generously and
 - assist the deserving calamity-afflicted ones."
- v. Khadija then accompanied him to her cousin Waraqa bin Naufal bin Asad bin 'Abdul 'Uzza, who, during the pre-Islamic Period became a Christian and used to write the writing with Hebrew letters. He would write from the Gospel in Hebrew as much as Allah wished him to write. He was an old man and had lost his eyesight. Khadija said to Waraqa, "Listen to the story of your nephew, O my cousin!" Waraqa asked, "O my nephew! What have you seen?" Allah's Messenger (ﷺ) described whatever he had seen. Waraqa said, "This is the same one who keeps the secrets (angel Gabriel) whom Allah had sent to Moses. I wish I were young and could live up to the time when your people would turn you out." Allah's Messenger (ﷺ) asked, "Will they drive me out?" Waraqa replied in the affirmative and said, "Anyone (man) who came with something similar to what you have brought was treated with hostility; and if I should remain alive till the day when you will be turned out then I would support you strongly."
- vi. But after a few days Waraqa died and the Divine Inspiration was also paused for a while.

(Bukhari: 7, 4953)

Lessons from the Signs of Revelation and First Revelation

- The sharee'ah teaches us progression as Allah prepared his Prophet ﷺ for the Prophethood. Things done gradually are generally better in both quality and quantity.

- Isolation is important for maintaining a good level of spirituality. Those who complain regarding their spiritual well-being should take out time for themselves and spend some time alone, contemplating on the creation of Allah.
- The physical holding of Jibreel points to the fact that there was a realization to be made for the Prophet ﷺ that what he is facing is reality, not a dream.
- Those who say in this era that we cannot read should ponder on the first revelation as the very first order given by Allah in the history of this Sharee'ah is to read in order to learn and act. This points to the tremendous virtue of knowledge.
- The severity of revelation points that in order to achieve something big one need to go through struggle and after every difficulty is ease.
- Note the wisdom of Khadeejah in this incident where she doesn't get scared but compares what she is hearing with the actual character of the Prophet ﷺ and coming to the conclusion that a man of such qualities will not be abandoned by Allah!
- Also, she only consoles him and to seek expert advice, takes the Prophet ﷺ to Waraqah instead of giving her insights on a topic which she doesn't have a command over.
- People with noble character might be tested in their lives but they will not be humiliated by Allah.
- A righteous wife is the best worldly benefit a man can get as she is a source of comfort for her husband.
- The Prophet ﷺ was loyal to his wife even after her death and would mention Khadeejah often and would honor her relatives and her friends so much so that Ayesha would become jealous more than ever.
- The Prophet ﷺ found comfort in his house that is why instead of going to any of the elders or his uncles, he ran straight to Khadeejah to find comfort. Spouses should be a source of comfort for each other.

3. Forms of Revelation:

i. True Dreams,

1. He had true dreams for 6 months before Prophethood and in one narration, the Prophet ﷺ said that true dreams are 1/46th part of the Prophethood.
2. Whatever he would see in his dream in the night, would come true on the next day.

ii. Inspiration in the heart,

iii. Jibreel in the form of a man,

iv. Like the sound of a bell (hardest),

v. Jibreel in his original form,

vi. Direct with Allah.

4. Second Revelation:

a. Narrated Jabir bin `Abdullah:

That he heard Allah's Messenger (ﷺ) describing the period of pause of the Divine Inspiration, and in his description he said, "While I was walking I heard a voice from the sky. I looked up towards the sky, and behold! I saw the same Angel who came to me in the Cave of Hira', sitting on a chair between the sky and the earth. I was so terrified by him that I fell down on the ground. Then I went to my wife and said, 'Wrap me in garments! Wrap me in garments!' They wrapped me, and then Allah revealed:

يَا أَيُّهَا الْمُدَّثِّرُ ۝ قُمْ فَأَنذِرْ ۝ وَرَبَّكَ فَكَبِّرْ ۝ وَثِيَابَكَ فَطَهِّرْ ۝ وَالرُّجْزَ فَاهْجُرْ ۝
وَلَا تَمْنُنْ تَسْتَكْثِرُ ۝ وَلِرَبِّكَ فَاصْبِرْ

- "O you covered up 'in your clothes'!
 - Arise and warn 'all'.
 - Revere your Lord 'alone'.
 - Purify your garments.
 - 'Continue to' shun idols.
- Do not do a favour expecting more 'in return'.
- And persevere for 'the sake of' your Lord." (Surah al-Muddassir:1-7)

Abu Salama said....Rujz means idols.

After that, the Divine Inspiration started coming more frequently and regularly.

Bukhari: 4926

- b. A hadith from the mother of believers, Ayesha, indicates that the Prophet ﷺ saw Jibreel in his original form twice. The first time was during the second revelation and the second time was during the night ascension. But it also seems that the first revelation was also in the original form of Jibreel. And Allah Knows Best.
- c. The gap between the first and second revelation seems to be around 10 days as it is believed that the first revelation came on the 21st Ramadan and the Prophet ﷺ is reported to have said that he spent one month in Hira. And Allah knows Best (Bukhari: 4922).

d. Lessons from the second Revelation:

- i. The one who is calling to Allah should command good and forbid evil.
- ii. His call should be to Allah, not to himself.
- iii. He should be presentable.
- iv. He should be clean from vices and bad morals.
- v. He should not expect anything in return from Allah.
- vi. When you'll call to Allah, you will face challenges. So be patient and expect your reward from Allah.

Seerah of the Prophet ﷺ

Ali Ahmed Saeed

5. As-Salah

- a. The Prophet ﷺ was taught ablution and the prayer by Jibreel.
- b. Majority of the scholars are of the opinion that Salah was not obligatory before Mi'raj.

6. Stages of Da'wah in the Makkan Era:

- a. Private Da'wah: It lasted for the first three years. The wisdom behind this is also progression. Had it been all spontaneous, it would've been even more difficult for the Prophet ﷺ to preach and the companions to absorb the message.
- b. Public Preaching with Opposition and the beginning of Persecution: It spans from the start of fourth year to the start of fifth year.
- c. Public Preaching with heavy persecution: It covers the time span from the start of fifth year to the mid of tenth year.
- d. Escaping from Execution: This time spans from the mid of tenth year to the end of thirteenth year.

7. Early Converts:

- a. List of the early converts is as follows:

First Free Man	Waraqah bin Naufal/Abu Bakr
First Woman	Khadeejah Bint-e-Khuwailad
First Child	Ali bin Abi Talib
First Freed Slave	Zaid bin Haarithah
First Slave	Bilal bin Rabah

- b. People converted by Abu Bakr were:

- i. Uthman bin Affan (around 34 years),
- ii. Zubair ibn-al-Awwam (around 16 years),
- iii. Abdur Rahman bin Awf (around 30 years),
- iv. Sa'd bin Abi Waqqas (around 15 years).

- c. Other early converts were:

- i. Abu Ubaidah Amir ibn al-Jarrah,
- ii. Talha bin Ubaydullah (around 15 years),
- iii. Al-Arqam bin Abi Arqam,
- iv. Sa'eed bin Zaid,
- v. Fatimah bint al-Khattab,
- vi. Abdullah bin Mas'ood,
- vii. Khabbab ibn al-Arat,
- viii. Family of Yasir. Including Yasir, Sumayyah & Ammar.

- d. The early converts are considered a little more than 40.

Seerah of the Prophet ﷺ

Ali Ahmed Saeed

8. Dar-al-Arqam:

- a. When the number of Muslims grew, they needed a place where they could all gather. Why would they need to gather?
 - i. It is a form of strengthening your faith when you meet the people of faith.
 - ii. You are a moral support for each other.
 - iii. Discuss important matters.
 - iv. The revelation can be shared and taught.
- b. Why was Dar al-Arqam chosen?
 - i. Al-Arqam belonged to Banu Makhzoom, so no one would doubt a Makhzoomi because of the rivalry between Banu Hashim and Banu Makhzoom.
 - ii. Al-Arqam was a young boy, probably in his teens, so no one would expect such courage from a young lad.
 - iii. His house was at the back of Mount Safa, in the close vicinity of Ka'bah, so it was a busy street and people wouldn't doubt so many people going in and out of that direction as everyone would visit Ka'bah for tawaf almost daily.
 - iv. His house would have been large to cater around 40 people.

9. Second Phase- Public Preaching & the beginning of Persecution (4th to the start of 5th Year of Prophethood):

a. Invitation to Banu Hashim.

- i. At this time, there were some rumors spreading amongst Quraish that Allah has sent some messages to Muhammad ﷺ but as the Prophet ﷺ had not preached publically and not challenged the ideology of Quraish, they weren't much bothered.
- ii. When three years had passed, the verse of Surah ash-Shu'araa was revealed ordering the Prophet ﷺ to now call the people to the religion of Allah starting from his near relatives:

وَأَنْذِرْ عَشِيرَتَكَ الْأَقْرَبِينَ

"And warn 'all, starting with` your closest relatives," (Surah ash-Shu'ara: 214)

- iii. The Prophet ﷺ asked Ali to invite Banu Hashim and some of Banu Abd al-Muttalib to a feast, summing to about 40-45 people.
- iv. When the people were done with the feast, Abu Lahb, sensing that the Prophet ﷺ would proclaim his message, the rumors of which were being heard, he spoke and said that Muhammad ﷺ should
 1. Stop preaching new things regarding their faith as it would tarnish the reputation of Banu Hashim,

Seerah of the Prophet ﷺ

Ali Ahmed Saeed

2. Also, Banu Hashim was not capable of fighting the other Arabs if this new faith doesn't please the Arabs and they start resisting it,
 3. And it's better that you're stopped by your own kith and kin instead of the people of other tribes.
 4. And there is no one who has brought more evil to his people than you.
- v. Hearing this all, the Prophet ﷺ kept quiet and invited them again on some other day.
- vi. This time the Prophet ﷺ spoke before anyone else could speak and
1. Called to Tawheed,
 2. Called to the belief in Resurrection,
 3. Claimed his Prophethood,
 4. Asked them to be his helper in his mission.
- vii. Ali was the one to claim his support for the Prophet ﷺ.
- viii. Abu Talib expressed his support for the Prophet ﷺ throughout his mission but also said that he would not leave the religion of Abdul Muttalib.
- ix. On this, Abu Lahb was infuriated and said that this call was reprehensible and asked Abu Talib to stop the Prophet ﷺ before the other Arabs would do so and humiliate them.
- x. No one other was harsh like Abu Lahb and the meeting ended.

b. Lessons from the first Public Call to the Family:

- i. One should start preaching from the close family.
- ii. From the first meeting, we learn that wisdom requires that one knows when to speak and when one should keep quiet.

c. Call at the Mount of Safa & revelation of Surah al-Masad.

- i. It is reported on the authority of Ibn 'Abbas that when this verse was revealed:
 1. "And warn thy nearest kindred" the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) set off till he climbed Safa' and called loudly: Be on your guard! They said: Who is it calling aloud? They said: Muhammad.
 2. He (the Apostle) said: If I were to inform you that there were horsemen emerging out of the foot of this mountain, would you believe me? They said: We have not experienced any lie from you. He said: Well, I am a warner to you before a severe torment.
 3. They gathered round him, and he said: "O Quraish people! (or he said a similar word) Buy yourselves! I cannot save you from Allah (if you disobey Him) O Bani Abu Manaf! I cannot save you from Allah (if you disobey Him). O `Abbas! The son of `Abdul Muttalib! I cannot save you from Allah (if you disobey Him) O Safiya, (the aunt of

Ali Ahmed Saeed

Allah's Messenger (ﷺ) I cannot save you from Allah (if you disobey Him). O Fatima, the daughter of Muhammad! Ask what you wish from my property, but I cannot save you from Allah (if you disobey Him).

4. He (the narrator) said that Abu Lahab then said: Destruction to you! Is it for this you have gathered us? He (the Holy Prophet) then stood up, and this verse was revealed:"

تَبَّتْ يَدَا أَبِي لَهَبٍ وَتَبَّ ۝ ۱ مَا أَغْنَىٰ عَنْهُ مَالُهُ وَمَا كَسَبَ ۝ ۲ سَيَصْلَىٰ نَارًا
ذَاتَ لَهَبٍ ۝ ۳ وَامْرَأَتُهُ حَمَّالَةَ الْحَطَبِ ۝ ۴ فِي جِيدِهَا حَبْلٌ مِّن مَّسَدٍ

Perish the hands of Abu Lahab, and he indeed perished"

(Bukhari: 4771, Muslim: 208a)

d. Lessons from the call at Safa:

- i. Surah al-Masad is one of the miracles of the Qur'an as it declared that Abu Lahb will end in fire, meaning he will die in a state of kufr. He lived more than a decade after this surah was revealed and died as a polytheist.

e. Reaction of the aunt (wife of Abu Lahb) of the Prophet ﷺ at the revelation of Surah al-Masad.

- i. When she heard about the revelation of Surah al-Masad, she carried stones in her hand and went to Haram to strike the Prophet ﷺ.
- ii. Abu Bakr was with the Prophet ﷺ in the Haram and when he saw Umm-e-Jamil 'Arwa bint Harb, he asked the Prophet ﷺ to leave from the fear that she may harm him as she was a vicious lady.
- iii. The Prophet ﷺ said that she won't be able to see him.
- iv. She came and asked in anger from Abu Bakr regarding the whereabouts of the Prophet ﷺ and said,

"Had I seen him now, I would have struck his mouth with this stone."

- v. Abu Bakr was surprised and asked the Prophet ﷺ about what just happened, so the Prophet told him that Allah prevented her from seeing him.

f. Divorce to the daughters of the Prophet ﷺ by the sons of Abu Lahb.

- i. The daughters of the Prophet ﷺ, Ruqayyah and Umm-e-Kulthoom were divorced by the two sons of Abu Lahb, Utbah & Utaybah, following suit with their parents.

Seerah of the Prophet ﷺ

Ali Ahmed Saeed

g. Quraish approach Abu Talib for the first time.

- i. When Quraish found out that the Prophet ﷺ would not stop and he has his uncle's support, they went to Abu Talib and asked him to stop the Prophet ﷺ as he had insulted their gods, scorned their religion and demeaned their lifestyle.
- ii. Abu Talib replied in a soft manner and they left him.

h. The Qiyam of the Prophet ﷺ and treatment of his neighbours (Context of Surah ad-Duha)

- i. Narrated Jundub bin Sufyan:
Once Allah's Messenger (ﷺ) became sick and could not offer his night prayer (Tahajjud) for two or three nights. Then a lady (the wife of Abu Lahab) came and said, "O Muhammad! I think that your Satan has forsaken you, for I have not seen him with you for two or three nights!" On that Allah revealed: 'By the fore-noon, and by the night when it darkens, your Lord (O Muhammad) has neither forsaken you, nor hated you.'

وَالْضُّحَىٰ ١ وَاللَّيْلِ إِذَا سَجَىٰ ٢ مَا وَدَّعَكَ رَبُّكَ وَمَا قَلَىٰ ٣ وَلَلْآخِرَةُ خَيْرٌ لَّكَ مِنَ الْأُولَىٰ ٤ وَلَسَوْفَ يُعْطِيكَ رَبُّكَ فَتَرْضَىٰ ٥ أَلَمْ يَجِدْكَ يَتِيمًا فَآوَىٰ ٦ وَوَجَدَكَ ضَالًّا فَهَدَىٰ ٧ وَوَجَدَكَ عَائِلًا فَأَغْنَىٰ

(Surah ad-Duha.1-3). (Bukhari: 4950)

i. Quraish ask about the Lineage of Allah.

- i. Ubayy bin Ka'b:
"The idolaters were saying to the Messenger of Allah: 'Name the lineage of your Lord for us.' So Allah, Most High, revealed:

قُلْ هُوَ اللَّهُ أَحَدٌ ١ اللَّهُ الصَّمَدُ ٢ لَمْ يَلِدْ وَلَمْ يُولَدْ ٣ وَلَمْ يَكُن لَّهُ كُفُوًا أَحَدٌ

Say: "He is Allah, the One. Allah As-Samad." So As-Samad is 'the One Who does not beget, nor is He begotten,' because there is nothing born except it will die, and there is nothing that dies except that it will be inherited from, and verily. Allah, the Mighty and Sublime, does not die, nor is He inherited from. 'And there is none comparable to Him.' He said: 'There is nothing similar to Him, nor equal to Him, nor is there anything like Him.'"

(at-Tirmidhi: 3364)

j. Negotiations with the Prophet ﷺ and the revelation of Surah al-Kafiroon.

- i. The Quraish went on to negotiate with the Prophet ﷺ and asked him to worship their gods for one year and they would worship his God, in order to seek a way out of their misery.

Seerah of the Prophet ﷺ

Ali Ahmed Saeed

- ii. On this, Allah revealed Surah al-Kafiroon:

قُلْ يٰٓاَيُّهَا الْكٰفِرُوْنَ ۙ لَا اَعْبُدُ مَا تَعْبُدُوْنَ ۚ وَلَا اَنْتُمْ عٰبِدُوْنَ مَا اَعْبُدُ ۚ وَلَا اَنَا عٰبِدُ مَا عٰبَدْتُمْ ۚ وَلَا اَنْتُمْ عٰبِدُوْنَ مَا اَعْبُدُ ۚ لَكُمْ دِيْنُكُمْ وَلِيَ دِيْنِ

Say, 'O Prophet, ' "O you disbelievers! I do not worship what you worship, nor do you worship what I worship. I will never worship what you worship, nor will you ever worship what I worship. You have your way, and I have my Way."

- k. Talk with al-Waleed bin Mugheerah and the context of Surah 'Abas.

- i. The Prophet ﷺ was keen to convince the leaders as they have influence over their people.
- ii. During these early days the Prophet ﷺ was having a conversation with al-Waleed ibn al-Mugheerah and during that time a blind companion, Ibn Umm-e-Maktoom, came and asked some questions.
- iii. The Prophet ﷺ knew that these leaders had prejudice and when they would see those people who are not "too esteemed" a part of this religion, they would turn away. So, the Prophet ﷺ didn't pay much attention to Ibn Umm-e-Maktoom and frowned because of the annoyance at that time and continued talking with al-Waleed, so Allah revealed Surah Abas.

- l. Quraish approach Abu Talib for the second time.

- i. When Quraish saw that there wasn't any effect of their talk with Abu Talib and the Prophet ﷺ is still persisting on his mission, they visited Abu Talib again and asked him to get rid of him for them or else they will fight him and the Prophet ﷺ until either of the sides perish. Thus the pressure on Abu Talib was rising now.
- ii. Therefore, Abu Talib talked to the Prophet ﷺ and asked him to spare himself and his old uncle and not bear Abu Talib more than he can endure.
- iii. Hearing this, the Prophet ﷺ gave his famous reply that if the Quraish were to place sun on his right hand and moon on his left, he would still not leave preaching the message of Allah.
- iv. When Abu Talib heard this, he assured of his support to the Prophet ﷺ.
- v. After this, Abu Talib never asked the Prophet ﷺ to stop his mission and provided continuous support throughout his life.

- m. The season of Pilgrimage & Revelation of Surah al-Muddassir and the context of Waleed b. Mugheerah.

- i. Season of pilgrimage was a worry for the Quraish as they didn't want people to believe in the Prophet ﷺ and save their reputation. So they consulted al-Waleed ibn al-Mugheerah for the solution.

Seerah of the Prophet ﷺ

Ali Ahmed Saeed

- ii. Al-Waleed suggested them to have a single stance so their words may be valued by those coming for the pilgrimage.
- iii. People starting suggesting what they can accuse the Prophet ﷺ of. Some suggested let's accuse him of soothsaying. To this al-Waleed said:

"By Allah, he is not that, for he has not the murmuring and rhyming of soothsayer's speech."

Then they suggested that he is possessed by Jinns. Al-Waleed said:

"We have seen possessed ones and no insinuations peculiar to that state of mind was detected."

Then they suggested claiming that he is a poet. Al-Waleed said:

"No, he is not a poet, for we know poetry in all its forms and meters."

Then they said that he is practicing witchcraft. To that al-Waleed responded:

"No, we have seen sorcerers and their witchcraft and he has never been involved in the practice of blowing on the knots."

Then, when they were out of options because they had nothing to justify their falsehood, al-Waleed said:

"By Allah, his words are sweet, well based and fruitful and all what you are repeating about him is established to be false. This is not the speech of man. Yet, the most proper thing you can say about him is that he is a magician who has brought magic words with which he separates between brothers, spouses and families."

- iv. Regarding this planning and falsehood against the Prophet ﷺ Allah revealed the verses of Surah al-Muddathir:

ذَرْنِي وَمَنْ خَلَقْتُ وَحِيدًا ۚ ۱۱ وَجَعَلْتُ لَهُ مَالًا مَمْدُودًا ۚ ۱۲ وَبَنِينَ شُهُودًا ۚ ۱۳
وَمَهْدَتُّ لَهُ تَمْهِيدًا ۚ ۱۴ ثُمَّ يَطْمَعُ أَنْ أَزِيدَ ۚ ۱۵ كَلَّا إِنَّهُ كَانَ لِآيَاتِنَا عَنِيدًا ۚ ۱۶
سَأَرْهِفُهُ ۚ صَعُودًا ۚ ۱۷ إِنَّهُ فَكَّرَ وَقَدَّرَ ۚ ۱۸ فَقُتِلَ كَيْفَ قَدَّرَ ۚ ۱۹ ثُمَّ قُتِلَ كَيْفَ قَدَّرَ
ۚ ۲۰ ثُمَّ نَظَرَ ۚ ۲۱ ثُمَّ عَبَسَ وَبَسَرَ ۚ ۲۲ ثُمَّ أَدْبَرَ وَاسْتَكْبَرَ ۚ ۲۳ فَقَالَ إِنَّ هَذَا إِلَّا
سِحْرٌ يُؤْتَرُ ۚ ۲۴ إِنَّ هَذَا إِلَّا قَوْلُ الْبَشَرِ ۚ ۲۵ سَأُضِلُّهُ سَقَرًا ۚ ۲۶ وَمَا أَذْرُكَ مَا سَقَرُ
ۚ ۲۷ لَا تُبْقِي وَلَا تَذَرُ ۚ ۲۸ لَوَاحٍ لِّبَشَرٍ ۚ ۲۹ عَلَيْهَا تِسْعَةُ عَشْرِ

And leave to me 'O Prophet' the one I created all by Myself, and granted him abundant wealth, and children always by his side, and made life very easy for him. Yet he is hungry for more. But no! 'For' he has been truly stubborn with Our revelations. I will make his fate unbearable, for he contemplated and determined 'a degrading label for the Quran'. May he be condemned! How evil was what he determined! May he be condemned even more! How evil was what he determined! Then he re-contemplated 'in frustration', then frowned and scowled, then turned his back 'on the truth' and acted arrogantly, saying, "This 'Quran' is nothing but magic from the ancients. "This is no more than the word of a man." It does not let anyone live or die, scorching the skin. It is overseen by nineteen 'keepers'.

Seerah of the Prophet ﷺ

Ali Ahmed Saeed

(Surah al-Muddathir: 11-29)

Lecture No-8: 4th – 6th Year of Prophethood

n. Accusations of Quraish & the defense of Allah for His Messenger ﷺ

i. Quraish accused the Prophet ﷺ of the following things:

1. Soothsayer,
2. Madman,
3. Poet,
4. He has made up the Qur'an (17:88, 11:13, 2:23)
5. And many other claims.

ii. Allah responded to all of these in the last ruku of Surah at-Tur:

فَذَكِّرْ فَمَا أَنْتَ بِنِعْمَةِ رَبِّكَ بِكَاهِنٍ وَلَا مَجْنُونٍ ۚ ٢٩ أَمْ يَقُولُونَ شَاعِرٌ نَتَرَبَّصُ بِهِ رَيْبَ الْمُنُونِ ۚ ٣٠ قُلْ تَرَبَّصُوا فَإِنِّي مَعَكُمْ مِنَ الْمْتَرَبِّصِينَ ۚ ٣١ أَمْ تَأْمُرُهُمْ أَخْلَامُهُمْ بِهَذَا أَمْ هُمْ قَوْمٌ طَاغُونَ ۚ ٣٢ أَمْ يَقُولُونَ تَقَوَّلَهُ بَلْ لَا يُؤْمِنُونَ ۚ ٣٣ فَلْيَأْتُوا بِحَدِيثٍ مِثْلِهِ ۚ إِن كَانُوا صَادِقِينَ ۚ ٣٤ أَمْ خُلِقُوا مِنْ غَيْرِ شَيْءٍ أَمْ هُمْ الْخَالِقُونَ ۚ ٣٥ أَمْ خَلَقُوا السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضَ ۚ بَلْ لَا يُوقِنُونَ ۚ ٣٦ أَمْ عِنْدَهُمْ خَزَائِنُ رَبِّكَ أَمْ هُمْ الْمَصْيطِرُونَ ۚ ٣٧ أَمْ لَهُمْ سُلَّمٌ يَسْتَمِعُونَ فِيهِ ۚ فَلْيَأْتِ مُسْتَمِعُهُمْ بِسُلْطَانٍ مُبِينٍ ۚ ٣٨ أَمْ لَهُ الْبَنَاتُ وَلَكُمْ الْبَنُونَ ۚ ٣٩ تَسْأَلُهُمْ أَجْرًا فَهُمْ مِنْ مَغْرَمٍ مُثْقَلُونَ ۚ ٤٠ أَمْ عِنْدَهُمُ الْغَيْبُ فَهُمْ يَكْتُمُونَ ۚ ٤١ أَمْ يُرِيدُونَ كَيْدًا ۚ فَالَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا هُمْ الْمَكِيدُونَ ۚ ٤٢ أَمْ لَهُمْ إِلَهٌ غَيْرُ اللَّهِ ۚ سُبْحَنَ اللَّهِ عَمَّا يُشْرِكُونَ ۚ ٤٣ وَإِنْ يَرَوْا كِسْفًا مِنَ السَّمَاءِ سَاقِطًا يَقُولُوا سَحَابٌ مَرْكُومٌ ۚ ٤٤ فَذَرُهُمْ حَتَّى يُلَاقُوا يَوْمَهُمُ الَّذِي فِيهِ يُصْعَقُونَ ۚ ٤٥ يَوْمَ لَا يُغْنِي عَنْهُمْ كَيْدُهُمْ شَيْئًا وَلَا هُمْ يُنصَرُونَ ۚ ٤٦ وَإِنَّ لِلَّذِينَ ظَلَمُوا عَذَابًا دُونَ ذَلِكَ وَلَكِنَّ أَكْثَرَهُمْ لَا يَعْلَمُونَ ۚ ٤٧ وَأَصْبِرْ لِحُكْمِ رَبِّكَ فَإِنَّكَ بِأَعْيُنِنَا ۚ وَسَبِّحْ بِحَمْدِ رَبِّكَ حِينَ تَقُومُ ۚ ٤٨ وَمِنَ اللَّيْلِ فَسَبِّحْهُ ۚ وَإِدْبَرَ النُّجُومِ ۚ ٤٩

(Surah at-Tur, verses 29-49)

o. Storytelling and hiring singers to distract from the Qur'an:

- i. Nadr ibn al-Harith (a cousin from his mother's side) went all the way to Persia to learn stories.
- ii. When he came back, he would look for the Prophet ﷺ and if he found him with a group of people, he would say to the group:

"Come to me! I've better stories to tell you than him." And also, he would say: "On what basis Muhammad's ﷺ words are better than me?"

So Allah revealed:

وَإِذَا تَنَلَّى عَلَيْهِمْ ءَايَتُنَا قَالُوا قَدْ سَمِعْنَا لَوْ نَشَاءُ لَقُلْنَا مِثْلَ هَذَا إِنْ هَذَا إِلَّا أَسَاطِيرُ الْأَوَّلِينَ

Seerah of the Prophet ﷺ

Ali Ahmed Saeed

Whenever Our revelations are recited to them, they challenge 'you', "We have already heard 'the recitation'. If we wanted, we could have easily produced something similar. This 'Quran' is nothing but ancient fables!" (Surah al-Anfaal, verse 31)

- iii. He would also hire female singers to distract the people from the Prophet ﷺ and regarding him, it is said, that the initial verses of Surah Luqman were revealed:

وَمِنَ النَّاسِ مَن يَشْتَرِي لَهْوَ الْحَدِيثِ لِيُضِلَّ عَن سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ بِغَيْرِ عِلْمٍ
وَيَتَّخِذَهَا هُزُوًا أُولَٰئِكَ لَهُمْ عَذَابٌ مُّهِينٌ

"But there are some who employ theatrics, only to lead others away from Allah's Way—without any knowledge—and to make a mockery of it. They will suffer a humiliating punishment." (31:6)

p. Abu Jahl, al-Akhnas bin Shuraiq & Abu Sufyan listen to the Qur'an

- i. The Qur'an had started to make a mesmerizing effect on people. Al-Akhnas bin Shuraiq, Abu Jahl and Abu Sufyans, all three of them, being of high stature in the sight of their people, wanted to listen to the Qur'an but couldn't listen to it in the public as it would encourage others as well and it would be an embarrassment for them, so they all, individually, set out one night planning to listen to the recitation of the Prophet ﷺ by standing with one of the walls of his house as he would recite the Qur'an loud in tahajjud every night.
- ii. When the Prophet ﷺ ended the prayer, they all bumped out at each other and were embarrassed to see each other made their excuses and said they won't do this again.
- iii. But, the very next time the same incident happened and the embarrassment grew.
- iv. When for the third time it happened again, they swore by Allah that they won't come now because if people were to know about this, this would cause a tremendous embarrassment for them.
- v. al-Akhnas then went to Abu Sufyan the next day and asked him by Allah what he had heard in all those three nights. Abu Sufyan insisted that al-Akhnas starts first, but al-Akhnas didn't budge and Abu Sufyan then hesitantly replied:

"Some part of it was beyond my comprehension and some part I understood."

- vi. Then al-Akhnas went to Abu Jahl and asked him the same question to which Abu Jahl responded:

Seerah of the Prophet ﷺ

Ali Ahmed Saeed

“We (the Banu Makhzoom) and Banu Abd Manaf have always been in competition. When they started giving food to the pilgrims, we also started feeding them. When they started giving water to the pilgrim, we also raced to do it. We are like two horses running to the finish line. Now, they come up with the claim that they have a Prophet ﷺ to whom Allah sends message from above the seven heavens. How can we do that? For by Allah, I would never believe in him until I live!”

q. Waleed bin Mugheerah thinks he’s more worth:

- i. When al-Waleed surrendered in front of the Qur’an, he started claiming that he was more worthy of prophethood than the Prophet ﷺ and claimed that either he or Abu Mas’ood ath-Thaqafi should have gotten the revelation, to which Allah responded by saying:

وَقَالُوا لَوْلَا نُزِّلَ هَذَا الْقُرْآنُ عَلَى رَجُلٍ مِّنَ الْقَرْيَتَيْنِ عَظِيمٍ ۝٣١ أَهَمْ يَقْسِمُونَ
رَحْمَتَ رَبِّكَ ۚ نَحْنُ قَسَمْنَا بَيْنَهُمْ مَّعِيشَتَهُمْ فِي الْحَيَاةِ الدُّنْيَا ۖ وَرَفَعْنَا بَعْضَهُمْ
فَوْقَ بَعْضٍ دَرَجَاتٍ لِّيَتَّخِذَ بَعْضُهُم بَعْضًا سُلْخِيًّا ۖ وَرَحِمْتَ رَبِّكَ خَيْرٌ مِّمَّا
يَجْمَعُونَ ۝٣٢

And they exclaimed, “If only this Quran was revealed to a great man from ‘one of’ the two cities!” Is it they who distribute your Lord’s mercy? We ‘alone’ have distributed their ‘very’ livelihood among them in this worldly life and raised some of them in rank above others so that some may employ others in service. ‘But’ your Lord’s mercy is far better than whatever ‘wealth’ they amass.

(Surah az-Zukhruf, verses 31-32)

r. Prophet’s ﷺ son Abdullah is passes away and the revelation of Surah al-Kawthar

- i. When the second son of the Prophet ﷺ, Abdullah, passed away, Abu Lahb came jumping to the Quraish that the son of Muhammad ﷺ has passed away.
- ii. And ‘Aas bin Wail would say:

“Verily, his line has been severed. Leave him. He is a man cut off and without progeny; if he were to die, his memory would be cut off and you would be relieved of him.”

Seerah of the Prophet ﷺ

Ali Ahmed Saeed

s. Khabbab is refused payment:

- i. As Khabbab was a blacksmith, 'Aas bin Wail ordered a sword.
- ii. When Khabbab asked for payment, he said sarcastically that he would pay him on "The Day of Judgement" when Allah will bless him with offspring and wealth. So Allah revealed:

أَفَرَأَيْتَ الَّذِي كَفَرَ بِآيَاتِنَا وَقَالَ لَأُوتِيَنَّ مَالًا وَوَلَدًا ۚ ۗۗۗ أَطَّلَعَ الْغَيْبَ أَمِ
اتَّخَذَ عِنْدَ الرَّحْمَنِ عَهْدًا ۚ ۗۗۗ كَلَّا سَنَكْتُبُ مَا يَقُولُ وَنَمُدُّ لَهُ مِنَ الْعَذَابِ
مَدًّا ۚ ۗۗۗ وَنَرِثُهُ مَا يَقُولُ وَيَأْتِينَا فَرْدًا

Have you seen 'O Prophet' the one1 who rejects Our revelations yet boasts, "I will definitely be granted 'plenty of' wealth and children 'if there is an afterlife'."? Has he looked into the unseen or taken a pledge from the Most Compassionate? Not at all! We certainly record whatever he claims and will increase his punishment extensively. And We will inherit what he boasts of, and he will come before Us all by himself. (Surah Maryam, verses: 77-80)

Third Phase: Public Preaching with heavy persecution (Start of 5th Year till the 10th Year):

a) Abu Jahl threatens the Prophet ﷺ

iii. Ibn Abbas narrated:

1. "The Prophet was performing Salat when Abu Jahl came to him and said: 'Have I not forbidden you from this? Have I not forbidden you from this? Have I not forbidden you from this?'
2. The Prophet turned and grabbed him by his collar and scolded him by reciting:

أُولَىٰ لَكَ فَأُولَىٰ، ثُمَّ أُولَىٰ لَكَ فَأُولَىٰ

"Woe to you, and more woe! Again, woe to you, and even more woe!" (75:34-35)

3. So Abu Jahl said: 'You know that no one has more to call for assistance than me.' So Allah, Blessed is He and Most High, revealed: Then let him call upon his council. We will call out the guards of Hell."

أَرَأَيْتَ الَّذِي يَنْهَى ٩ عَبْدًا إِذَا صَلَّى ١٠ أَرَأَيْتَ إِنْ كَانَ عَلَى الْهُدَى ١١
أَوْ أَمَرَ بِالتَّقْوَى ١٢ أَرَأَيْتَ إِنْ كَذَّبَ وَتَوَلَّى ١٣ أَلَمْ يَعْلَمِ بِأَنَّ اللَّهَ يَرَى ١٤
كَلَّا لَئِنْ لَمْ يَنْتَهِ لَنَسْفَعًا بِالنَّاصِيَةِ ١٥ نَاصِيَةٍ كَذِبَةٍ خَاطِئَةٍ ١٦
فَلْيَدْعُ نَادِيَهُ ١٧ سَنَدْعُ الزَّبَانِيَةَ ١٨ كَلَّا لَا تَطِعُهُ وَاسْجُدْ وَاقْتَرِبْ ۝

Have you seen the man who prevents a servant 'of Ours' from praying? What if this 'servant' is 'rightly' guided, or encourages righteousness? What if that 'man' persists in denial and turns away? Does he not know that Allah sees 'all'? But no! If he does not desist, We will certainly drag him by the forelock— a lying, sinful forelock. So let him call his associates. We will call the wardens of Hell. Again, no! Never obey him 'O Prophet'! Rather, 'continue to' prostrate and draw near 'to Allah'.

(Surah al-'Alaq, verses 10-19)

4. So Ibn Abbas said: "By Allah, if he had called his council, then the guards of Hell would have seized him."

(at-Tirmidhi: 3349)

b. Persecution of the Companions

A man said:

"O Messenger of Allah(s.a.w)! Which of the people is tried most severely?" He said: "The Prophets, then those nearest to them, then those nearest to them. A man is tried according to his religion; if he is firm in his religion, then his trials are more severe, and if he is frail (weak) in his religion, then he is tried according to the strength of his religion. The servant shall continue to be tried until he is left walking upon the earth without any sins." (Tirmidhi: 2398)

i. Torture of Slaves

- Slaves were like that guy in the class who has no PR and the elite tribes were like those gangs in the college/university whom no one would like to deal with.
- In the days of Jahiliyyah, they were not even considered humans and were not even supposed to have a right of any opinion whatsoever.

1. Bilal bin Rabah:

- a. Bilal's owner was Umayyah bin Khalf, a filthy rich man and a staunch opponent of the Prophet ﷺ.

Seerah of the Prophet ﷺ

Ali Ahmed Saeed

- b. A rope would be folded on his neck and he would be dragged by that rope.
- c. He would be made to lie on hot sand with heavy stones on his stomach.
- d. Umayyah would say to him:

“You’ll die begging for life. If you want to live, reject Muhammad ﷺ and accept Laat and al-Uzzah as your lord.”

- e. Abdullah bin Masood narrates regarding the early persecution that seven people proclaimed their faith publically, out of which there was Bilal. All of those who were persecuted gave some words to please the Quraish in order to save their lives, but Bilal would not budge and he considered his life insignificant in front of Allah and he would only say “احد- احد” (One! One! Meaning Allah is the only One worthy of worship.)
- f. When Abu Bakr saw this all happening, he said to Umayyah:

“Till when you’ll do this to this poor guy? Don’t you fear Allah?”.

Ummayah said that this is all because of you people. So Abu Bakr gave Umayyah an offer and set Bilal free.

ii. Abu Bakr:

- 1. In one event, he publically called people to the religion of Allah.
 - People were outraged and so he was beaten so severely on his face using shoes that it was difficult to differentiate between his face and the back of his face. And people thought that he had died.
- 2. Once the Prophet ﷺ was performing tawaf and the Quraish started insulting the Prophet ﷺ and the traces of pain were visible on the face of the Prophet ﷺ.
 - a. The Quraish did the same when the Prophet ﷺ was in the second circuit of tawaf.
 - b. When he ﷺ was in the third circuit and Quraish did the same, the Prophet ﷺ turned towards them and said:

“Do you listen O Quraish? I’ve brought fourth your altar!”

- c. When the Quraish listened to this, they got terrified and the worst of them started saying:

Seerah of the Prophet ﷺ

Ali Ahmed Saeed

"O Abul Qasim, you are a guided man. Please go back. By Allah, you're not at all misguided!"

- d. When the second day came, the Prophet ﷺ started praying in Ka'bah and Uqbah bin Abi Muait came and strangled the Prophet ﷺ.
- e. Seeing this, Abu Bakr ran to save the Prophet ﷺ saying:
"Will you kill a man 'only' for saying: 'My Lord is Allah,' (40:28)
- f. The Quraish left the Prophet ﷺ and started beating Abu Bakr. There were four braids on his hair at that time and the Quraish beat him so severely that where he would touch on his hair, his hair would fall.

iii. Abdullah Bin Mas'ood:

- 1. The Quraish hadn't heard the Qur'an properly, so the companions were discussing if someone from them should recite the Qur'an loud in front of Ka'bah or not. So Abdullah bin Mas'ood volunteered as he wanted to recite the Qur'an out loud publically. The companions stopped him as he had no tribe to protect him in Makkah but he said that Allah would protect him.
- 2. He started reciting Surah ar-Rahman and when the Quraish realized that he is reciting the Qur'an, they pounced on him and started beating him and his face was severely injured.
- 3. When he came back the companions said this is why we didn't want you to go but Abdullah said that I've only increased my hatred for them and I'll go again tomorrow. But the companions asked him not to do this again.

iv. Family of Yasir:

- 1. Family of Yasir, including his wife and sons were tortured inhumanely.
- 2. Abu Jahl would torture them by burning them, dragging them with horses.
- 3. Seeing this the Prophet ﷺ would pray for them and console them by saying:

"O family of Yasir, be patient. Indeed your destination is Jannah!"

- 4. And finally one day, he struck the wife of Yasir, Sumyyah, with a spear and she became the first woman to die in the cause of Islam.
- 5. Soon after her death, her husband, yasir also passed away because of the torture.

v. Mus'ab bin Umair:

1. His mother was extremely rich and invested a lot on Mus'ab. So much so that he would wear imported clothes, shoes and perfumes and the perfumes of Mus'ab were recognized because of their quality.
2. But when his mother got to know of his Islam, she deprived him of food, clothes and tortured him so much that his skin would look like the skin of a snake, peeling off.
3. He would then wear a single cloak with leather patches to keep it intact.

vi. Khabbab ibn al-Arat:

1. He was a blacksmith and his mistress was Umm-e-Anmar.
2. She would burn the metal and heat his head and back from that metal.
3. Also, she would light fire and make him lie on the fire and the fire would only extinguish because of the melting fat of his back.
4. Because of the burnings, his back started appearing like vitiligo and when Umar saw his back during his caliphate, he exclaimed:

"I have never seen such a sight in my life!"

5. And when Khabbab came to the Prophet ﷺ, complaining, the Prophet ﷺ said to him:

Narrated Khabbab bin Al-Arat:

We complained to Allah's Messenger (ﷺ) (of the persecution inflicted on us by the infidels) while he was sitting in the shade of the Ka'ba, leaning over his Burd (i.e. covering sheet). We said to him, "Would you seek help for us? Would you pray to Allah for us?" He said, "Among the nations before you a (believing) man would be put in a ditch that was dug for him, and a saw would be put over his head and he would be cut into two pieces; yet that (torture) would not make him give up his religion. His body would be combed with iron combs that would remove his flesh from the bones and nerves, yet that would not make him abandon his religion. By Allah, this religion (i.e. Islam) will prevail till a traveler from Sana (in Yemen) to Hadrarmaut will fear none but Allah, or a wolf as regards his sheep, but you (people) are hasty.

(Bukhari: 3612)

vii. Sa'd bin Abi Waqqas:

1. When Sa'd's mother got to know of his Islam, she blackmailed him by saying that she wouldn't eat or drink until Sa'd comes back to his religion.

Seerah of the Prophet ﷺ

Ali Ahmed Saeed

2. To this Sa'd responded to his mother:

"O my mother! If you even had 100 souls and I would see all of them departing from this world, even then I would not leave this religion!"

c. Abu Bakr releases slaves and revelation of Surah al-Layl:

- i. When Abu Bakr saw the slaves like Bilal, his mother Hammamah, 'Amir bin Fuhairah, Abu Fukaihah, Labeenah, Nahdiyah, Zunairah, he set them all free by purchasing them and so the verses of Surah al-Layl were revealed:

وَسَيَجْزِيهَا الْآتِقَى ١٧ الَّذِي يُؤْتِي مَالَهُ يَتَزَكَّى ١٨ وَمَا لِأَحَدٍ عِنْدَهُ مِنْ نِعْمَةٍ تُجْزَى ١٩ إِلَّا ابْتِغَاءَ وَجْهِ رَبِّهِ الْأَعْلَى ٢٠ وَلَسَوْفَ يَرْضَى

"But the righteous will be spared from it— who donate 'some of' their wealth only to purify themselves, not in return for someone's favours, but seeking the pleasure of their Lord, the Most High. They will certainly be pleased."

(Surah al-Layl, verses 17-20)

d. Utaybah bin Abi Lahb:

- i. He once came to the Prophet ﷺ and tore his shirt/upper garment and spat on him but it didn't hit the face of the Prophet ﷺ. Upon this, the Prophet ﷺ prayed to Allah against him, saying, "O Allah, send a hound from your hounds upon him."
- ii. He went to Syria for trade and was eaten by a lion/beast.

e. The Blessed Face of the Prophet ﷺ was dusted:

- i. One day, one of these leaders of Quraish threw dust on the face of the Prophet ﷺ.
- ii. When the Prophet ﷺ returned home, one of his daughters started cleaning his face, crying. So the Prophet ﷺ said to his daughter:

"O my daughter, don't cry, for indeed Allah will protect your father."

f. First Migration to Abyssinia:

- i. When the persecution got severe in the 5th year of Prophethood, the Prophet ﷺ ordered those Muslims who can escape to flee from the persecution.
- ii. Abyssinia was selected for the migration for the following reasons:
 - 1. The ruler of Abyssinia, Asmahah, was known for his justice.

2. Asmahah was following Christianity and Christians are the closest to the Muslims and not vile against the Muslims.

- iii. 11 men and 4 women migrated.
- iv. The migration took place in Rajab of 5th year of Prophethood.
- v. When Quraish got to know of their escape, they followed them but the Muslims had moved on from the port before they could reach there.

g. Satanic Verses:

- i. Surah an-Najm, except for the initial part, was revealed in Ramadan in the 5th Year of Prophethood, shortly after the first migration.
- ii. The Prophet ﷺ publically recited those mesmerizing verses of Surah an-Najm and when the ayah of prostration came, all the Quraish listening to the recitation fell in prostration except Umayyah bin Khalf who took a handful of dust and rubbed his forehead with it.

وَأَنْ لَّيْسَ لِلْإِنْسَانِ إِلَّا مَا سَعَىٰ ۚ ٣٩ وَأَنَّ سَعْيَهُ سَوْفَ يُرَىٰ ۚ ٤٠ ثُمَّ يُجْزَاهُ الْجَزَاءَ الْأَوْفَىٰ ۚ ٤١ وَأَنَّ إِلَىٰ رَبِّكَ الْمُنْتَهَىٰ ۚ ٤٢ وَأَنَّهُ هُوَ أَضْحَكَ وَأَبْكَىٰ ۚ ٤٣ وَأَنَّهُ هُوَ أَمَاتَ وَأَحْيَا ۚ ٤٤ وَأَنَّهُ خَلَقَ الزَّوْجَيْنِ الذَّكَرَ وَالْأُنثَىٰ ۚ ٤٥ مِنْ نُّطْفَةٍ إِذَا تُمْنَىٰ ۚ ٤٦ وَأَنَّ عَلَيْهِ النَّشْأَةَ الْأُخْرَىٰ ۚ ٤٧ وَأَنَّهُ هُوَ أَغْنَىٰ وَأَقْنَىٰ ۚ ٤٨ وَأَنَّهُ هُوَ رَبُّ الشَّعْرَىٰ ۚ ٤٩ وَأَنَّهُ أَهْلَكَ عَادًا الْأُولَىٰ ۚ ٥٠ وَثَمُودًا فَمَا أَبْقَىٰ ۚ ٥١ وَقَوْمَ نُوحٍ مِّن قَبْلُ إِنَّهُمْ كَانُوا هُمْ أَظْلَمَ وَأَطْعَىٰ ۚ ٥٢ وَالْمُؤْتَفِكَةَ أَهْوَىٰ ۚ ٥٣ فَغَشَّيْهَا مَا غَشَّىٰ ۚ ٥٤ فَبِأَيِّ آلَاءِ رَبِّكَ تَتَمَارَىٰ ۚ ٥٥ هَذَا نَذِيرٌ مِّنَ النَّذِيرِ ۚ ٥٦ أَرَأَيْتَ الْكَافَّةَ ۚ ٥٧ لَيْسَ لَهَا مِنْ دُونِ اللَّهِ كَاشِفَةٌ ۚ ٥٨ أَفَمِنْ هَذَا الْحَدِيثِ تَعْجَبُونَ ۚ ٥٩ وَتَضْحَكُونَ وَلَا تَتَّبِعُونَ ۚ ٦٠ وَأَنْتُمْ سَمِدُونَ ۚ ٦١ فَاسْجُدُوا لِلَّهِ وَاعْبُدُوا ۝

- iii. A rumor spread that all of the Quraish had accepted Islam. So, the Muslims in Abyssinia came back in Shawwal of the same year.
- iv. But as they were only a few hours from Makkah, they got to know that the news of conversion wasn't true.
- v. Most of the people entered Makkah secretly, while a few went back to Abyssinia.

h. Conversion of Hamza bin Abdul Muttalib:

- i. He converted to Islam in the 6th Year of Prophethood.
- ii. He once went for hunting and when he returned back to Makkah he was informed by one of the slave girls of Banu Adi that Abu Jahl insulted your nephew a great deal.
- iii. Hamza got enraged and straight went to Abu Jahl with his quiver and arrows and gave him a nasty blow with his bow while he was sitting in Haram with the other leaders and said:

Seerah of the Prophet ﷺ

Ali Ahmed Saeed

"Do you condemn Muhammad ﷺ whereas I'm on his religion as well?! I say whatever he says! If you have guts, do whatever you can!"

- iv. The people of his tribe got up to defend Abu Jahl but he asked them not to do anything as he had insulted his nephew (the Prophet ﷺ) a great deal.
- v. Hamza said those words in anger but as soon as he said those he was taken by surprise and went home and prayed to Allah

"O Allah! If this is guidance then guide me towards it and if not then make a way out for me."

- vi. Next morning Hamza went to the Prophet ﷺ and informed him of the situation and sought advice. The Prophet ﷺ gave him the message of Allah and his heart opened for Islam and he proclaimed the Shahadah.

i. Conversion of Umar ibn al-Khattab:

- i. Just three days had passed and Allah had willed that Umar would accept Islam. He was twenty six years old at that time.
- ii. Allah's Messenger ﷺ used to pray for him.

"اللَّهُمَّ أَعِزَّ الْإِسْلَامَ بِأَحَبِّ هَذَيْنِ الرَّجُلَيْنِ عَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ، أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ ﷺ قَالَ إِلَيْكَ يَا بِي جَهْلٍ أَوْ يُعَمَّرَ بِنِ الْخَطَّابِ"

Narrated Ibn 'Umar:

that the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) said: "O Allah! Honor Islam through the most dear of these two men to you: Through Abu Jahl or through 'Umar bin Al-Khattab."
He said: "And the most dear of them to Him was 'Umar."
(Tirmidhi: 3681)

- iii. During the first migration to Abyssinia, Umar came across Layla bint Abi Hathmah who was packing her luggage and loading it on camel. Umar asked her where they are going. Layla, frustrated, responded:

"By Allah, we will migrate somewhere where Allah eases our affairs."

Umar, surprised, said, "Has the matter reached this level? May Allah help you and protect you".

1. When Layla's husband, Amir ibn ar-Rabi'ah, came back, she told him about what happened and expressed hope regarding Umar. So he replied:

"By Allah, the donkey of Umar's father will accept Islam before him."

Seerah of the Prophet ﷺ

Ali Ahmed Saeed

2. Then one day, Umar went out of his house one night and came to Ka'bah and heard the Prophet ﷺ reciting the Qur'an. He hid himself behind the cloth of Ka'bah and started listening to the recitation. The Prophet ﷺ was reciting Surah al-Haaqah. Umar was mesmerized by the recitation and started thinking to himself that he must be poet. At that point, Prophet ﷺ reached the verse:

وَمَا هُوَ بِقَوْلٍ شَاعِرٍ قَلِيلًا مَّا تُوْمِنُونَ

It is not the prose of a poet 'as you claim', 'yet' you hardly have any faith.

Umar was awe stricken. He thought to himself that he ﷺ must be soothsayer. And the Prophet ﷺ recited the verse:

وَلَا بِقَوْلٍ كَاهِنٍ قَلِيلًا مَّا تَذَكَّرُونَ

Nor is it the mumbling of a fortune-teller, 'yet' you are hardly mindful.

Even more taken by surprise, he thought to himself, "What is this then?". And the Prophet ﷺ recited:

تَنْزِيلٌ مِّن رَّبِّ الْعَالَمِينَ

'It is' a revelation from the Lord of all worlds.

(Surah al-Haaqah, verses: 41-43)

3. Then one day, outraged, Umar decided to kill the Prophet ﷺ. He grabbed his sword and went out of his house. On his way, he met Nu'aim bin Mas'ood (who had not revealed that he has accepted Islam) and Nu'aim asked Umar where he was going.
- When Nu'aim got to know the intentions of Umar, he asked Umar to first rectify the affairs of his family, informing him of the conversion of his sister Fatimah bint al-Khattab and her husband Sa'eed bin Zaid.
 - Umar, frustrated, went to Fatimah's house and heard them reciting the Qur'an from outside.
 - When he knocked, Khabbab ibn al-Arat (who was teaching them Qur'an) hid and Fatimah also hid the parchment on which Qur'an was written.

- d. When Umar entered he asked what they were murmuring. Both, the husband and wife, said they weren't murmuring anything.
- e. On this, Umar started beating Sa'eed. Fatimah jumped in to save his husband and Umar accidentally hit his sister and she started bleeding.
- f. Upon this, Fatimah shouted that indeed they have accepted the religion of the Prophet ﷺ.
- g. Umar, seeing the condition of his sister, calmed down and asked her to bring forth what they were reciting.
- h. Fatimah asked him to purify himself. Umar took a bath and started reading Surah Taha and was moved by the verses of the Qur'an.
- i. Khabbab, seeing this all, came out and Umar asked him where the Prophet ﷺ was. He was guided to Dar al-Arqam.
- j. Umar went there and accepted Islam at the hands of Prophet ﷺ.

Lecture No-09: Third Phase: Public Preaching with heavy persecution (Start of 5th Year till the 10th Year):

a. Uqbah bin Abi Mu'eet throws camel entrails on the Prophet ﷺ

i. Lessons from the Persecutions (Why such tortures?)

1. Distinguishing the real believers from those who claim to be.

And We indeed tested those who were before them. And Allah will certainly make (it) known (the truth of) those who are true, and will certainly make (it) known (the falsehood of) those who are liars, (although Allah knows all that before putting them to test)" [al-'Ankaboot 29:2-3]

"Allah will not leave the believers in the state in which you are now, until He distinguishes the wicked from the good. Nor will Allah disclose to you the secrets of the Ghayb (Unseen)" [Aal 'Imraan 3:179]

"Do you think that you will enter Paradise before Allah tests those of you who fought (in His Cause) and (also) tests those who are As-Saabiroon (the patient)?" [Aal 'Imraan 3:142]

2. This is a sign of man's weakness and his need for his Lord, and shows that he cannot succeed unless he realizes his need for his Lord and starts beseeching Him.

3. "Trials will continue to befall the believing man and woman, with regard to themselves, their children and their wealth, until they meet Allah with no sin on them."

Narrated by al-Tirmidhi, 2399; classed as saheeh (authentic) by al-Albani in al-Silsilah al-Saheehah, 2280.

Jabir (may Allah be pleased with him) said: The Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) said: "On the Day of Resurrection, when people who had suffered affliction are given their reward, those who were healthy will wish their skins had been cut to pieces with scissors when they were in the world." Narrated by al-Tirmidhi, 2402. See al-Silsilah al-Saheehah, no. 2206.

4. One of the reasons for calamities is so that people will not feel content only with this world. If the world were free of calamities, man would love it more and feel content with it, and would forget about the Hereafter. But calamities wake him up from his negligence and make him strive for the place in which there are no calamities or trials.
5. One of the greatest reasons behind calamities and trials is to warn against falling short in some matters, so that man can make up for the areas in which he has fallen short.

Seerah of the Prophet ﷺ

Ali Ahmed Saeed

6. To humble the people so that they may return back to Allah:

“Verily, We sent (Messengers) to many nations before you (O Muhammad). And We seized them with extreme poverty (or loss in wealth) and loss in health (with calamities) so that they might humble themselves (believe with humility).”

[al-An'am 6:42]

7. Worship at times of hardship and tribulation has a special flavour and a special reward.

It was narrated from Ma'qil ibn Yasar that the Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) said: “Worshipping at times of tribulation and confusion is like migrating to join me.” Narrated by Muslim, 2948.

8. Blessings that come after pain, hardship and calamity are more precious to people. So then they appreciate the blessings (more) of good health and safety as they should be appreciated.

b. Utbah bin Rabe'e'ah talks to the Prophet ﷺ.

- i. Once Quraish were sitting in the haram and Utbah said to them:

“Shouldn't I talk to Muhammad ﷺ and present him with some advices. Maybe he accepts some of them and stops preaching his religion?”

- ii. So he went to the Prophet ﷺ and starting talking to him. His main points were the following:

1. Some trick questions:

- “O Muhammad ﷺ! Are you better or Abdullah?”
- “O Muhammad ﷺ! Are you better or Abdul Muttalib?”
- “If you think that they were better than you then they were on the same religion that you're preaching against and demeaning it.”

2. Then he tried to bribe the Prophet ﷺ:

- “O my nephew! If you are doing this all for money, then we will give you money such that you will be the richest one amongst us.”
- “If you want to be a king, then we will make you our king.”
- “If you desire women, then we will marry you to ten women and you can choose the most beautiful of women for yourself.”
- “If you are sick, then we will get you cured by a doctor.”

- iii. After Utbah had completed his talk, the Prophet ﷺ asked him, “Are you done, O Abul Waleed?”. He said yes. And then the Prophet ﷺ started reciting Surah Fussilat from the start and when he came to the verse:

Seerah of the Prophet ﷺ

Ali Ahmed Saeed

فَإِنْ أَعْرَضُوا فَقُلْ أَنْذَرْتُكُمْ صَاعِقَةً مِثْلَ صَاعِقَةِ عَادٍ وَثَمُودَ

If they turn away, then say, 'O Prophet, 'I warn you of a 'mighty' blast, like the one that befell 'Ād and Thamūd.'

(Surah Fussilat, verse 13)

- iv. Utbah became so terrified that he placed his hands on the blessed mouth of the Prophet ﷺ and said, "Have mercy on your people." And went terrified to his people.
- v. When the leaders saw him coming back, they said, "Wallahi! This is not the same Utbah who went earlier."
- vi. Upon inquiring Utbah, he shared the following thoughts:
 - 1. The message that he heard was neither poetry nor soothsaying. And he has never heard anything like it before.
 - 2. Leave Muhammad ﷺ on his own, if he would be victorious then his victory would be the victory of Quraish and if he would be killed by other arabs then their hands would be free of his blood.

c. Second Migration to Abyssinia:

- i. There are different opinions as to when this migration took place.
- ii. There were around 82-83 men and 18-19 women in this migration.
- iii. When Quraish got to know of this migration, they sent Abdullah ibn Abi Rabi'ah and 'Amr ibn al-Aas to go to Najashi so they can ask him to send the immigrants back.
- iv. They went to Najashi with gifts.
- v. When they arrived in Abyssinia, they first bribed the priests so they can help them win over Najashi.
- vi. When they went to the court of Najashi, they made the following remarks:
 - 1. Some of our foolish people have left our religion and neither accepted yours.
 - 2. They are faulty people and that is why we have been harsh with them.
 - 3. Please return them to us.
- vii. Quraish didn't want Najashi to listen to the Muslims; however, Najashi was persistent to listen to what the Muslims had to say.
- viii. The muslims consulted each other and they decided that they will stick to the truth and Ja'far would lead the talk.
- ix. Najashi asked the Muslims:

"What is this religion which you are following, separating yourself from your people? And then you didn't enter my religion as well?"

Seerah of the Prophet ﷺ

Ali Ahmed Saeed

- x. Ja'far bin Abi Talib responded to this with the following points:
1. We used to:
 - a. worship idols,
 - b. We used to eat dead meat,
 - c. We used to commit immorality,
 - d. We used to break relations with each other,
 - e. We used to mistreat our neighbors,
 - f. The powerful would oppress the weak.
 2. The Prophet ﷺ called us to:
 - a. Worship of One God,
 - b. Leave the idols,
 - c. Truthfulness in speech,
 - d. Be honest,
 - e. Maintain ties of kinship,
 3. The Prophet ﷺ stopped us from:
 - a. Forbidden things,
 - b. Immorality,
 - c. False testimony,
 - d. Unlawfully consuming the money of orphans,
 - e. Slandering chaste women,
 4. After listening to this, Najashi asked Ja'far if he has anything from the revelation. Ja'far started reciting Surah Maryam. The beautiful portion mentioning Isa and Maryam moved Najashi and all those in the court so much so that they all burst into tears.

Jesus declared, "I am truly a servant of Allah. He has destined me to be given the Scripture and to be a prophet. He has made me a blessing wherever I go, and bid me to establish prayer and give alms-tax as long as I live, and to be kind to my mother. He has not made me arrogant or defiant. Peace be upon me the day I was born, the day I die, and the day I will be raised back to life!" That is Jesus, son of Mary. 'And this is' a word of truth, about which they dispute.

Seerah of the Prophet ﷺ

Ali Ahmed Saeed

6. He then ordered the Makkans to go back as he refused to hand over the companions to them.
7. 'Amr ibn al-Aas decided to go to Najashi again and tried to incite him by saying that they have weird beliefs with regards to Isa. Najashi again called the Muslims and he asked Ja'far about their belief regarding Isa to which Ja'far responded:

"We believe that he is the slave of Allah, His messenger and a spirit from Allah which He sent to the virgin Mary."

8. Najashi picked a small stick and said that what you say about Isa is not even a bit more than this stick.
9. He gave the gifts of the Makkans back and asked them to leave so they left rejected.

10. Lessons:

- a. The needs of soul should be preferred over the needs of body. It is through such sacrifices, purification is achieved.
- b. One should not panic in difficult situations and stick to the principles as they stuck to the truth and didn't lie fearing Najashi.
- c. One should please Allah not the people. This lesson is beautifully depicted in this incident.
- d. When your religion is in danger, you need to leave bad places/companies.
- e. Your religion should be your priority.
- f. When you leave something for Allah, Allah will replace it something better than that.

d. Quraish approach Abu Talib for the third time.

- i. They went to Abu Talib with the eldest son of Waleed bin Mugheerah, Imaarah ibn al-Waleed and gave him the option to exchange him with the Prophet ﷺ as he was mighty, handsome and intelligent. To that Abu Talib responded:

"By Allah! This is an evil bargain! Would you give me your son to feed him for you and I give you my son in return to kill him?! By Allah! This shall never be!"

- ii. Mut'im bin Adi expressed his annoyance and said that your people have been fair with you, taking the pain to kill your nephew on your behalf (which you would despise doing yourself) and still you don't accept anything from them.
- iii. Abu Talib got frustrated and the situation got tense.

Lecture No-10: Social Boycott, the Year of Sorrow & Visit to Ta'if

1. The Social Boycott:

- iv. Things had built up for Quraish now as:
 - 1. Many people were accepting the religion of Islam,
 - 2. Muslims were getting support from Abyssinia to stay there in peace,
 - 3. Strong people like Hamza and Umar were also converting to Islam.
- v. Quraish had already offered Abu Talib to give them the Prophet ﷺ in exchange of Ummarah bin Waleed to which Abu Talib had refused.
- vi. Abu Talib took the protection of the Prophet ﷺ seriously and took all the Banu Hashim to a valley they owned at a distance of one kilometer from Haram, including believers and disbelievers. They all were determined to protect the Prophet ﷺ.
- vii. When Quraish saw this determination from Banu Muttalib, they got infuriated and decided to completely boycott Banu Muttalib, including
 - 1. not marrying within their families,
 - 2. not meeting them,
 - 3. not buying and selling with themuntil they hand over the Prophet ﷺ to them.
- viii. They wrote a document for this and hanged them within the Ka'bah.
- ix. This boycott happened in the 7th Year of Prophethood.
- x. According to some narrations, people fro
- xi.
- xii.
- xiii. m Banu Muttalib would only come out in the season of Hajj for these three years.
- xiv. Some of them, like Waleed bin Mugheerah, would say to the Quraish that if you find any of Banu Muttalib purchasing anything to eat or drink, then buy it from the seller by giving him extra amount and even if you don't have money, but it and I'll pay for it.
- xv. People would hear babies crying because of hunger throughout this time.
- xvi. Sa'd bin Abi Waqqas would say that once I ate something which I found on ground and I didn't know what it was and I ate it because of hunger and I still didn't know to this day what I ate.
- xvii. Some of the people of Quraish found this all very disturbing and would try to help them by providing them with food.
 - 1. Once Hakim bin Hizam took his servant and they carried some stuff to eat and on their way Abu Jahl stopped them and a heated debate started. Meanwhile, Abul Bukhtari came and defended Hakim and took a bone of camel and struck Abu Jahl with it and Hakim went on his way.
 - 2. Hisham bin Amr (brother of Hashim through mother) would take a camel and load it with food and take it near the valley of Abu Talib and let it go so that Banu Muttalib could take the food and then slaughter the camel and eat from it.

Seerah of the Prophet ﷺ

Ali Ahmed Saeed

- xviii. After three years, Allah revealed to the Prophet ﷺ that termite had eaten all of the treaty except for باسمك اللهم, so the Prophet ﷺ informed Abu Talib regarding it. So Abu Talib asked the Prophet ﷺ:

"O nephew, who told you this? Nobody comes here and you don't go to people and I know that you don't lie."

The Prophet ﷺ said: "I was informed by my Lord."

- xix. So the next day Abu Talib went to Quraish. When Quraish saw him coming, they were excited and thought that finally Abu Talib had decided to hand over the Prophet ﷺ to them.
- xx. Abu Talib said that he had come to give them on offer and told them what the Prophet ﷺ had told him and said that you can bring forth the document and if it is as said by the Prophet ﷺ, then they will have to end the boycott and if not, Abu Talib would hand over the Prophet ﷺ to them.
- xxi. Quraish agreed to this happily and decided to bring the document. When the document was brought and they saw that it was as described by the Prophet ﷺ, they started saying:

"By Allah! This is nothing but the magic of Muhammad (ﷺ)!"

- xxii. To add to this, some of the Quraish wanted this boycott to end and the main of these people were five, including:

1. Hisham bin Amr,
2. Zuhair bin Abi Umayyah,
3. Mut'im bin Adi,
4. Abul Bukhtari Aas bin Hisham,
5. Zam'aa bin Aswad.
 - a. Hisham talked to them all one by one and took them on one page and they all decided that they will all speak against this boycott in Ka'bah when people will be gathered there.
 - b. So, they next day Zuhair stood up and said:

"O people of Makkah! Will we keep eating and drinking while Banu Hashim and Banu Muttalib is destroyed! By Allah! This is a great injustice! I swear that I will not eat or drink until this treaty is broken!"

- c. Hearing this, Abu Jahl said, "By Allah! This treaty will not be broken!"
- d. On this, Zam'aa stood up and said:

Seerah of the Prophet ﷺ

Ali Ahmed Saeed

“By Allah! You are a liar! Even when this treaty was written, we were not content with it and we don’t follow it!”

e. Abul Bukhtri added:

“Zam’aa speaks the truth. We were not content with what was written and and we don’t follow it!”

f. Amr bin Hisham also spoke against it and Abu Jahl said that this all looks pre-planned but given the situation he couldn’t control the hype.

xxiii. Quraish had no choice but to stand by their words with Abu Talib and because of what was said by the people of Makkah. Frustrated, they had to end the boycott in the tenth year of Prophethood.

Fourth Phase: Escaping from Execution (10th Year till the Hijrah)

2. Year of Sorrow.

- a. The boycott had a toll on the old Abu Talib and he fell ill. During this illness, the leaders of Quraish decided to visit him. They asked him to resolve the matter between them and the Prophet ﷺ.
- b. Abu Talib called the Prophet ﷺ and asked him to listen to what these people had to say. The Prophet ﷺ gave them the go ahead and said that he is willing to listen.
- c. Quraish asked the Prophet ﷺ to leave them on their own and stop calling them to his religion and they will not bother him at all.
- d. The Prophet ﷺ said:

“If I agree to this condition of yours, would you give me one phrase? And if you do it, you will be the rulers.”

- e. They said that we will give you ten of such phrases. What is it that you want?
- f. The Prophet ﷺ said: “Say: There is no one worthy of worship except Allah and He has no partner...”.
- g. Quraish rejected this and the Prophet ﷺ turned to his uncle and said:

“O my uncle! You have plenty of favors on me. I cannot give you a payback except that I ask you to say one phrase for me and if you give me this one phrase, I will be able to intercede for you.”

- h. Abu Talib understood what the Prophet ﷺ was asking for and he responded:

“O my nephew! Were it not for the fact that people will speak ill of you because of this and they will say that I said this phrase because of the fear of death, I would have surely said this to please you.”

Seerah of the Prophet ﷺ

Ali Ahmed Saeed

- i. Abu Jahl said to Abu Talib, “O Abu Talib! Will you leave the religion of Abdul Muttalib?”
- ii. Abu Talib responded, “I am on the religion of Abdul Muttalib.” These were the last phrases said by Abu Talib.
- iii. The Prophet ﷺ went away and Ali told him about his death. He died as a disbeliever.
- iv. With these emotions, the Prophet ﷺ said that he will keep asking for forgiveness for his uncle but Allah revealed:

إِنَّكَ لَا تَهْدِي مَنْ أَحْبَبْتَ وَلَكِنَّ اللَّهَ يَهْدِي مَنْ يَشَاءُ وَهُوَ أَعْلَمُ بِالْمُهْتَدِينَ

You surely cannot guide whoever you like ‘O Prophet’, but it is Allah Who guides whoever He wills, and He knows best who are ‘fit to be’ guided. (Surah al-Qasas, verse 36)

مَا كَانَ لِلنَّبِيِّ وَالَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا أَنْ يَسْتَغْفِرُوا لِلْمُشْرِكِينَ وَلَوْ كَانُوا أُولَىٰ قُرْبَىٰ مِنْ بَعْدِ مَا تَبَيَّنَ لَهُمْ أَنَّهُمْ أَصْحَابُ الْجَحِيمِ

“It is not ‘proper’ for the Prophet and the believers to seek forgiveness for the polytheists, even if they were close relatives, after it has become clear to the believers that they are bound for the Hellfire.” (Surah at-Tawbah, verse 113)

- v. According to some reports, only three days had passed (and according to some, around a month had passed) that Khadeejah also passed away.
- vi. It had a grave impact on the Prophet ﷺ and he would stay in his house for most of the time.
- vii. Abu Talib was the external support for the Prophet ﷺ whereas Khadeejah was the internal support and the Prophet ﷺ lost both in succession. After the death of Abu Talib, even the weak among the Quraish would oppress the Prophet ﷺ.
- viii. When this all happened, Quraish took advantage and started severe persecution and this awakened Abu Lahb’s tribal prejudice and he decided to give protection to the Prophet ﷺ and said to the Prophet ﷺ:

“O Muhammad (ﷺ)! Do what you had been doing in the time of Abu Talib. By Laat! No one will be able to touch you until I am alive!”

- ix. But this protection didn’t last for long. When Abu Jahl and Uqbah got to know of this, they planned against the Prophet ﷺ. They asked Abu Lahb to ask the Prophet ﷺ about the destiny of Abdul Muttalib. When Abu Lahb asked the Prophet ﷺ, he said, “He is with his people.” So Abu Lahb came back and told them the answer and they said to him that he ﷺ believes that he would be in hellfire. So Abu Lahb went and asked the Prophet ﷺ to which the Prophet ﷺ answered in positive. Hearing this, Abu Lahb lost his cool and said:

Seerah of the Prophet ﷺ

Ali Ahmed Saeed

“By Allah! I will be an enemy to you always if you think that Abdul Muttalib will be in fire!”

And with this the short protection ended.

3. Marriage with Ayesha and Sawdah:

- i. After the passing of Khadeejah, Khawlah bint-e-Hakim (the wife of Uthman bin Ma’zoon) visited the Prophet ﷺ and asked him

“O Prophet of Allah ﷺ, won’t you get married?”

The Prophet ﷺ asked for suggestion and Khawlah suggest him Ayesha if he wanted to get married to a virgin and Sawdah if he wanted to get married to a lady previously married.

- ii. The Prophet ﷺ asked her to go to the houses of them both and ask if they will be interested in this marriage.
- iii. He got married with Sawdah first. She was between 40 to 55 years at the time of her marriage to the Prophet ﷺ and was previously married to Sukran bin Amr who passed away in Makkah when they came back from the second migration to Abyssinia.
- iv. Also, the nikah with Ayesha was done at this time while the marriage was consummated only after the migration to Madeenah.

4. Incident of Ta’if:

- i. Prophet ﷺ went to Taif in the 10th year, in the month of Shawwal.
- ii. He travelled to taif on foot and according to some narrations; Zaid bin Harithah also accompanied him.
- iii. Ta’if was an important city so much so that once the people of Makkah thought to invade it but when the people of Ta’if found out this, they made themselves an alley to the people of Makkah and therefore we find rich people of Makkah owning houses in Ta’if.
- iv. Two tribes formed the Thaqeef tribe, Banu Malik and al-Ahlaaf. They both formed alliances with Hawaazin and Quraish respectively as they feared that they might attack and capture the city of Ta’if as they didn’t have the fighting ability.
- v. They had three leaders and they were brothers. When the Prophet ﷺ went to them and presented Islam to them, one of them responded:

“If Allah has sent you as a Prophet, then I will tear the cloth of Ka’bah!”

Seerah of the Prophet ﷺ

Ali Ahmed Saeed

The other one said:

"Didn't Allah find anyone better than you?"

And the last one said:

"By Allah! I will never talk to you! If you are a Prophet, you are too holy for me. And if you're a liar, then I don't talk to liars."

- vi. The Prophet ﷺ asked them not to share this with anyone but they spread the news within the city.
- vii. The Prophet ﷺ stayed there for at least 10 days. He called people to Islam but not a single person accepted his message.
- viii. When the leaders feared that the Prophet ﷺ might get some people influenced by his message, they gathered a mob against the Prophet ﷺ and they started pelting stones at him and he was forced to leave Ta'if.
- ix. The wretched people only stopped throwing stones at him when he entered the garden of Utbah and Shaibah (the two sons of Rabe'e'ah) who were present in the garden and saw the Prophet ﷺ whereas the Prophet ﷺ was not able to see them.
- x. The Prophet made a heartfelt dua there:

اللهم إني أشكو إليك ضعف قوتي، وقلة حيلتي، وهواني على الناس، يا أرحم الراحمين، أنت رب
وأنت ربي، إلى من تكلي؟ إلى بعيد يتجهمني؟ أم إلى عدو ملكته أمري؟ إن لم يكن المستضعفين
ولكن عافيتك هي أوسع لي، أعوذ بنور وجهك الذي أضاءت له الظلمات، بك غضب عليّ فلا أبالي
تنزل بي غضبك، أو يحل عليّ سخطك، لك العتبى حتى واصلح عليه أمر الدنيا والآخرة، من أن ترضى، ولا حول ولا قوة إلا بك

"O Allah, I complain to You of my weakness, my lack of resources, and my lowliness before people. O Most Merciful of the merciful! You are the Lord of the weak, and You are my Lord. To whom do You entrust me? To a distant person who will frown at me? Or to an enemy to whom You have given control over my affairs? If You are not angry with me, I do not care, but Your favor and mercy are more expansive for me. I seek refuge in the light of Your face, by which all darkness is illuminated, and by which the affairs of this world and the Hereafter are rectified, from You sending down Your anger upon me or Your displeasure overtaking me. To You is all praise until You are pleased, and there is no power and no strength except through You."

- xi. There they ordered their Christian servant Addas to go to the Prophet ﷺ and offer him some grapes. Addas accepted Islam after having a conversation with the Prophet ﷺ and realizing that he is a true Prophet of Allah.

Seerah of the Prophet ﷺ

Ali Ahmed Saeed

- xii. Allah sent Jibreel with the angel of mountains to ask the Prophet ﷺ what he decides regarding the people of Ta'if:

That she asked the Prophet (ﷺ), 'Have you encountered a day harder than the day of the battle) of Uhud?' The Prophet (ﷺ) replied, "Your tribes have troubled me a lot, and the worse trouble was the trouble on the day of 'Aqaba when I presented myself to Ibn `Abd-Yalail bin `Abd-Kulal and he did not respond to my demand. So I departed, overwhelmed with excessive sorrow, and proceeded on, and could not relax till I found myself at Qarnath-Tha-alib where I lifted my head towards the sky to see a cloud shading me unexpectedly. I looked up and saw Gabriel in it. He called me saying, 'Allah has heard your people's saying to you, and what they have replied back to you, Allah has sent the Angel of the Mountains to you so that you may order him to do whatever you wish to these people.' The Angel of the Mountains called and greeted me, and then said, "O Muhammad! Order what you wish. If you like, I will let Al-Akh-Shabain (i.e. two mountains) fall on them." The Prophet (ﷺ) said, "No but I hope that Allah will let them beget children who will worship Allah Alone, and will worship None besides Him."

(Bukhari: 3231)

Lecture No-11: Isra wal-Mi'raj

- i. Zaid was worried and asked the Prophet ﷺ how he would enter Makkah now? To which the Prophet ﷺ responded:

“O Zaid, indeed Allah will make a way out from the situation you see. And indeed Allah will support and help His religion and will grant victory to His Prophet ﷺ.”

- ii. This da'wah would have two effects:
1. Quraish would become furious on the fact that the Prophet ﷺ is looking for a safe haven which means that if the Prophet ﷺ gets such a place, he would gather an army and attack the people of Makkah. This would cause panic among them and incite them to kill the Prophet ﷺ.
 2. Quraish would get more aggressive against the Prophet ﷺ and the Muslims.
- iii. On his way back, Prophet ﷺ stopped at an-Nakhlah and a group of jinns listened to his recitation (without the Prophet ﷺ knowing) and they accepted Islam and went to their people informing about the message, regarding which the verses of Surah al-Ahqaaf and Surah al-Jinn were revealed.

وَإِذْ صَرَفْنَا إِلَيْكَ نَفَرًا مِّنَ الْجِنِّ يَسْتَمِعُونَ الْقُرْآنَ فَلَمَّا حَضَرُوهُ قَالُوا أَنصِتُوا فَلَمَّا قُضِيَ وَلَّوْا إِلَىٰ قَوْمِهِمْ مُّنْذِرِينَ ۚ ۲۹ قَالُوا يَنْقُومَنَا إِنَّا سَمِعْنَا كِتَابًا أُنزِلَ مِن بَعْدِ مُوسَىٰ مُصَدِّقًا لِّمَا بَيْنَ يَدَيْهِ يَهْدِي إِلَى الْحَقِّ وَإِلَىٰ طَرِيقٍ مُّسْتَقِيمٍ ۚ ۳۰ يَنْقُومَنَا أَجِيبُوا دَاعِيَ اللَّهِ وَءَامِنُوا بِهِ ۚ يَعْفِرْ لَكُمْ مِّن ذُنُوبِكُمْ وَيُجِرْكُم مِّنْ عَذَابٍ أَلِيمٍ ۚ ۳۱ وَمَن لَّا يُجِبْ دَاعِيَ اللَّهِ فَلَيْسَ بِمُعْجِزٍ فِي الْأَرْضِ وَلَيْسَ لَهُ مِن دُونِهِ أَوْلِيَاءُ ۚ أُولَٰئِكَ فِي ضَلَالٍ مُّبِينٍ ۚ ۳۲

‘Remember, O Prophet, when We sent a group of jinn your way to listen to the Quran. Then, upon hearing it, they said ‘to one another’, “Listen quietly!” Then when it was over, they returned to their fellow jinn as warners. They declared, “O our fellow jinn! We have truly heard a scripture revealed after Moses, confirming what came before it. It guides to the truth and the Straight Way. O our fellow jinn! Respond to the caller of Allah and believe in him, He will forgive your sins and protect you from a painful punishment. And whoever does not respond to the caller of Allah will have no escape on earth, nor will they have any protectors against Him. It is they who are clearly astray.”

(Surah al-Ahqaaf, verses 29-32)

- iv. The Prophet ﷺ sent a message to al-Akhnas bin Shuraiq first and then to Suhail bin Amr to give him protection and both of them refused. Then he sent the message of

Seerah of the Prophet ﷺ

Ali Ahmed Saeed

protection to Mut'im bin Adi via a man of Khuza'aa. This rekindled a memory for Mut'im:

3. Mut'im was from Banu Naufal and Naufal and Abdul Muttalib had a dispute in which Naufal had usurped a land of Abdul Muttalib.
4. Abdul Muttalib sought help from the tribe of Naufal against the oppression he did, but none showed interest.
5. He then sent a poem to his uncles of Khazraj in Yathrib and they came for his help.
6. Seeing this, the tribe of Khuza'aa (who had ruled Makkah for centuries until Qusai came and ended their rule and this caused hatred in the hearts of Khuza'aa against Quraish) saw this opportunity to gain some benefits from Banu Abdul Muttalib and they formed alliance with Abdul Muttalib.
7. Seeing this support from Khazraj and Khuza'aa, Naufal had to bow down.
8. Now, seeing a man from Khuza'aa with this message pointed to Mut'im that if he wouldn't help him, people of Khazraj and Khuza'aa would ultimately stand for him ﷺ against the Quraish. So he decided to give him ﷺ protection.
9. But still, this was a great favor of Mut'im on the Prophet ﷺ and the Prophet ﷺ remembered this favor of his on the day of Badr as well.

"لَوْ كَانَ الْمُطْعِمُ بْنُ عَدِيٍّ حَيًّا ثُمَّ كَلَّمَنِي فِي هَؤُلَاءِ النَّتَى لَتَرَكْتُهُمْ لَهُ "

"Were Al-Mutim bin Adi alive and interceded with me for these filthy people, I would definitely forgive them for his sake."

(Bukhari: 4023)

v. Lessons:

10. Every trial is followed by a relief. If we understand this, we will be able to perform more good in the time of trial.
11. A preacher should not be demoralized by what the people say and do to him. Look what the Prophet ﷺ had to deal with and how he remained steadfast on his mission.
12. How much the Prophet ﷺ wanted guidance for the people!
13. One should pray for people for whom he wants guidance.
14. One should take steps for things he want to happen and not just sit and wait.
15. The pain of soul is way more at times than the physical pain.
16. Allah's religion teaches us to do justice when it comes to people. We do not completely reject the good side of someone because of their bad side. We always keep in the mind the good one has and mention that good as well.
17. Prophet ﷺ would use the customs of people to help Islam.

Isra wal-Mi'raj:

- xxiv. Its significance can be understood by the fact that Allah wanted to relieve his Prophet ﷺ and strengthen his resolve so he might be able to continue his mission with determination.
- xxv. One important thing to understand is that Isra wal-Mi'raj consists of all events which seems impossible to us humans with the limited capabilities we have. In order to make yourself contend with this incident, just give a second thought to:
1. The fact that Allah is running this whole universe and it is running seamlessly is a greater miracle than this.
 2. The fact that sun rises and sets without fault daily/monthly/yearly is a great miracle as well.
 3. The fact that Allah sent revelation to His Prophet ﷺ through Jibreel is also a greater miracle than Isra wal-Mi'raj.
- xxvi. "Isra" is the journey through land and "Mi'raj" is the journey to the heavens as the word is from the roots عَرَجَ- يَرْجُ meaning "To ascend".
- xxvii. Verses of Surah al-Isra were revealed regarding "Isra" whereas the verses of Surah an-Najm were revealed regarding "Mi'raj".
- xxviii. The Prophet ﷺ was taken with his body and soul to this journey. Had it been a dream, no one would have made it a big deal.
- xxix. There are two major sayings regarding the year of this event:
1. 10th Year, after the incident of Ta'if.
 2. One year before the Hijrah.
- xxx. We don't have anything authentic regarding the month and date of this event.
- xxxi. Series of events:
1. He ﷺ was taken from the house to Haram.
 2. At Haram, his chest was opened and heart was cleaned with water and was filled with Emaan.
 3. A ride, larger than a donkey and smaller than a mule, named "Burraq" was brought.
 4. He was taken to masjid al-Aqsa.
 5. On his way, he was made to see the grave of Musa and he found him praying in his grave.
 6. He tied the Burraq with the post where the Prophets would tie their animals. Jibreel made a hole in a stone nearby and tied it with that stone.
 7. In masjid al-Aqsa, the Prophet ﷺ lead all the Prophets in salah which was an honor that he ﷺ is the leader of all the Prophets.
 8. Jibreel offered the Prophet ﷺ with a bowl/cup of milk and wine and the Prophet ﷺ opted for the milk and Jibreel said that you have chosen the fitrah.
 - a. Milk is easy to drink whereas wine is difficult to consume.

- b. Milk in its original form whereas wine is made after human intervention.
 - c. Wine takes one in a state where he is not even in his right state of mind whereas milk gives strength to the body.
 - d. One of the significance of calling it “fitrah” is that Islam takes into account the natural instinct of humans and gives them a direction to fulfill their desires in a way which is positive for them on individual level and the society as a whole.
9. From there, Jibreel took him to the heavens.
10. From there, on every sky Jibreel would knock on the door of each sky and seek permission to go through and each guard would ask him who is with him and he would inform him about the Prophet ﷺ and on this the guard would ask him if he has been called for. The Prophet ﷺ met the following Prophets in the skies (in order):
- a. Adam,
 - i. He would cry when looking at the left side and smile when looking at the right side.
 - b. Esa and Yahya,
 - i. Esa had a medium stature, curly hair reddish white completion. Urwa bin Mas’ood ath-Thaqafi resembled him the most.
 - c. Yusuf,
 - i. He was given half of the beauty of the world.
 - d. Idrees,
 - e. Haroon,
 - f. Musa,
 - i. When the Prophet ﷺ started moving onwards, Musa started crying for the fact that more people from his ummah would enter than his own ummah (the pain for his ummah).
 - ii. He was smart, curly hair, grainy color and tall.
 - g. Ibrahim (may Allah send His peace on them all)
 - i. Leaning his back to “bait al-ma’moor”.
 - 1. The place where 70,000 angels pray and once they leave, they will not get a second chance till the Day of Resurrection. This is how greater in number is the creation of Allah.
 - ii. Conveyed salam to this ummah.
 - iii. The soil of Jannah is very fertile and the plantation are:
 - 1. Takbeer,

Seerah of the Prophet ﷺ

Ali Ahmed Saeed

2. Tehlil,
 3. Tasbeeh,
 4. Tamjeeh.
 - iv. He ordered us to do a lot of plantation. The Prophet ﷺ asked Ibraheem about its plantation and Ibraheem said that it is لا حول ولا قوة الا بالله
 - v. The Prophet ﷺ himself resembled the most with Ibrahim alaihissalam.
11. Jibreel showed him the Paradise as well as the Hellfire. In Paradise, the following important things were witnessed:
- a. Prophet ﷺ heard the footsteps of Bilal.
 - b. Prophet ﷺ smelt a great fragrance which was the fragrance of the maid & her children of pharaoh's daughter.
 - c. He was shown al-Kawthar whose soil was musk and it had pearls on its edges.
12. In Hellfire, he was made to witness the following:
- a. The people who were scratching their skin with copper nails.
 - b. The guard of the Hellfire, Maalik. He was made such that he would show no mercy to the enemies of Allah.

Lecture No-12: Isra wal-Mi'raj and the Pledges of Aqabah:

Isra wal-Mi'raj

1. Jibreel took him to Sidratul Muntaha, the point from which no one can cross. It was covered with such colors that the Prophet ﷺ said that I cannot describe it.
 - c. He also saw four water streams flowing from the roots of Sidratul Muntaha. Two were Nile and Euphrates whereas two were hidden.
2. The Prophet ﷺ saw Jibreel in his original form.
3. The Prophet ﷺ went beyond this point alone and was given the honor to speak to Allah.
 - d. He ﷺ heard the sound of pens writing.
 - e. Here he was given the gift of 50 prayers (which were reduced to 5) and the last two verses of Surah al-Baqarah.
 - f. The one who will die without associating anyone with Allah will enter Paradise.
 - g. The Prophet ﷺ did not see Allah. He only saw noor, which is the hijab of Allah.
4. When the Prophet ﷺ came back with these gifts, Musa told him to go back and get the prayers reduced. Each time the Prophet ﷺ would go back, Allah would reduce five prayers each time and ultimately, the prayers were reduced to five.
 - h. This Ummah will pray five prayers and will get the reward of fifty.
 - i. The matter of deeds was conveyed:
 - i. The one who intends a good deed but is not able to do it will get one reward.
 - ii. The one who intends a good deed and does it will get the reward of ten to seven hundred and even more.
 - iii. The one who intends to do evil but refrains from it before doing it will get one reward.
 - iv. And the one who intended to do evil and does it will get one sin.
5. The angels advised the Prophet ﷺ to order his Ummah to do cupping.
6. On his way back, the Prophet ﷺ
 - j. Saw a caravan of Quraish which had a certain camel leading and it had certain color's bags hanging with it.
 - k. He ﷺ also saw that they had lost some camels and the man who was searching for that camel.
 - l. The Prophet ﷺ said salam to them and they were able to hear his salam but weren't able to see him.

Seerah of the Prophet ﷺ

Ali Ahmed Saeed

7. The Prophet ﷺ was taken back to Masjid al-Haram and he woke up there in the morning in a worried state that how he would convince the people of this great event.
8. The Quraish were only informed about the “Isra” not the “Mi’raj”.
9. Abu Jahl saw the Prophet ﷺ and asked him is there something new. The Prophet ﷺ, afraid of rejection, informed him about Isra. When all the people were informed, they started clapping and some put their hands on their head and the Prophet ﷺ was questioned, he told them the following:
 - m. Description of Bait al-Maqdas (as many people had visited al-Maqdas but they knew the Prophet ﷺ had not),
 - n. Salam to the people,
 - o. Information regarding the قافلة
 - p. Information regarding the camel leading and its qualities.
10. All of the above mentioned points came true and the Quraish were flabbergasted but instead of believing, they accused the Prophet ﷺ of soothsaying.
11. This was the time people went to Abu Bakr and informed him of what the Prophet ﷺ and Abu Bakr testified to what the Prophet ﷺ with such conviction that he got the title “as-Siddique” (the one who testifies).
12. Jibreel came and taught the Prophet ﷺ about the timings of prayer.
13. The quantity of raka’aat was two except for Maghrib at this time. After the migration, the quantity of Zuhr, Asr and Isha were increased to four whereas that of Fajr and Maghrib remained the same.

xxxii. Lessons:

1. To console the Prophet ﷺ, to strengthen his resolve and honor him.
2. Burraq was not required but this اهتمام was to honor the Prophet ﷺ.
3. The fact that the Prophet ﷺ tied the burraq shows that a Mo’min should put his efforts first and then rely on Allah.
4. The fact that all the Prophets were together shows that their primary teachings are the same. They all support each other in this regard.
5. The fact that the Prophet ﷺ is leading them all also hints that the previous sharee’ahs have been abrogated.
6. The leadership of Bait al-Maqdas will be taken from the Jews and given to the Muslims.
7. The fact that the doorkeepers of the heavens asked whether the Prophet ﷺ has been called for or not indicates the honor as the angels know that not everyone can cross these doors and therefore it is a special honor for him if he has been called.
8. This also proves that the angels don’t know the unseen.

Seerah of the Prophet ﷺ

Ali Ahmed Saeed

9. Look at the good that Musa intended for us.
10. Prayer is the Mi'raj of a believer.
11. To distinguish the true believers from the weak ones.
12. The great patience the Prophet ﷺ had despite the difficulties he had to face in the path of Allah and he still continued to call people to the path of Allah without complaining.
13. A Muslim is not apologetic and speaks the truth with wisdom without fearing people.
14. If this was the work of a soothsayer, he would have collected the bounties of the world for himself yet the Prophet ﷺ never went for the bounties of this world and spent a simple life till his death.
15. The Lord who sends down revelation in an instant is capable in taking His servant on such a journey as well.

Pledges of Aqabah:

- xxxiii. The Prophet ﷺ would visit people/tribes and would invite them to Islam and Abu Bakr would accompany him as he was from the most knowledgeable regarding the lineages. This would be done in either:
 1. Hajj season,
 2. Marketplaces.
- xxxiv. Why would he take people along with himself?
 1. He didn't want people to think that he is alone in this matter.
- xxxv. They would visit people for two things:
 1. Inviting them to Islam.
 2. To see if they can get shelter from them in their land (this was the primary motive).
- xxxvi. The above mentioned is the reason the Prophet ﷺ would look for a strong tribe as a weak tribe won't be able to protect them against Quraish.
- xxxvii. Wherever they would go, to their utmost capacity, Abu Lahb and Abu Jahl would follow him and ask the people not to listen to them and accuse him of being a liar.
- xxxviii. The matter of the Prophet ﷺ was spread so much so that the people of Yemen would say to their people who would be going for Hajj,

"Beware of that young man of Quraish. Do not let him allure you."

- xxxix. He ﷺ called certain tribes and some of them rejected because of the fact that they wanted leadership and others rejected because they didn't want an adverse effect on their relationship with the Persians and the Romans.
- xl. During such calls (in the hajj season), in the eleventh year of Prophethood, the Prophet ﷺ passed by six men of Khazraj and invited them to Islam. This meeting was totally unplanned. The six men accepted Islam and returned back to their people and called them to Islam as well.

1. Why did they accept Islam readily while other polytheists didn't? Because the Jews would often say to them that a Prophet is going to appear soon and when he comes, we will unite with him and kill you all. So the polytheists knew that a Prophet was about to come and now they could beat the Jews in accepting the message this Prophet ﷺ brought.
2. They were free of prejudice, a very prominent factor in leading people astray.
3. They were tired of wars and killing and wanted a leader who could unite them all.

xli. At this time, no covenant was made.

xl. Five years before the migration, the battle of "Buath" took place in Yathrib between Aws and Khazraj and all of their senior leaders were killed except Abdullah bin Ubay. That is why they all were eager to accept someone as their mutual leader and end this bloody war which had taken them to the verge of collapse.

xliii. First Pledge (Pledge of Women):

1. Next year, ten men from Khazraj and two men from Aws came. This indicates two things:
 - a. The people of Khazraj had started spreading the message within them and also within the Aws tribe.
 - b. The fact that two people of Aws had accepted Islam from the da'wah of Khazraj, indicates that a seed of unity had been sown within Aws and Khazraj as both of these tribes were often at war with each other.
2. The pledge was taken at the place called "Aqabah". It is the spot where the big satan is (symbolic) which is stoned during Hajj.
3. The word "بيعة" is literally used for a deal.
4. The second pledge was taken in the 12th Year of Prophethood.
5. Ubadah bin Samit, who was one of the attendees of the first pledge, says that they took "The Pledge of Women" which stated that:
 - a. They will not associate anyone in worship with Allah,
 - b. They will not cheat and fornicate,
 - c. They will not kill their children,
 - d. They will not disobey the Prophet ﷺ in anything good,
 - e. If you abide by these you will enter Paradise.
6. After this pledge, Mus'ab bin Umair was sent as a teacher to the people of Yathrib to teach them Qur'an and Sunnah.

7. During this stay of Mus'ab, he made an amazing progress, especially the conversion of two of the leaders of Aws, Sa'd bin Muaz and As'ad bin Zurarah which lead to the conversion of almost all of their sub-tribes.
 - a. The results of Mus'ab's work are apparent from the fact that more than seventy people appeared during the second pledge.

xliv. Second Pledge (Pledge of war):

1. There were almost seventy five people in this second pledge, 73 men and two women.
2. The time for this pledge was fixed to be the night of 12th Dhul-Hijjah and everyone was supposed to come to Aqabah during the night.
 - a. The wisdom was obvious that people would start leaving from the next day to their homes so Quraish won't get enough time to investigate the matter and catch the people.
3. The Prophet ﷺ was accompanied by his uncle Abbas. When all of the people were there, Abbas spoke and said:

"O brothers of Khazraj! You know the status of Muhammad ﷺ among us. Up to this date we have protected him. Now, you insist to give him refuge in your land. Think carefully! If you think that you can keep up your promise, and then only make this commitment! But if you fear that you will desert him after taking him with you, and then leave him here with his people, they will protect him."

4. The people said that we have made our decision. We will protect our Prophet ﷺ.
5. The Prophet ﷺ asked them if they would be able to protect him like their ownelves, to which they responded:

"O Prophet of Allah ﷺ, we will protect you like we protect ourselves. We have drunk the milk of war and we are expert in the art of war!"

6. This lead to a question at the end of Ansar. They asked the Prophet ﷺ if Allah were to grant him victory over people, would he come back to Makkah and leave them. To this the Prophet ﷺ said:

"Your blood is my blood. Your respect is my respect. You are from me and I am from you. Whom you fight, I fight and with whom you keep peace I will keep peace."

7. Then the Prophet ﷺ took the pledge of allegiance with the men by hand whereas for the ladies, he took the allegiance verbally and no physical contact was made as the Prophet ﷺ never once touch a woman who was not lawful to him.

Seerah of the Prophet ﷺ

Ali Ahmed Saeed

8. He ﷺ asked them to select twelve leaders from them who would convey the message to their tribes and manage the matters of Madinah.
9. The pledge made the satan of that area panic and he shouted out loud the sabians have gathered against you to fight you. As soon as the Prophet ﷺ heard this, he said that this is the satan of this area and everyone fled and went into their tents.

Migration to Madeenah:

10. The Prophet ﷺ saw in a dream that he will migrate to a land of dates. He thought it to be Yamamah or an area of Hijr, but it turned out to be Madeenah.
11. After the pledges, the Prophet ﷺ was informed that he will migrate to Madinah (Yathrib then) and ordered the Muslims to migrate to Madeenah and at the end only the Prophet ﷺ, Abu Bakr, Ali and those companions who were weak remained in the city.

12. Some of the migration of companions:

a. Family of Abu Salamah:

- i. They were the first one to migrate towards Madeenah.
- ii. When Abu Salamah, Umm-e-Salamah and their son Salamah were leaving Makkah, they were stopped by the tribe of Umm-e-Salamah.

b. Umar ibn al-Khattab:

- i. Most of the people tried to sneak out whereas Umar went to Ka'bah and announced if anyone wants his mother to loose him, his wife to become a widow and his children to become orphans then he can come and meet me.
- ii. Ayyash bin Rabee'ah (the brother of Abu Jahl through mother) accompanied Umar and some say that over twenty people were with Umar.

c. Sohaib ar-Rumi:

- i. When he wanted to leave, Quraish surrounded him and said that you came without any money; you can't take this money with you.
- ii. Sohaib threatened them to leave his path and said that no arrow of his would leave his bow without the arrows being stained with blood, sword too and spear too.
- iii. But as they outnumbered him, Sohaib offered them his money, which they accepted and he came to Madeenah on foot and without any money.
- iv. He was the last one to come to Madeenah and when the Prophet ﷺ saw him, he said:

"What a beneficial trade Sohaib! What a beneficial trade Sohaib!"

Seerah of the Prophet ﷺ

Ali Ahmed Saeed

Hijrah of the Prophet ﷺ:

13. The situation after some weeks was that only the Prophet ﷺ, Abu Bakr, Ali and only those who were weak or prioritized dunya over the hereafter were left in Makkah.
14. There were a total of three assassination attempts on the Prophet ﷺ:
 - a. The night when the people gathered outside the house of the Prophet ﷺ.
 - b. At the cave of Thawr.
 - c. When Surajah bin Malik went for the Prophet ﷺ.
15. Abu Bakr asked the Prophet ﷺ the permission to migrate but the Prophet ﷺ asked him to wait:

"Wait! I hope that Allah will grant me permission for migration."
16. After getting to know that the pledge of Aqabah did take place, the Quraish called a serious meeting in Dar an-Nadwah. The senior members of Quraish were there. As the meeting was about to start, on old man, claiming to be from the Najd having heard about all these tensions between them and the Prophet ﷺ said that he wanted to play a part in their meeting. The Quraish agreed. This was Satan disguised in the form of a man.
17. The meeting commenced and the following advices were given:
 - a. He (the Prophet ﷺ) should be chained and jailed.
 - i. The Satan responded that if you were to do this, his followers would come and attack you.
 - b. You can exile him.
 - i. Satan said that he will impress the people where he will go and come back to fight and kill you.
 - c. Finally, Abu Jahl said that we should take one strong man from every tribe and gather around his ﷺ house and attack him. In this way, Banu Abd Manaf won't be able to fight you all.
 - i. On this, Satan said that this is the most wise decision and hence all agreed to this suggestion.
18. Allah's Messenger ﷺ was informed regarding this plan and ordered by Allah to leave Makkah for Madinah along with Abu Bakr.
 - a. It was noon time, when Arabs would rest and won't go out due to the intense heat, when the Prophet ﷺ went to Abu Bakr's house.
 - b. The Prophet ﷺ ordered Abu Bakr to ask everyone to leave. Abu Bakr informed him that none other than his family is in the house. Hence the Prophet ﷺ informed Abu Bakr that he has been given permission to migrate and that Abu Bakr would accompany him.

Seerah of the Prophet ﷺ

Ali Ahmed Saeed

- c. On this Abu Bakr bursted into tears out of the joy that he has been given the honor to accompany the Prophet ﷺ and Ayesha said:

"By Allah, before this day I didn't know that people cry out of joy as well as I saw my father crying out of joy."

- d. Abu Bakr offered the Prophet ﷺ one camel, as he bought two camels for migration but the Prophet ﷺ said that he will only take it after paying for it. So the Prophet ﷺ took it after paying for it.
- e. They hired Abdullah bin Urayqit (a polytheist) as a guide to take them from an unconventional path as he was an expert when it came to different routes. Abu Bakr gave him the camels and asked him to bring them to a certain place at a certain time.
- f. Asma bint-e-Abi Bakr splitted her waistwrap and used one to close the waterbag and the other to pack the food that is why she is known as ذَاتُ النِّطَاقَيْنِ (the one with two belts).
- g. That night, the Prophet ﷺ ordered Ali to sleep in his bed and stay in Makkah in order to return the belongings of people.
- h. The major leaders like Abu Jahl gathered around the house of the Prophet ﷺ and the Prophet ﷺ left the house while they were surrounding it and recited the verses of Surah Yasin and threw dust at them and they were not able to see the Prophet ﷺ.
- i. The Prophet ﷺ was blessed with wisdom. Instead of going on the regular route which was on the north, he went to the south towards the cave of Thawr. It was 8km south of Masjid al-Haram, a 2-3 hour walk.
- j. When the Prophet ﷺ was leaving Ka'bah, he looked at it and said:

مَا أَطْيَبَكَ مِنْ بَلَدٍ وَأَحَبَّكَ إِلَيَّ وَلَوْلَا أَنَّ قَوْمِي أَخْرَجُونِي مِنْكَ مَا سَكَنْتُ غَيْرَكَ

"How sweet of a land you are and how dear you are to me, and if it were not that my people expelled me from you, I would not have lived in other than you."

(at-Tirmidhi: 3926)

- k. When they were proceeding to the Ka'bah, Abu Bakr would come to the front, back, right and left, everywhere from where he feared for the Prophet ﷺ.

Seerah of the Prophet ﷺ

Ali Ahmed Saeed

- l. Abu Bakr checked the cave carefully and covered all the holes except for one fearing any venomous animal that may harm the Prophet ﷺ.
- m. After some time, the Prophet ﷺ wanted to have a nap, so Abu Bakr gave his lap for the Prophet ﷺ to rest his head on.
- n. Abu Bakr put his foot in the one hole which he couldn't cover and a snake bit him from there. The pain was immense and it caused Abu Bakr's eyes to be filled with tears. Some drops of tears fell down on the blessed face of the Prophet ﷺ and he woke up, asking Abu Bakr what had happened. When Abu Bakr told him that he was bitten by a snake, the Prophet ﷺ rubbed his saliva on his foot and the pain soon went away.
- o. Some of the family members of Abu Bakr played an important role:
 - i. His son Abdullah, around 15 years old at that time, would come to the cave and sleep there and would go to Haram in the morning and listen to what they were planning and come back to the cave at night.
 - ii. Similarly, Amir bin Fuhairah (the freed slave of Abu Bakr) who would grave the goats for Abu Bakr, did two things:
 - 1. Bring a goat to the cave so that Abu Bakr and the Prophet ﷺ could have some milk.
 - 2. By making the sheep graze there, he would remove the footmarks of Abdullah going towards the cave.
 - iii. Also, Asma would cook food and take it to the cave.
 - iv. It was a plan well crafted by the Prophet ﷺ and Abu Bakr once they were given the go ahead for the migration. This is how they both spent three nights there in the cave.
- p. Back in Makkah, when Quraish got to know that it was Ali who was sleeping in the bed of the Prophet ﷺ, they were infuriated. They took him to the Haram in anger and then left him after a while.
- q. Then Abu Jahl and some of the Quraish went to the house of Abu Bakr. When they knocked the door, they found Asma and when she was asked about the whereabouts of Abu Bakr, she told that how would she know. Stooping to the next level, Abu Jahl slapped on her face so hard that her earring fell on the ground.
- r. Quraish were desperate to find the Prophet ﷺ and therefore they managed to make it to the cave of Thawr as well. They were in such a position that if they were to look at their feet, they would see Abu Bakr and the Prophet ﷺ.

- i. There are narrations that a spider made a web on the mouth of the cave and a bird made a nest but they are not proven.
- ii. The best thing we can say here is what was referred to in the Qur'an regarding this incident that Allah said:

إِلَّا تَنْصُرُوهُ فَقَدْ نَصَرَهُ اللَّهُ إِذْ أَخْرَجَهُ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا ثَانِيَ اثْنَيْنِ إِذْ هُمَا فِي الْغَارِ إِذْ يَقُولُ لِصَاحِبِهِ لَا تَحْزَنْ إِنَّ اللَّهَ مَعَنَا فَأَنْزَلَ اللَّهُ سَكِينَتَهُ عَلَيْهِ وَأَيَّدَهُ بِجُنُودٍ لَمْ تَرَوْهَا وَجَعَلَ كَلِمَةَ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا السُّفْلَى ۗ وَكَلِمَةُ اللَّهِ هِيَ الْعُلْيَا ۗ وَاللَّهُ عَزِيزٌ حَكِيمٌ

‘It does not matter’ if you ‘believers’ do not support him, for Allah did in fact support him when the disbelievers drove him out ‘of Mecca’ and he was only one of two. While they both were in the cave, he reassured his companion, ¹ “Do not worry; Allah is certainly with us.” So Allah sent down His serenity upon the Prophet, supported him with forces you ‘believers’ did not see, and made the word of the disbelievers lowest, while the Word of Allah is supreme. And Allah is Almighty, All-Wise.

(Surah at-Tawbah: 40)

- s. After three days, they left the cave and met Abdullah bin Urayqit were they were supposed to meet. Amir bin Fuhairah also joined them.
- t. Back in Makkah, the Quraish had announced a big prize money for the one who finds the Prophet ﷺ dead or alive. They had set a prize money of 100 camels.
- u. Suraqah bin Malik heard someone saying that he saw some people going along the shore and they might be those people the Quraish are looking for.
 - i. Suraqah went to his house, took his horse and ran towards the area he was told about.
 - ii. Suraqah said that he saw the Prophet ﷺ from distance and recognized him but as he approached them, his horse stumbled and he fell on the ground.
 - iii. He took out some arrows and checked his luck that if he should capture them or not and the divine arrows went against his well.

Seerah of the Prophet ﷺ

Ali Ahmed Saeed

- iv. Going against them, he again jumped on his horse and raced it towards the Prophet ﷺ. This time, the legs of his horse went into the ground and he was thrown on the ground. He did the same thing with the divine arrows and the results were again against his will.
- v. Suraqah said that he got so near that he could hear the recitation of the Prophet ﷺ but again the legs of the horse went into the ground. This time Suraqah realized that he will not be able to harm the Prophet ﷺ so he shouted at the top of his voice and asked them for protection and so the Prophet ﷺ stopped.
- vi. Suraqah presented whatever he had of the items in his possession at that time to the Prophet ﷺ but he refused.
- vii. Then Suraqah asked him to give him protection and the Prophet ﷺ told Amir to write protection for him on a piece of leather.
- viii. It was foretold by the Prophet ﷺ that Suraqah would wear the bangles of Kisra. And in the era of Umar, when the Persian territories were captured, Umar called Suraqah and gave him the treasures of Kisra and announced in Madinah that what the Prophet ﷺ told us came true.
- ix. Suraqah became Muslim after the battle of Hunian and Taif.
- v. On their way, they stopped at the house/tent of Umm-e-Ma'bad who was an elderly lady.
 - i. Abu Bakr asked her if she had anything to eat so that they can pay her the money and buy it from her. But she told them that she had nothing and even her goat didn't give milk.
 - ii. The Prophet ﷺ asked her if he can try to take milk out of the goat to which the lady agreed. To her surprise, the goat gave milk. The Prophet ﷺ asked for a something to fill milk.
 - iii. He ﷺ gave the milk to the lady and his companions and then drank himself.
 - iv. He ﷺ again took out milk from the goat and the bowl was full, so he gave that bowl to Umm-e-Ma'bad and left.
 - v. She is the very lady whose description of the Prophet ﷺ is mentioned in the books of Seerah as her description was explicit and amazing.
 - vi. She accepted Islam before the conquest of Makkah.

Seerah of the Prophet ﷺ

Ali Ahmed Saeed

- w. Whenever Abu Bakr would meet someone on his way, he would talk to them instead of the Prophet ﷺ and when someone would ask about the one who is accompanying he would respond by saying that he is my guide.
- x. Before reaching Quba, the Prophet ﷺ met Talha who was coming back from Syria from a trade journey. He gifted Abu Bakr and the Prophet ﷺ clothes.
- y. And ultimately they reached Quba which is at the outskirts of Madeenah and the Prophet ﷺ stayed there for some days (around 5 to 10 days)
 - i. When the people of Madinah got to know that the Prophet ﷺ has left Makkah and is on his way to Madinah, they would daily go out at the outskirts of Madinah to welcome him. When the sun would get hot at noon, they would return back.
 - ii. One day, when they waited till noon and returned back, a jew was on a roof top and he saw some people dressed in white clothes and exclaimed:

"O you 'Arabs! Here is your great man whom you have been waiting for!" (Bukhari: 3906)

- iii. The people rushed to meet the Prophet ﷺ. Some of the Ansar who came and had not seen Allah's Messenger ﷺ before, began greeting Abu Bakr, but when the sunshine fell on Allah's Messenger ﷺ and Abu Bakr came forward and shaded him with his sheet only then the people came to know Allah's Messenger ﷺ.
- iv. During his stay, the Prophet ﷺ built the first mosque for this Ummah in Quba. The mosque of Quba has its virtues, one of them being that the one who prays two raka'hs in it will have the reward of performing an Umrah.
- v. Ali joined the Prophet ﷺ and Abu Bakr in Quba.
- vi. And it was in Quba, the first baby was born after the migration as the Jews had claimed that they have bewitched the Muslims and no baby would be born to them. So, this was a good sign for the Muslims. The baby who was born was Abdullah bin Zubayr bin Awwam, the son of Asma bint-e-Abi Bakr.
- vii. Story of Salman al-Farisi:

1. He was a Persian and extremely loved by his father who was the chief of his town.
2. Salman was the fire guard who was responsible to make sure that the fire is always lit.
3. One day he was sent by his father to a village where he had large agricultural lands for some chores.
4. One his way, he passed by a church where he saw the Christians praying and he said to himself, "This religion is better than ours." And he remained with them till the sunset and asked them about the source of this religion and he was told that it was in ash-Sham.
5. When he returned to his home, he found out that his father was extremely worried and he had sent out men to look for him. When Salman told his father that he liked Christianity, he was imprisoned by his father in his house.
6. Salman sent a word to the Christians to let him know when a convoy of Christians comes from Syria. When he was informed of that, he flee from his house and reached Syria with the convoy.
7. He asked the people regarding the most knowledgeable person of Christianity there and he was told that it was the bishop of the church. So Salman went to him and asked him permission to stay with him so that he may serve him and learn the religion from him.
8. Salman told that he was the most wicked of people as he would hoard the charity he collected from the people for himself. Salman hated him.
9. When the bishop died, Salman told the people about what he would do and showed them the treasures he had hoarded for himself.
10. The came a new bishop and he was from the noblest of people. Salman lived with him until the time of his death approached, so salman asked him whom he should seek the religion from and he was told of a man in Mosul (area in Iraq). So salman went there after his death.

11. But this guy too died soon and he guided him to go to the land of Nusaybin (a district of modern day Turkey). He too met the same fate and guided Salman to go to the land of Amuriya (north of Jeruselum).
12. When he too was on the verge of death, he told him that he didn't know of anyone following the true religion at this time but there's a last Prophet to come who will appear in a land of Arabs surrounded by two lavas and date palm trees and told him the three signs of his true Prophethood:
 - a. He accepts gifts.
 - b. He doesn't accept charity.
 - c. There is a seal of Prophethood between his shoulders.
13. Salman then went with some Arab traders to the land of Arabia in exchange of his cows and sheeps. But they transgressed and sold him to a jew as a slave.
14. A cousin of his from Banu Quraizah bought him and took him to Madinah.
15. One day, he was on a datepalm tree and he heard a cousin of his master talking to his master of a Prophet that has arrived in Quba. Listening to this, he immediately came down and sought confirmation from that cousin but his master got angry and slapped him hard and asked him to go back to his work.
16. So Salman one day presented the Prophet ﷺ with dates as charity which the Prophet ﷺ gave to his companions but didn't eat himself and one day he gave him dates as gifts which he ate himself too, which confirmed the first two signs.
17. As for the thirds sign, Salman followed the Prophet ﷺ in a funeral to Baqi al-Gharqad and started moving around him to look for the seal. The Prophet ﷺ realized and threw his cloak back and as soon as Salman saw it, he fell upon the Prophet ﷺ and started crying.

Seerah of the Prophet ﷺ

Ali Ahmed Saeed

18. The Prophet ﷺ asked him to sit before him and then Salman told the Prophet ﷺ his whole story.

19. Salman made a contract of manumission with his master and the Prophet ﷺ helped him in that and ultimately he got his freedom before the battle of Khandaq.

z. 'Anas said: "I have never witnessed a day better or brighter than that day on which the Messenger of Allah sallallahu 'alayhi wa sallam came to us; and I have never witnessed a more awful or darker day than that one on which the Messenger of Allah died on."

19. Lessons:

- a. A Muslim should try to be independant from the favours of other people.
- b. The Prophet ﷺ led by example and by remaining back till the end, he was the one to face the most severe challenges from Quraish and he paved the way for the rest to migrate.
- c. The sacrifice that the Muhajiroon made in leaving Makkah and the sacrifice that the Ansaar made in giving their portions to the Muhajiroon is an example in and of itself.

xliv. Settling in Madinah:

1. Allah's Messenger ﷺ then moved from Quba to Madinah on Friday and everyone wanted the honor of hosting him but Allah's Messenger ﷺ said, "Leave her (his camel), for she has been commanded." So when his camel knelt down and settled herself, he asked about the nearest house of his maternal family. Abu Ayub replied that his house was the nearest. So Abu Ayub got the privilege to host the Prophet ﷺ. The Prophet ﷺ remained in the house of Abu Ayub for around 7 months.
2. Madina was known for its plague and many companions fell ill and also they felt homesick so the Prophet ﷺ prayed to Allah to make Madina healthy and beloved to them even more than Makkah and if this plague is to exist, then take to al-Juhfa and free Madina from it.
3. At this time, the first thing ordered was the construction of Masjid an-Nabawi ﷺ.
 - a. The land was bought by the Prophet ﷺ from two orphans who owned that land. Initially, the boys wanted to gift the land but the Prophet ﷺ insisted and Abu Bakr paid for the land of Masjid an-Nabawi.

Seerah of the Prophet ﷺ

Ali Ahmed Saeed

- b. The space constructed was around 30m by 30m. The Prophet ﷺ himself took part in the construction of the mosque. It took around 7 months for the mosque to complete.
- c. The Qibla was towards Jerusalem (south of Madinah). The space towards the Qibla was covered with dateplam leaves and at the backside; the Prophet ﷺ constructed the houses of his wives and within the mosque, a covered area was built for the people of Suffah (those companions who didn't have a home to live in and dedicated themselves to learn knowledge). The Qibla remained towards Jerusalem for around 17 months after the migration to Madina.

4. The bond of Brotherhood between the Muhajiroon and Ansaar:

- a. Very wisely, the Prophet ﷺ made a bond of brotherhood between one Muhaajir and one Ansaari for two major reasons:
 - i. So that both groups develop good ties with each other and all the Muslims are united.

- ii. And also in order to help the Muhajiroon in their financial crisis.
- b. Both the Muhajiroon and Ansaar showed exemplary behavior. Neither the Ansaar left any stone unturned to help their Muhajir brothers, nor did the Muhajiroon exploit their Ansari brothers in any shape or form. This is best represented by the story of Abdur Rahman bin Awf and Sa'd bin Rabi'ah.
 - i. When `Abdur-Rahman bin `Auf came to Medina, the Prophet (ﷺ) established a bond of brotherhood between him and Sa'd bin Ar-Rabi al-Ansari. Sa'd was a rich man, so he said to `Abdur-Rahman, "I will give you half of my property and will help you marry." `Abdur-Rahman said (to him), "May Allah bless you in your family and property. Show me the market." So `Abdur-Rahman did not return from the market) till he gained some dried buttermilk (yogurt) and butter (through trading). He brought that to his house-hold. We stayed for sometime (or as long as Allah wished), and then `Abdur-Rahman came, scented with yellowish perfume. The Prophet (ﷺ) said (to him) "What is this?" He replied, "I got married to an Ansari woman." The Prophet (ﷺ) asked, "What did you pay her?" He replied, "A gold stone or gold equal to the weight of a date stone." The Prophet (ﷺ) said (to him), "Give a wedding banquet even if with one sheep." (Bukhari: 2049)

5. Treaty with the Jews:

- a. It was important to formally come to an agreement with the Jews in order to avoid any conflicts in the future; therefore this treaty was signed with the Jews. The mutually accepted terms were as follows:
 - i. Any disputed matter would be brought to the Prophet ﷺ and he would be the judge.
 - ii. Jews will bear the cost of war if they participate along with them.
 - iii. Jews will contribute in the blood money if needed.
 - iv. Jew will be free to practice their religion with peace.
- b. This was a clear indication of the acceptance of Prophet ﷺ as the undisputed leader of Madina.

6. Adhan:

- a. As the five obligatory prayers were to be prayed with the congregation now, there arose a need for a technique to call the people for the prayer.
- b. Many suggestions were given like ringing a bell, lighting a fire etc. but none was accepted by the Prophet ﷺ.
- c. During these days, Abdullah bin Zaid had a dream in which he was taught the words of Adhan. He ran to the Prophet ﷺ and told him about his dream and the Prophet ﷺ affirmed that this is a good dream and he also ordered him to teach the words of Adhan to Bilal as he had a good voice.
- d. When Umar heard Bilal's voice, he ran to the mosque and told the Prophet ﷺ that he had the same dream and so it further strengthened the fact that this dream was indeed from Allah.

7. True colors of Jews & the Hypocrites:

- a. Despite recognizing the Prophet ﷺ as the true Prophet, the Jews deined to accept his Prophethood and started lying that he is not the one whom we were expecting.
 - i. This is evident from the incident of Abdullah bin Surya who, when asked by the Prophet ﷺ, told him that the Jews recognize him as the true Prophet but don't accept his Prophethood because of envy.
 - ii. Also, the story of Huyayi bin Akhtab as described by Safiyyah bint-e-Huyayi that Huyayi along with his brother went to see the Prophet ﷺ when they heard of his arrival in Madina. But when they came back, Safiyyah's uncle asked Huyayi about the Prophet ﷺ and Huyayi said that he is indeed the true Prophet but they won't accept his Prophethood until their death.
 - iii. Acceptance of Islam by Abdullah bin Salam.

8. Permission of Jihad:

- a. The first military campaign against the Quraish took place in Ramadan 1AH and was led by Hamza bin Abdul Muttalib. The purpose was to raid the trade caravan of Quraish going to Syria.
- b. Some orientalists attack Islam and say what the Muslims were doing was highway robbery. This infact shows their hypocritical thoughts. It was more than justified for the following reasons:

- i. It was Quraish who waged war against the Muslims, starting in Makkah, in which they not only persecuted the Muslims but even killed some of them like Yasir and Sumayyah.
- ii. It was Quraish who persecuted the Muslims so much that they had to leave their homeland and migrate to an unknown land.
- iii. It was Quraish who persecuted the Muslims so much that the Muslims had to leave their houses and flee for their lives.
- iv. It was Quraish who unlawfully took the wealth of the Muslims during their migration like in the case of Suhaib ar-Rumi.
- v. It was Quraish who made at least three assassination attempts on the Prophet ﷺ.
- vi. It was Quraish who had jailed some Muslims and prevented them from migrating like the Abu Jandal, the son of Suhayl bin Amr.
- vii. And the greatest of all, it was Quraish who wanted to spread Shirk and prevent the people from accepting the religion of Allah and go to the bounds of torturing them in order to cause them to revert back to their former religion.
- viii. With all these reasons, the Muslims had ALL the right to counter attack and take revenge for all the mischief Quraish had caused.

9. The fasting of Ramadan was made obligatory.

10. Zakat was made obligatory.

11. Consumation of Marriage with Ayesha:

- a. The Prophet ﷺ was approached by Abu Bakr in the month of Shawwal 1AH and he asked the Prophet ﷺ why he doesn't take his family to his house (meaning Ayesha). So the Prophet ﷺ understood what Abu Bakr intended and hence the marriage was consummated and Ayesha was nine at that time.
- b. Obejections against the marriage of Prophet ﷺ with Ayesha and the responses:
 - i. Ayesha was too young. It stems out of two reasons. One would be that she is mentally too young for this and might cause trauma and secondly that she is physically too young and it might cause her health issues and trauma. The responses are as follows:

1. The root of this thought is when we compare someone else's cultural norms with ours without knowing their cultural norms. It was a norm, not only in their culture, but till the 19th century in all over the world that people would get married at a very early age.
2. If she would've been not fit for marriage, her parents would've have objected to the marriage.
3. If marrying a girl at such a young age was problematic, Quriash would've made a big issue out of it as they left no stone unturned to dishonor the Prophet ﷺ.
4. It was her father who himself asked the Prophet ﷺ to consummate the marriage, not the Prophet ﷺ.
5. Ayesha was initially engaged with the son of Mut'im bin Adi, which shows that it was completely normal.
6. We consider people of age 9-10 to be kids because of the system we are living in and because they are treated as kids (environment matters). However, in those times kids at this age would be given responsibilities like earning for their household and marriages as well. Even in our era, if we note the kids of poor people, they are very mature because of the responsibilities they are given.
7. The fact that Ayesha was immensely jealous of her other co-wives shows her immense love for the Prophet ﷺ. Would you be jealous of someone whom you don't love?
8. Would someone who is traumatized in her childhood become a scholar, someone whom the people refer to in important matters of their lives? Certainly not! Ayesha would be consulted by the senior companions for different important matters.

Lecture No-17: The Great Battle of Badr

✓ Duals

- Awf bin Harith. Ma'ooz bin Harith. Abdullah bin Rawahah. They stood by initially against Utbah, Shaibah and Waleed.
- Then Prophet ﷺ commanded Ubaidah ibn al-Harith, Hamza bin Abdul Muttalib and Ali bin Abi Talib to stand up and face the enemy.

✓ Fighting begins

- Strategy of the Muslims.
- Certain people exempted from killing:
 - Abbas bin Abdul Muttalib & response of Abu Huzaifah bin Utbah.
 - Abul Bukhtari.
 - Aqeel bin Abi Talib.
 - Nawfal bin Harithah.

✓ Headquarter for the Prophet ﷺ

- The Prayers of the Prophet ﷺ
 - Raising hands (Abu Bakr)
"O Allah! Grant us what You have promised us! O Allah! If this little congregation of Islam is destroyed then you'll not be worshipped on Earth!"
 - In sujood (Ali bin Abi Talib)
 - Statement of Abdullah bin Mas'ood.
"I've not heard anyone pleading anyone like what I heard the Prophet ﷺ pleading to Allah to grant him what He had promised."

- The Prophet ﷺ drowsed and saw the army few in numbers.

إِذْ يُرِيكُهُمُ اللَّهُ فِي مَنَايِكَ قَلِيلًا وَلَوْ أَرَبَكُهُمْ كَثِيرًا لَفَشَلْتُمْ وَلَتَنَزَعْتُمْ فِي الْأَمْرِ وَلَكِنَّ اللَّهَ سَلَّمَ إِنَّهُ عَلِيمٌ بِذَاتِ الصُّدُورِ
وَإِذْ يُرِيكُمُوهُمْ إِذِ الْتَقَيْتُمْ فِي أَعْيُنِكُمْ قَلِيلًا وَيُقَلِّلُكُمْ فِي أَعْيُنِهِمْ لِيَقْضِيَ اللَّهُ أَمْرًا كَانَ (8:43-44) مَفْعُولًا وَإِلَى اللَّهِ تُرْجَعُ الْأُمُورُ

✓ Response from Allah

- Revelation confirming the help of Angels
(8:9) إِذْ تَسْتَغِيثُونَ رَبَّكُمْ فَاسْتَجَابَ لَكُمْ أَنِّي مُمِدُّكُمْ بِالْفِ مِّنَ الْمَلَائِكَةِ مُرْدِفِينَ
- Seeing the spots where disbelievers would die.
"It is as if I'm seeing where they would be killed."

✓ Prophet ﷺ in the battlefield

- Throwing dust at the disbelievers and reciting the verses of Surah al-Qamr and ordered to launch full offensive.
(8:17) فَلَمْ تَقْتُلُوهُمْ وَلَكِنَّ اللَّهَ قَتَلَهُمْ وَمَا رَمَيْتَ إِذْ رَمَيْتَ وَلَكِنَّ اللَّهَ رَمَىٰ
- Umer's understanding of the verses of Surah al-Qamr.
- At the forefront. (Imagine the state of companions when they would have seen the Prophet ﷺ marching and launching an offensive).

- Slogan of the believers and disbelievers.

✓ Angels in the Battlefield

- Angels wore white turbans that day except for Jibreel who wore yellow turban resembling Zubayr Ibn al-Awwam who also wore yellow turban that day.
- Companions hearing angels.
 - He heard a whip.
 - Then he heard a horse running and then heard someone saying:
“Go forth, Hayzoom!”
 - Then saw that mushrik which he was chasing fell on the ground with his nose chopped off and marks of whip on his face.
 - When he informed the Prophet ﷺ, he told the companion that he was helped from the third heaven.
- Companions seeing people die before they could kill them.
 - A companion (Abu Dawood mazni) narrated that he went after a polytheist to kill him but before he could strike him with his sword, his head was chopped off.
- Companions being able to capture big men easily.
 - Abu Yasar captured Abbas bin Abdul Muttlaib and when Abbas, a man of big stature, was brought to the Prophet ﷺ, Abbas said that he (Abu Yasar, a man of small stature) hasn't captured me. I was captured by a beautiful man of certain hairstyle and riding a piebald horse. When Abu Yasar insisted, the Prophet ﷺ said:
“Stay quiet! Allah helped you though a noble angel.”
- Disbelievers seeing angels.
 - Suhail bin Amr, after accepting Islam, said that I saw white men riding on piebald horses killing the Quraish.
- Companions seeing the angels themselves in the form of men.

✓ Shaytan in the battlefield:

- Initial statements to the disbelievers in the form of Suraqah bin Malik (from the tribe of Kinanah).
- Running away from the battlefield after seeing the angels.

وَإِذْ زَيْنَ لَهُمُ الشَّيْطَانُ أَعْمَلَهُمْ وَقَالَ لَا غَالِبَ لَكُمْ الْيَوْمَ مِنَ النَّاسِ وَإِنِّي جَارٌ لَّكُمْ فَلَمَّا تَرَأَتْهُ الْفِئَتَانِ نَكَصَ عَلَى عَقَبَيْهِ وَقَالَ إِنِّي بَرِيءٌ مِّنْكُمْ إِنِّي أَرَىٰ مَا لَا تَرَوْنَ إِنِّي أَخَافُ اللَّهَ ۚ وَاللَّهُ شَدِيدُ الْعِقَابِ

(8:48)

✓ Heroics of Badr:

- Zubair ibn al-Awwam's skills.

- Kills Ubadah bin Saeed who was a great warrior and causing havoc in the battlefield and was covered in armor from head to toe with only the parts of his eyes visible.
- Zubair shot his javeline straight into his eyes and killed him.
- Abu Bakr and Abdur Rahman bin Abi Bakr.
 - Abdur Rahman said later after accepting Islam that you came in front of me and I changed my direction (so I don't kill you) to which Abu Bakr replied: "If you would've come in front of me I would've killed you."
- Umar kills his maternal uncle Aas bin Hisham.
- Abu Ubaidah Amir ibn al-Jarrah and his grandfather.
 - Tried to avoid his grandfather Jarrah but Jarrah insisted so he was killed.
- Sa'd bin Khaithamah:
 - Casted lots with his father to come the battle and won the lot and was martyred in the battle.
- Ukasha bin Mihsin.
 - Handed over a branch by the Prophet ﷺ which turned into a sword.
 - Sword was named "al-Awn" (the help).
- Killing of Abu Jahl.
 - Muadh bin Amr bin Jamooh (granted the spoils of Abu Jahl).
 - Muadh bin Afra (was martyred later on during the battle).
 - Abdullah bin Masood:
 - He put his foot on his neck, grabbed his beard and asked: "O enemy of Allah! Didn't Allah humiliate you?!". "What humiliation? Is there anyone better than the one you have killed?!" responded Abu Jahl.
 - "Who was victorious today?" asked Abu Jahl, to which Abdullah responded, "Allah and His Messenger ﷺ". Then when Abdullah put his foot on his chest to chop his head off, Abu Jahl said, "O shepherd! You have stepped on a very high place!" and Abdullah chopped his head off.
 - Then when Abdullah brought the head of Abu Jahl to the Prophet ﷺ, he exclaimed, "Allah! None has the right to be worshipped except Him!". Like he was saying, "Did Abu Jahl really die?!"
 - He ﷺ also remarked كان هذا فرعون هذه الامة
 - The Irony:
 - Same Abdullah he used to torture in Makkah.
 - He remained alive to see the humiliation he caused to his people.
 - Not killed by someone who he considered to be very high esteemed but by someone who was physically, economically, tribally weak.

Lec-18 & 19: The Great Battle of Badr (cont.) & Post Badr events ✓ Disagreement with regards to the spoils of war.

- Disagreement rose as this was something new to them and they were following what had preceded earlier in their customs.
- There were three main groups:
 - One collecting the spoils.
 - One chasing the disbelievers so that they don't come back.
 - One guarding the Prophet ﷺ.
- Ubadah bin Samit narrated regarding the dispute that rose on the day of Badr and revelation of the verses of Surah al-Anfal regarding them:
- Sa'd bin Abi Waqqas also narrated that he was initially ordered to leave the sword that he got and put it along with the spoils that were gathered.

يَسْأَلُونَكَ عَنِ الْأَنْفَالِ قُلِ الْأَنْفَالُ لِلَّهِ وَالرَّسُولِ فَاتَّقُوا اللَّهَ وَأَصْلِحُوا ذَاتَ بَيْنِكُمْ
(8:1) وَأَطِيعُوا اللَّهَ وَرَسُولَهُ إِن كُنْتُمْ مُؤْمِنِينَ
- Those who were technically part of the team but weren't able to witness the war also got their shares:
 - Uthman bin Affan- wife was ill.
 - Talha bin Ubaidullah- sent as a scout.
 - Saeed bin Zaid- sent as a scout.
 - Abu Lubabah ibn al-Mundhir- appointed as leader in Madinah.
 - Asim bin Adi- appointed as leader in Quba and awali.
 - Khwat bin Jubair- sent back because of fracture in leg.
 - Harith bin Simmah- injured on his way.
 - Sa'd bin Ubadah- bit by a snake.
- The spoils were equally distributed among the soldiers.

✓ Prisoners of War:

- Sa'd bin Muaz's concern.

"By Allah! Indeed of Messenger of Allah ﷺ (I dislike that people are capturing them instead of killing them) For this is the first defeat that Allah has handed down to the people of polytheism so for us to slaughter them would have been more dearer than for us to keep them alive."

- Prophet ﷺ seeks counsel from Abu Bakr and Umar.
- Example of Abu Bakr and Umar.
- Allah reprimands the decision made regarding POW:

مَا كَانَ لِنَبِيٍّ أَنْ يَكُونَ لَهُ أَسْرَىٰ حَتَّىٰ يُثْخِنَ فِي الْأَرْضِ تُرِيدُونَ عَرَصَ الدُّنْيَا وَاللَّهُ يُرِيدُ الْآخِرَةَ
وَاللَّهُ عَزِيزٌ حَكِيمٌ

لَوْلَا كِتَابٌ مِّنَ اللَّهِ سَبَقَ لَمَسَّكُمْ فِيمَا أَخَذْتُمْ عَذَابٌ عَظِيمٌ

(8:67-69)

✓ Killing of some of the captured:

○ Umayyah bin Khalf.

- The camel of Umayyah leaves him stranded.
- Umayyah calls Abd al-Ilah (the story related to the name of Abdur Rahman bin Awf) and offers himself "Don't you need milk?"
- Abdur Rahman leaves his armor and takes Umayyah and his son.
- Umayyah asks regarding the one wearing feather of ostrich who caused havoc among the disbelievers.
- Bilal sees them and calls ansar.
- Abdur Rahman runs with the two.
- Leaves Ali behind who is caught and killed. Umayyah screams.
- Abdur Rahman gets over Umayyah to save him but couldn't.
- Abdur Rahman gets injured himself.
- Hubab ibn al-Mundhir kills Umayyah.

○ Ali bin Umayyah.

○ Nadr ibn al-Harith.

- After leaving Badr he was ordered to be killed.
- When he asked why he is being killed, the Prophet ﷺ responded, "Because of your enmity for Allah and His Messenger ﷺ."
- When he asked who will take care of his kids, the Prophet ﷺ responded, "The Fire" (meaning you have a far greater problem to worry for than your kids).
- Ordered Asim bin Thabit to kill him.

○ Uqbah bin Abi Mu'eet.

- Either Asim bin Thabit or Ali bin Abi Talib killed him.

○ Statement of the Prophet ﷺ in honor of Mut'im bin Adi.

أَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ فِي أُسَارَى بَدْرٍ: لَوْ كَانَ الْمُطْعِمُ بْنُ عَدِيٍّ حَيًّا، ثُمَّ كَلَّمَنِي فِي هَؤُلَاءِ النَّتْنَى؛ لَتَرَكْتُهُمْ لَهُ.

"Had Mutim bin Adi alive today and talked to me regarding these filthy people, I would have freed them all for his sake." (Bukhari: 4023)

✓ Three days stay in Badr (sunnah of the Prophet ﷺ)

✓ Dead of polytheists are thrown in well:

○ Abu Jahl:

- Prophet ﷺ said that he is the Firaun of this Ummah.

○ Umayyah:

- They weren't able to throw him as his body would fall into pieces.
- Tit for tat as he used to make Bilal's back burn such that the skin would melt.

○ Utbah ibn ar-Rabeeah.

- Abu Hudaifah's expressions changed because of what he wanted from his father to convert to Islam because of his wisdom and nobility.
- Allah's Messenger ﷺ prayed for him.

○ All were addressed:

"Does it please you that you would have obeyed Allah and His Messenger ﷺ? Indeed, we have found what Allah promised us true; did you find what your Allah promised to be true?"

- Umar's amazement.
- ✓ News reached Madinah:
 - Zaid bin Harithah and Abdullah bin Rawahah sent to Madinah.
 - Usama bin Zaid narrated that they had just finished burying Ruqayyah when Zaid came with the news.
 - The hypocrites started saying that it seems like Muhammad ﷺ was killed and Zaid has lost it and therefore he saying this all.
 - Then people saw the Muslims entering Madinah with booty and captives like Suhail bin Amr, Amr bin Abu Sufyan, Abbas bin Abdul Muttalib, Nawfal ibn al Harith, Waleed ibn al Waleed bin Mugheerah.
- ✓ News reached Makkah:
 - The bearer announced the death of all the leaders:
 - Utbah ibn ar Rabeeah
 - Shaybah ibn ar Rabeeah
 - Abul Hakam bin Hisham
 - Umayyah bin Khalf
 - Uqbah bin Abi Mu'eet
 - Zam'a bin Aswad
 - Abul Bukhtari.
 - Safwan's remarks.
 - Abu Lahb:
 - Comes to the room of Zamzam and Abu Rafi' would make arrows.
- ✓ Treatment with the Prisoners of War:
 - Abu Aziz bin Umair.
 - Abul Aas bin Rabi.
 - Waleed bin Waleed bin Mugheerah.
 - Suhail bin Amr.
- ✓ Conversion of Umair bin Wahab:
 - Umair's son, Wahab bin Umair, was among the captives of Badr.
 - Umair was discussing the loss polythesists had to bear on the day of Badr and that the life without their leaders had no value to it.
 - Umair expressed his wish of killing the Prophet ﷺ (we seek Allah's refuge) only if he had someone to take care of his debt and his children.
 - When Safwan heard of Umair's wish, he said that he will pay his debt off and take care of his children like his own children.
 - When Umair was presented with this opportunity, he asked Safwan to keep the matter secret and left Makkah.
 - When Umair reached Madinah, Umar ibn al-Khattab saw him and said:

"By Allah! This enemy of Allah is here with a wrong intention. Indeed he was the one who was inciting the polythesists against us."

- Umar told the Prophet ﷺ regarding the arrival of Umair with sword hanging with his neck. The Prophet ﷺ asked Umar to bring Umair to him.
- Umar was very cautious and asked the other companions to remain cautious as well.
- When Umair came to the Prophet ﷺ, he asked Umar to leave Umair, as Umar was holding Umair. The Prophet ﷺ asked Umair to come close.
- The Prophet ﷺ asked Umair, “Why are you here Umair?” Umair said that he was here to plead for his captive son. “Why is this sword hanging with your neck?”, the Prophet ﷺ asked. “Of what use were these swords to us?!”, Umair responded. The Prophet ﷺ asked him again to tell the truth and Umair insisted that he was telling the truth.
- Then the Prophet ﷺ then told Umair regarding his discussion with Safwan bin Umayyah in the Hateem.
- Umair, when he heard what the Prophet ﷺ informed him of, was flabbergasted and said:

“I bear witness that you’re truly the Messenger of Allah! ﷺ You bring to us the revelation and we reject it! Only I and Safwan knew about this all! By Allah! I’m certain that you’re informed by Allah!”

- Umair expressed his wish to go back to Makkah and call people to Islam.
- Back in Makkah, Safwan had been telling people that there is big news that he will soon share such big news that they will forget the loss of Badr.
- When Umair reached Makkah, he informed Safwan that he had accepted Islam. Safwan was taken by surprise and he took an oath that he will never talk to Umair again. Safwan would later accept Islam at the conquest of Makkah.
- Many people accepted Islam at the hands of Umair in Makkah.

Lec No-20: The Battle of Uhud

1. Pre-Battle:

- a. The Battle of Uhud took place on 15th Shawwal in the 3rd year of Hijrah.
- b. The main reason was to take revenge for the battle of Badr as those who were adamant were Abu Sufyan bin Harb, Safwan bin Umayyah, Ikrimiah bin Abi Jahl and the likes.
- c. They decided to invest their profits of the trade caravans into this battle.

إِنَّ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا يُنْفِقُونَ أَمْوَالَهُمْ لِيَصُدُّوا عَنْ سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ ۚ فَسَيُنفِقُونَهَا ثُمَّ تَكُونُ عَلَيْهِمْ حَسْرَةً ثُمَّ يُغْلَبُونَ ۚ
وَالَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا إِلَىٰ جَهَنَّمَ يُخْشَرُونَ

“Surely the disbelievers spend their wealth to hinder others from the Path of Allah. They will continue to spend to the point of regret. Then they will be defeated and the disbelievers will be driven into Hell.” (8:36)

- d. Safwan bin Umayyah motivated Abu Uzzah, the poet who was captured as a prisoner of war in the battle of Badr, to come and motivate others by reciting poetry. Initially Abu Uzzah refused but he agreed later when Safwan offered to take care of his family and his debt.
- e. Similarly, Jubayr bin Mut'im (who will become a companion later) offered freedom to Wahshi if he kills Hamza bin Abdul Muttalib as Jubayr's uncle was killed in the battle of Badr.
- f. Abu Amir al-Fasiq (father of companion Hanzalah), who left Madinah when the Prophet ﷺ migrated to Madinah with his companions, joined the army of Quraish with 50 people.
- g. Women of Quraish also accompanied them who would sing and motivate them to fight. The one in forefront was Hind bint Utbah ibn ar-Rabeeah. There was a total of around 15 women with them, mostly wives of notable leaders.
- h. Abbas bin Abdul Muttalib, who was there in Makkah and had hidden his faith from the Quraish, wrote to the Prophet ﷺ to inform him regarding the departure of Quraish. He hired a rider who reached Madinah in 3 days.
- i. The Prophet ﷺ received the letter when he was in Quba. He asked Ubay bin Ka'b to read the letter. When he read the letter, the Prophet ﷺ asked Ubay to keep it a secret.
- j. After the verification of the news, the Prophet ﷺ appointed some companions to guard Madinah so that the Quraish might not take them by surprise.
- k. The Quraish had left Makkah on 5th of Shawwal 3AH and reached the outskirts of Madinah by 14th of Shawwal.
- l. The Prophet ﷺ prayed the Friday prayer on the 14th and consulted the companions in Masjid an-Nabawi.
 - i. He ﷺ was of the view that they should fight the Quraish within Madinah as this would dilute the army of Quraish and the women and children of Madinah would be able to take part in the fighting by throwing stones at Quraish from the top of the buildings.

- ii. Abdullah bin Ubay, the leader of hypocrites, also gave the same opinion, not because he wanted to take the opinion of the Prophet ﷺ but simply because he didn't want to go out on the battlefield and fight.
- iii. The Prophet ﷺ went to his house along with Abu Bakr and Umar and put on his armor. Meanwhile, the leaders of Ansar, Sa'd bin Muaz and Usayd bin Hudayr reprimanded the young companions because they compelled the Prophet ﷺ to do what he didn't want to do.
- iv. When the Prophet ﷺ came out of his house prepared, they said to the Prophet ﷺ:

"It is not for us to disagree with you nor to compel you to go forth. Do what is acceptable to you."

The Prophet ﷺ responded by saying that, "It is not befitting for a Prophet once he dons his armor to remove it until Allah decrees what He decrees between him and his enemy."

- m. The Prophet ﷺ appointed Ibn Umm-e-Maktoom to lead the people in prayer in Madinah.
- n. The Prophet ﷺ left Madinah on Friday night and went to the north towards the mount of Uhud. They prayed Maghrib and Isha at a point called as "Shoot (شوط)."
- o. In the morning, they prayed fajr and the Prophet ﷺ inspected the army and sent those who were underaged (mostly under fifteen years old). Among those who were sent back were Abdullah bin Umar, Usama bin Zaid, Zaid bin Thabit etc.
 - i. Among those who were sent back were Rafi bin Kadeej and Samurah bin Jundub. The Prophet ﷺ was told that Rafi bin Kadeej is a skilled archer, so he allowed Rafi to stay. When Samurah came to know of this he asked his father to ask the Prophet ﷺ to allow him to wrestle Rafi as he would easily beat him. The Prophet ﷺ allowed him and Samurah to beat Rafi easily and so Samurah was also allowed to join the army.
- p. As the army went forth, Abdullah bin Ubay along with 300 people left the army and started moving back to Madinah at the point know as "Shaikhain" (there's a mosque there today by this name) saying, "He defied me and complied with young boys who are not worthy of giving an opinion. We know not for what reason we should kill ourselves in this place. Let us return, o people."
 - i. When Abdullah bin Haram (father of Jabir bin Abdullah) saw them going back, he reprimanded them saying, "O people! I remind you of Allah! Do not desert your people and your Prophet while the enemy is present."
 - ii. Abdullah bin Ubay responded by saying, "If we knew that you were going to fight, we would not have abandoned you but we see that there will be no fighting."

- iii. Abdullah bin Haram was enraged and said, “May Allah distance you, O enemies of Allah! Verily, Allah will help His Prophet with no need of you.”
- iv. Regarding this incident, Allah revealed:

وَلْيَعْلَمَ الَّذِينَ نَافَقُوا وَقِيلَ لَهُمْ تَعَالَوْا قَاتِلُوا فِي سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ أَوْ ادْفَعُوا قَالُوا لَوْ
نَعْلَمُ قِتَالًا لَاتَّبَعْنَكُمْ هُمْ لِلْكَفْرِ يَوْمًا أَقْرَبُ مِنْهُمْ لِلْإِيمَانِ يَقُولُونَ بِأَفْوَاهِهِمْ مَا
لَيْسَ فِي قُلُوبِهِمْ وَاللَّهُ أَعْلَمُ بِمَا يَكْتُمُونَ

“ (to) and expose the hypocrites. When it was said to them, “Come fight in the cause of Allah or ‘at least’ defend yourselves,” they replied, “If we had known there was fighting, we would have definitely gone with you.” They were closer to disbelief than to belief on that day—for saying with their mouths what was not in their hearts. Allah is All-Knowing of what they hide.” (3:167)

- v. Seeing more than one fourth of the army left, two clans (Banu Salimah and Bani Harithah) were about to lose their willpower and retreat, but Allah strengthened their hearts, and they didn’t leave. Regarding this Allah revealed:

إِذْ هَمَّتْ طَائِفَتَانِ مِنْكُمْ أَنْ تَفْشَلَا وَاللَّهُ وَلِيَهُمَا وَعَلَى اللَّهِ فَلْيَتَوَكَّلِ الْمُؤْمِنُونَ

“Remember when two groups among you ‘believers’ were about to cower, then Allah reassured them. So in Allah let the believers put their trust.”

- q. The Prophet ﷺ then asked for someone to take them through a route other than straight north as it would lead them to Quraish before reaching Uhud and the Prophet ﷺ wanted to camp at Uhud as a military tactic, so a companion took them through east via an orchard of a blind hypocrite who wanted to throw dust at the Prophet’s ﷺ face, but he couldn’t. The companions wanted to kill him but the Prophet ﷺ asked them to leave him saying, “Don’t kill him for he blind from the eyes as well as from the heart.”
- r. The Prophet ﷺ reached Uhud in the morning and started arranging the army. The setting of army of referred to in the Qur’an:

وَإِذْ غَدَوْتَ مِنْ أَهْلِكَ تُبَوِّئُ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ مَقْعِدَ لِلْقِتَالِ وَاللَّهُ سَمِيعٌ عَلِيمٌ

“Remember, O Prophet, when you left your home in the early morning to position the believers in the battlefield. And Allah is All-Hearing, All-Knowing.” (3:121)

The Prophet ﷺ arranged the army such that they were facing the narrow window between Uhud and the mount of archers and they were protected from behind by mount Uhud.

- s. He set 50 archers on the mount of archers with Abdullah bin Jubayr as the leader stating categorically that they should stop the cavalry of Khalid bin Waleed by shooting arrows at them and not to leave their places whether the Muslims win or lose.

Narrated Al-Bara:

We faced the pagans on that day (of the battle of Uhud) and the Prophet (ﷺ) placed a batch of archers (at a special place) and appointed `Abdullah (bin Jubair) as their commander and said, "Do not leave this place; if you should see us conquering the enemy, do not leave this place, and if you should see them conquering us, do not (come to) help us," (Bukhari: 4043-4044)

- t. The Prophet (ﷺ) divided the army in three flanks:
 - i. Muhajiroon: their flag was given to Mus'ab bin Umair.
 - ii. Aws: their flag was given to Usayd bin Hudyar.
 - iii. Khazraj: their flag was given to Hubab bin Mundhir.
- u. The Prophet (ﷺ) gave a heart moving sermon to the army and motivated them to fight against the disbelievers who came out to fight against Allah and His Messenger (ﷺ).
- v. The Prophet (ﷺ) then put forth his own sword and asked the companions, "Who will take this sword." Many companions came forward including Ali bin Abi Talib and Zubayr ibn al-Awwam (he came forward three time) but the Prophet (ﷺ) didn't give them the sword and said, "Who will take this sword with its due right?" No one came forward and said anything except Abu Dujana who asked, "What is its due right, O Messenger of Allah (ﷺ)?" "Its due right is that you kill enemy from this sword until it is bent (you kill disbelievers a lot).”, responded Allah’s Messenger ﷺ. Abu Dujana asked the Prophet ﷺ to give it to him and that he will give it its due right and so the sword of Allah’s Messenger ﷺ was given to Abu Dujana. Abu Dujana took out his death band, a red band that he would tie on his forehead claiming that he will fight fearlessly either killing the enemy brutally or be killed, and tied it around his head and started walking with his chest out, boasting. Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “This is a walk that is loathsome to Allah unless it is in such a place.”

- w. Quraish tried different tactics to break the unity of the Muslims just before the battle started.
 - i. Abu Sufyan initially approached the Muslim camp and said, “O People of Aws & Khazraj! Leave our cousins to us and we will leave you be for we have no wish to fight you.” Ansar replied to him back with insults.
 - ii. Seeing this, Abu Amir al-Fasiq moved forward and asked Abu Sufyan to let him speak to them as the people of Aws valued him a lot. As soon as he said, “O Aws! I am Abu Amir!” Aws said, “No welcome to you al-Fasiq!” So, he had to return insulted.

2. During the Battle:

- a. Talha bin Abi Talha came forward and called for a duel. He was known for his bravery as a cavalryman. Ali bin Abi Talib came forward. Both attacked each other and Ali was able to chop off Talha’s leg. As soon as Talha fell on the ground, his ‘awrah was exposed and he started pleading Ali for mercy. When Ali saw him in this state, he left him and came back to the army and then Quraish launched attack on the Muslims.
- b. The battle started with great intensity. Abu Sufyan gave the flag of Quraish to Banu Abd ad-Dar (who were known to take great care of the flag during battles). One after the other, the flagbearers of Quraish were attacked by the Muslims and almost 10 flagbearers of Banu Abd ad-Dar were killed.
- c. Zubayr bin Awwam was upset with the fact that he didn’t get the sword of Allah’s Messenger ﷺ although he was his aunt’s son and his brother-in-law. So he followed Abu Dujana to see what he does with the sword.
 - i. Zubayr narrates that there was a polytheist who was searching for the wounded people of the Muslim army and kill them. While Abu Dujana was fighting ferociously, Zubayr said that he wanted Abu Dujana to meet the polytheist and kill him. And it so happened that they both came in front of each other and the polytheist attacked Abu Dujana which he was able to shield, and Abu Dujana counterattacked and killed that polytheist.
 - ii. Then Abu Dujana came to a guy whose head was covered and was motivating the other polytheist to fight. Abu Dujana confronted him and raised his sword to attack him and as soon as he did it he heard a woman’s scream and lo it was Hind bint Utbah, so Abu Dujana left her and later said, “I honored the sword of the Messenger of Allah ﷺ from striking a woman.”
- d. During this part of the battle Wahshi was looking for his target, Hamza bin Abdul Muttalib. He narrates his story:

Narrated Jafar bin `Amr bin Umaiya:

I went out with 'Ubaidullah bin `Adi Al-Khaiyar. When we reached Hims (i.e. a town in Syria), 'Ubaidullah bin `Adi said (to me), "Would you like to see Wahshi so that we may ask him about the killing of Hamza?" I replied, "Yes." 'Ubaidullah..... said (to Wahshi), "Will you tell us (the story of) the killing of Hamza?" Wahshi replied "Yes, Hamza killed Tuaima bin `Adi bin Al-Khaiyar at Badr (battle) so my master, Jubair bin Mut`im said to me, 'If you kill Hamza in revenge for my uncle, then you will be set free.'" When the people set out (for the battle of Uhud) in the year of 'Ainain .. 'Ainain is a mountain near the mountain of Uhud, and between it and Uhud there is a valley.. I went out with the people for the battle. When the army aligned for the fight, Siba' came out and said, 'Is there any (Muslim) to accept my challenge to a duel?' Hamza bin `Abdul Muttalib came out and said, 'O Siba'. O Ibn Um Anmar, the one who circumcises other ladies! Do you challenge Allah and His Apostle?' Then Hamza attacked and killed him, causing him to be non-extant like the bygone yesterday. I hid myself under a rock, and when he (i.e. Hamza) came near me, I threw my spear at him, driving it into his umbilicus so that it came out through his buttocks, causing him to die. When all the people returned to Mecca, I too returned with them.

(Bukhari: 4072)

- e. Also during this time, the companion Hanzalah (the son of Abu Amir al-Fasiq) attacked Abu Sufyan. He struck his horse and Abu Sufan fell and screamed for help. Shaddad bin Aswad threw his spear at Hanzalah and Hanzalah passed away.
- f. At this point and time, Quraish were being brutally defeated which caused them to retreat and Zubayr ibn al-Awwam said that we almost captured the woman of Quraish.
- g. Seeing the Quraish flee from the battlefield the companions started collecting the war booty and some chased the Quraish. When the archers saw this, almost 40 of them argued that they should also participate in the collection of war booty as the Muslims were victorious. Abdullah bin Jubayr, their leader, said that they are not supposed to leave this position until Allah's Messenger ﷺ asked them to. But the former persisted and left Abdullah with less than 10 men with him.
- h. Seeing the mount of archers left with a handful of people Khalid bin Waleed along with Ikrimah bin Abi Jahl and 200 cavalrymen launched a counteroffensive from the back side killing all the companions on the mount of archers.

وَلَقَدْ صَدَقَكُمُ اللَّهُ وَعْدَهُ إِذْ تَحُسُّونَهُمْ بِإِذْنِهِ ۖ هَاجَرْتُمْ إِذَا فَشِلْتُمْ وَتَنَزَّعْتُمْ فِي الْأَمْرِ
وَعَصَيْتُمْ مَنِ بَعْدَ مَا أَرْسَلَكُمْ مَّا تُحِبُّونَ ۚ مِنْكُمْ مَن يُرِيدُ الدُّنْيَا وَمِنْكُمْ مَن يُرِيدُ الْآخِرَةَ ۚ ثُمَّ
صَرَفَكُمْ عَنْهُمْ لِيَبْتَلِيَكُمْ ۚ وَلَقَدْ عَفَا عَنْكُمْ ۚ وَاللَّهُ ذُو فَضْلٍ عَلَى الْمُؤْمِنِينَ

"Indeed, Allah fulfilled His promise to you when you 'initially' swept them away by His Will, then your courage weakened and you disputed about the command and disobeyed,1 after Allah had brought victory within your reach. Some of you were after worldly gain while others desired a heavenly reward. He denied you victory over them as a test, yet He has pardoned you. And Allah is Gracious to the believers.” (3:152)

- i. The Muslims were now surrounded from the front and the back.
- j. At this point and time, Mus’ab bin Umair was attacked by the army of Quraish as he was the flagbearer. Ibn Qami’ah attacked Mus’ab and his right arm was chopped off. Mus’ab tried to grab the flag in his left hand and Ibn Qami’ah swung his sword and chopped off his left arm. Mus’ab in his desperate attempt to carry the flag tried to rest the flag with chest was attacked for the third time and fell on the ground. Mus’ab was wearing the armor of Allah’s Messenger ﷺ and Ibn Qami’ah thought he had killed Allah’s Messenger ﷺ and so the rumor spread in the battlefield that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ has been killed.
- k. At this point, the Muslim army was in a chaos, and they divided into three categories:
 - i. Those who fled the battlefield. Regarding them Allah revealed:

إِنَّ الَّذِينَ تَوَلَّوْا مِنْكُمْ يَوْمَ الْتَقَى الْجَمْعَانِ إِنَّمَا اسْتَزَلَّهُمُ الشَّيْطَانُ بِبَعْضِ مَا كَسَبُوا وَلَقَدْ عَفَا اللَّهُ عَنْهُمْ إِنَّ اللَّهَ غَفُورٌ حَلِيمٌ

“Indeed, those ‘believers’ who fled on the day when the two armies met were made to slip by Satan because of their misdeeds. But Allah has pardoned them. Surely Allah is All-Forgiving, Most Forbearing.” (3:155)

- ii. Then there were those who lost heart. Among them were companions as well as hypocrites. Allah revealed to remind the believers:

وَمَا مُحَمَّدٌ إِلَّا رَسُولٌ قَدْ خَلَتْ مِنْ قَبْلِهِ الرُّسُلُ أَفَإِنْ مَاتَ أَوْ قُتِلَ انْقَلَبْتُمْ عَلَى أَعْقَابِكُمْ وَمَنْ يَنْقَلِبْ عَلَى عَقْبَيْهِ فَلَنْ يَضُرَّ اللَّهَ شَيْئًا وَسَيَجْزِي اللَّهُ الشَّاكِرِينَ

“Muhammad is no more than a messenger; other messengers have gone before him. If he were to die or to be killed, would you regress into disbelief? Those who do so will not harm Allah whatsoever. And Allah will reward those who are grateful.” (3:144)

When Anas bin Nadr, the uncle of Anas bin Malik, saw some companions losing courage after hearing the rumor of Prophet’s ﷺ death said to them, “What will you do with life after him? Rise and die upon that which he died upon.” He fought ferociously until he was killed. Anas said that we believed that the following verse was revealed regarding him:

مَنْ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ رَجَالٌ صَدَقُوا مَا عَاهَدُوا اللَّهَ عَلَيْهِ فَمِنْهُمْ مَنْ قَضَىٰ نَحْبَهُ وَمِنْهُمْ مَنْ يَنْتَظِرُ وَمَا بَدَّلُوا تَبْدِيلًا

“Among the believers are men who have proven true to what they pledged to Allah. Some of them have fulfilled their pledge ‘with their lives’, others are waiting ‘their turn’. They have never changed ‘their commitment’ in the least.”
(33:23)

Regarding the hypocrites, the second part of the verse was revealed:

ثُمَّ أَنْزَلَ عَلَيْكُم مِّن بَعْدِ الْغَمِّ أَمَنَةً نُّعَاسًا يَغْشَى طَآئِفَةً مِّنكُمْ وَطَآئِفَةٌ قَدْ أَهَمَّتْهُمْ أَنفُسُهُمْ يَظُنُّونَ بِاللَّهِ غَيْرَ الْحَقِّ ظَنَّ الْجَاهِلِيَّةِ يَقُولُونَ هَل لَّنَا مِنَ الْأَمْرِ مِن شَيْءٍ قُلْ إِنَّ الْأَمْرَ كُلَّهُ لِلَّهِ يُخْفُونَ فِي أَنفُسِهِم مَّا لَا يُبْدُونَ لَكَ يَقُولُونَ لَوْ كَانَ لَنَا مِنَ الْأَمْرِ شَيْءٌ مَّا قُتِلْنَا هَاهُنَا قُل لَّو كُنْتُمْ فِي بُيُوتِكُمْ لَبَرَزَ الَّذِينَ كُتِبَ عَلَيْهِمُ الْقَتْلُ إِلَى مَضَاجِعِهِمْ وَلِيَبْتَلِيَ اللَّهُ مَا فِي صُدُورِكُمْ وَلِيُمَحَّصَ مَا فِي قُلُوبِكُمْ وَاللَّهُ عَلِيمٌ بِذَاتِ الصُّدُورِ

Then after distress, He sent down serenity in the form of drowsiness overcoming some of you, while others were disturbed by evil thoughts about Allah—the thoughts of ‘pre-Islamic’ ignorance. They ask, “Do we have a say in the matter?” Say, ‘O Prophet,’ “All matters are destined by Allah.” They conceal in their hearts what they do not reveal to you. They say ‘to themselves’, “If we had any say in the matter, none of us would have come to die here.” Say, ‘O Prophet,’ “Even if you were to remain in your homes, those among you who were destined to be killed would have met the same fate.” Through this, Allah tests what is within you and purifies what is in your hearts. And Allah knows best what is ‘hidden’ in the heart. (3:154)

- iii. The third group was of those companions who remained steadfast with the Prophet ﷺ. Initially there were around 11 men with him, 9 from the Ansar and 2 from Muhajiroon, namely Talha bin Ubaydullah and Sa’d bin Abi Waqqas.
- I. When the Prophet ﷺ saw people scattering here and there, he called out to them, “O Slaves of Allah! To me! To me!” Allah referred to this:

﴿إِذْ تَصْعَدُونَ وَلَا تَلُونَّ عَلَى أَحَدٍ وَالرَّسُولُ يَدْعُوكُمْ فِي أُخْرَاكُمْ فَأَتَابَكُمْ غَمًّا بِغَمٍّ لِّكَيْلَا تَحْزَنُوا عَلَى مَا فَاتَكُمْ وَلَا مَا أَصَابَكُمْ وَاللَّهُ خَبِيرٌ بِمَا تَعْمَلُونَ﴾

‘Remember’ when you were running far away ‘in panic’—not looking at anyone—while the Messenger was calling to you from behind! So Allah rewarded your disobedience with distress upon distress. Now, do not grieve over the victory you were denied or the injury you suffered. And Allah is All-Aware of what you do. (3:153)

- m. This caused some of the Quraish to get to the Prophet ﷺ and they tried to get to him. All of the Ansar who were surrounding him were martyred defending him. Each time the Prophet ﷺ would ask, “Who will stave them off and for him will be Heaven?”

- i. The only people left with the Prophet ﷺ at this time were Talha bin Ubaydullah and Sa'd bin Abi Waqqas.
- ii. During this time, Utbah bin Abi Waqqas threw stones at the Prophet ﷺ and his incisor broke, his lip was cut, and his face was wounded.
- iii. Ibn Qami'ah struck the Prophet ﷺ with a blow on his shoulder. He also gave a blow at his helmet which caused two rings of the chainmail to embed in his cheek.
- iv. The Prophet ﷺ remarked, "How will a people who bloodied their Prophet's face as he called them to their Lord succeed?" On this, Allah revealed:

لَيْسَ لَكَ مِنَ الْأَمْرِ شَيْءٌ أَوْ يَتُوبَ عَلَيْهِمْ أَوْ يُعَذِّبُهُمْ فَإِنَّهُمْ ظَالِمُونَ

"You 'O Prophet' have no say in the matter. It is up to Allah to turn to them in mercy or punish them, for indeed they are wrongdoers." (3:128)

- n. Talha and Sa'd fought ferociously to protect the Prophet ﷺ during this time.
 - i. As for Talha, he protected the Prophet ﷺ even from his body until his index finger was cut and his one hand was paralyzed. When his index finger was struck, he said out of pain, "Hiss". The Prophet ﷺ said, "Had you said Bismillah, the angels would have raised you up as people looked on."
 - ii. Talha endured at least 35 injuries, forehead studded with spear gouges, index finger cut off, hand paralyzed.
 - iii. Whenever Abu Bakr would remember the day of Uhud he would cry and say, "It was all Talha's day!"
 - iv. Similarly, Sa'd gave all he had to protect the Prophet ﷺ. Sa'd was a great archer. The Prophet ﷺ would collect arrows and give it to Sa'd and say, "Shoot O Sa'd! May my father and mother be sacrificed for you!". Sa'd would pray before shooting, "O Allah! This is Your arrow! Hit with it Your enemy!" And the Prophet ﷺ would say, "O Allah! Answer Sa'd's prayer!"
 - v. Ali said, "Never did I hear the Prophet ﷺ join both his parents in this phrase for anyone but for Sa'd bin Abi Waqqas."
 - vi. Allah sent Jibreel and Meeka'eel to defend the Prophet ﷺ. They would fight on the right and left side of the Prophet ﷺ.
- o. Among those who got to know of the Prophet's ﷺ location was Abu Bakr. He narrates that he saw the Prophet ﷺ and started running towards him and then he saw someone coming from the backside. The guy came so fast that he reached the Prophet ﷺ along with Abu Bakr and it was Abu Ubaidah Amir Ibn al-Jarrah. When Abu Ubaidah saw the rings in the cheeks of the Prophet ﷺ, he said to Abu Bakr, "I ask you, by Allah, O Abu Bakr, that you leave it to me to remove the rings from the Messenger's ﷺ cheek."
- p. Turn by turn the companions started gathering around the Prophet ﷺ when they would get to know of his location. Of those who gathered around him and got injured while defending him were:

- i. Abdur Rahman bin Awf: he lost a tooth and got injured in his one leg and it was paralyzed.
 - ii. Umm-e-Ummarah Nusaibah bint-e-Ka'b: The Prophet ﷺ said to her, "Who can endure what you endured, O Umm-e-Ummarah!"
- q. There was another attempt for the Prophet's ﷺ assassination at this time. Ubay bin Khalf, who would taunt the Prophet ﷺ in Makkah by saying, "O Muhammad, I feed this horse of mine so I can kill you riding on it." The Prophet ﷺ would respond to him by saying, "No, but rather I will kill you."
- i. When Ubay came forward to kill the Prophet ﷺ, the companions started moving towards him but the Prophet ﷺ said, "Leave him, he is mine!" He ﷺ took his spear and moved towards Ubay, who was riding his horse marching towards the Prophet ﷺ. The Prophet ﷺ threw his spear which touched Ubay's neck but he fell on the ground and started screaming. When the Quraish got to him and saw he only a scratch on his neck, they said to him, "Why are you screaming? It's only a scratch?". "Were this pain to be distributed among the people of Dhul-mijaz, it would be sufficient to kill them.", responded and Ka'b and he kept screaming, "Muhammad ﷺ has killed me!" and he also said, "Had he spit on me, it would have killed me as he said that he would kill me." Ubay died on his way back to Makkah. He is the only wretched one to be killed by the Prophet ﷺ.
- r. After sending back this wave of attacks, the companions along with the Prophet ﷺ sought refuge in a cervice of Uhud. For the cervice, the Prophet ﷺ had to climb which he couldn't, so Talha bent down and the Prophet ﷺ climbed on his back and entered the cervice. On this the Prophet ﷺ said, "(Paradise) is now wajib for Talha!"

3. Lessons:

- a. It is a custom of disbelievers to invest money to harm the Muslims in whatever capacity they can.
- b. It is sunnah to verify a news before taking any action.
- c. We shouldn't panic when faced with severe challenges.
- d. A leader shouldn't impose his decisions on people, rather he should consult them.
- e. We should take measures, but our trust should be on Allah's help, not on our means.
- f. Two things cause damage to the Muslims as a whole:
 - i. Disputing with each other.
 - ii. Disobeying Allah and His Messenger ﷺ
- g. This world and the wealth of this world is a great tribulation (fitnah).

Lec-21- Battle of Uhud and Post Uhud Events

1. When the Quraish became weary and took the revenge for the first part of the battle, they decided to leave.
 - a. Abu Sufyan raised his voice and asked, “Is Muhammad (ﷺ) alive?”. He did this three times and the Prophet ﷺ asked his companions not to respond to him. He then asked, “Is Ibnu Abi Quhafa (Abu Bakr) alive?”. He got no response and then he asked, “Is Ibnul Khattab (Umar) alive?”. He still didn’t get any response. He then gloated, “As for those, they have been killed. Had they been alive, they would’ve responded.” At this, Umar shouted back, “You lie, O enemy of Allah! Allah has kept for you what will humiliate you!” Abu Sufyan responded, “Hubal (idol) is raised!” Umar responded back on Prophet’s ﷺ command, “Allah is higher and more glorified!”.
 - b. And then Abu Sufyan said before leaving that they will meet next year at Badr again to avenge for Badr.
 - c. He also said that some of the Muslims have been mutilated but he didn’t order it nor does he regret it.
2. After this, the Muslims sought their dead.
 - a. Prophet ﷺ sent Ansar to search for Sa’d ibn ar-Rabi (whose brotherhood was made with Abdur Rahman bin Awf at the migration and whose story is the most famous in this regard). An Ansari companion found Sa’d at the brink of death and said to him, “Allah’s Messenger ﷺ sends greetings upon you and asked us to look for you and ask you how do you find yourself?” “I am from the dead (meaning I’ll not survive) and I can smell the scent of Jannah. So convey my greetings to the Prophet ﷺ.” And Sa’d passed away. Upon getting the news of his martyrdom, the Prophet ﷺ prayed for him and said, “O Allah! Meet Sa’d ibn ar-Rabeeah while you’re pleased with him.”
 - b. Hamza was from those whose bodies were mutilated. His nose and ears were cut and his stomach was cut open and according to Ibn Ishaq Hind bint Utbah chewed his liver and spit it out. When the Prophet ﷺ was taken to location where they found Hamza bin Abdul Muttalib’s body, the Prophet ﷺ sobbed and sobbed as if the person sobbing is about to pass away and he ﷺ said, “Were it not for the fact that Safiyyah (Prophet’s ﷺ aunt and Hamza’s sister) would cry and that it would become an established practice after me, I would have left him so that he would end up in the stomachs of animals and birds. And if Allah make me come out victorious over them on any day in time, we will mutilate their bodies in a way no Arab has ever mutilated before!”
 - i. Safiyyah bint Abdul Muttalib came running to Uhud when she was informed about the martyrdom of her brother. The Prophet ﷺ ordered Zubair ibn al-Awwam, his son, to go and stop her from seeing the mutilated body of her brother. Zubair went and stopped her. Initially she hit Zubair on his chest to move back and not to stop her but when Zubair said, “O Mother! The Prophet ﷺ orders you to stay back!” So she stopped and said, “And why? I’ve been informed that he has been mutilated and was that not for Allah? I’ll reckon my loss to Allah and be patient.” So Zubair informed the Prophet ﷺ and he allowed her to see Hamza's body. When she saw Hamza's body, she stood patiently and she said crying, "إنا لله وإنا إليه راجعون".

- c. Of the martyrs was Hanzalah bin Abu Amir. His body was not mutilated as his father was fighting with Quraish and he ordered them not to mutilate his body. When Hanzalah's body was searched, they found water dripping from his head and it was found out that he got married last night and had relations with his wife and he hurried to catch up with the army which was leaving in the morning and out of his haste to join the army, he didn't perform ghusl. So Allah sent angels to give him ghusl and this is why he is known as "Ghaseel-ul-Malaa'ikah (the one washed by the Angels)".
 - d. Usayrim Amr bin Thabit was also from the martyrs. He was that individual of Sa'd bin Muaz's tribe who didn't convert when Sa'd asked everyone to either accept Islam or never talk to him. When he saw the Muslims going out to fight, he accepted Islam and joined the army. He fought valiantly and died without even praying one prayer as no prayer became obligatory on him after he accepted Islam.
3. The Prophet ﷺ then ordered the companions to prepare graves for the martyrs and each grave had two or three people.
- a. He would ask the companions that who knew the Qur'an more and he would honor him to be buried first.
 - b. The martyrs were not given ghusl, nor their funeral was held.
 - c. Abdur Rahman once narrated about the burial of the companions in Uhud. He said, "Mus'ab was killed, and he was better than I. He was shrouded in a robe which, if it covered his head, exposed his feet, and if it covered his feet, exposed his head." He also said, "Hamza was killed, and he was better than I. Then the dunya was spread before us." Then he began to cry until he couldn't partake of his food, though he had been fasting.
4. The Muslims then returned to Madinah. The news of the dead reached their relatives. For some, the news was disclosed by the Prophet ﷺ.
- a. On his way to Madinah, the Prophet ﷺ came across Hamnah bint Jahsh and he said to her, "Be patient and expected reward from Allah." (which meant that someone from his relatives has passed away). So, she asked, "Who, O Messenger of Allah ﷺ?" "Your brother Abdullah bin Jahsh." Responded the Prophet ﷺ. "إنا لله وإنا إليه راجعون", said Hamnah. Then again, the Prophet ﷺ said the same thing which meant that another of her relatives had passed away. So, she asked the same question again and the Prophet ﷺ said, "Your uncle, Hamza bin Abdul Muttalib." "إنا لله وإنا إليه راجعون", responded Hamnah. Then for the third time the Prophet ﷺ said the same thing and when Hamnah asked who it was, the Prophet ﷺ said, "Your husband, Mus'ab bin Umair." This time, Hamnah cried out, "What sadness! What grief! (وا حزناه)".
 - b. One of the women of Banu Deenar was informed that her husband, brother and father had been killed. So, she asked, "Tell me about the Messenger of Allah ﷺ." So, she was told that he was fine. She responded, "Every calamity is small compared to the calamity of your death." (as rumors had spread that Allah's Messenger ﷺ had passed away).

- c. When the Prophet ﷺ heard women crying for their loved ones in Madinah, he exclaimed, “But for Hamza, there are no weepers!” When Sa’d bin Mua’dh Usayd bin Hudayr came to know of this, they sent the Ansari women saying that you will not cry for your men until you cry for Hamza! When the Prophet ﷺ heard women wailing and he was told that they are wailing for Hamza so the Prophet ﷺ said, “May Allah have mercy on Ansar! They have given their condolences. This is not what I meant. I don’t like sobbing/wailing.” From this time the Prophet ﷺ prohibited wailing over the dead.
5. The Jews and hypocrites rejoiced on this loss of the Muslims and this war effected the military reputation of the Muslims.

Ghazwa of Hamra al-Asad

1. The very next day of Uhud, the Prophet ﷺ set out with all those companions who had taken part in Uhud to chase the Quraish. This was supposedly done for two purposes. The first purpose was to make sure that the Quraish didn’t return as they had not achieved what they came for. The second purpose was to let Quraish know that Muslims have not grown weak in their resolve.
2. On the other hand, Abu Sufyan soon realized that they haven’t achieved what they came for and was furious because of this. He wanted to go back and deal with the Muslims but Safwan bin Umayyah and others discouraged him to go back.
3. The Prophet ﷺ along with the companions of Uhud left Madinah and stayed at Hamra al-Asad, which is approximately around 15km south of Madinah. They stayed there for three days, and they would lit around 500 torches at night so the Quraish would know that they have not weakened and so that they don’t try to return.

4. Ma'bad ibn Abi Ma'bad al-Khuzaei came to Hamra al-Asad and accepted Islam and the Prophet ﷺ ordered him to discourage Abu Sufyan from coming back. Ma'bad caught up with the Quraish and when discussing started with Abu Sufyan regarding their return to Madinah, Ma'bad discouraged him saying that you have already done well and Muhammad (ﷺ) has come up with a great army and is furious, so it is better for Quraish to return.
5. With the intention of returning to Makkah, Abu Sufyan came across the caravan of Abdul Qais and paid them to tell Muhammad ﷺ that Quraish are planning to return to wipe them out so that the Muslims would retreat out of fear. But when the news reached the Muslims, their resolve never wavered, and they said “حسبنا الله ونعم الوكيل”. Allah says in the Qur'an:

الَّذِينَ اسْتَجَابُوا لِلَّهِ وَالرَّسُولِ مِنْ بَعْدِ مَا أَصَابَهُمُ الْقَرْحُ ۚ لِلَّذِينَ أَحْسَنُوا مِنْهُمْ وَاتَّقُوا أَجْرٌ عَظِيمٌ ١٧٢
 الَّذِينَ قَالُوا لَهُمْ النَّاسُ إِنَّ النَّاسَ قَدْ جَمَعُوا لَكُمْ فَاخْشَوْهُمْ فَزَادَهُمْ إِيمَانًا وَقَالُوا حَسْبُنَا اللَّهُ وَنِعْمَ الْوَكِيلُ ١٧٣ فَانْقَلَبُوا بِنِعْمَةِ مِّنَ اللَّهِ وَفَضْلٍ لَّمْ يَمَسَّ لَهُمْ سُوءٌ ۖ وَأَتَّبَعُوا رِضْوَانَ اللَّهِ ۖ وَاللَّهُ ذُو فَضْلٍ عَظِيمٍ ١٧٤ إِنَّمَا ذَلِكُمُ الشَّيْطَانُ يُخَوِّفُ أَوْلِيَاءَهُ ۖ فَلَا تَخَافُوهُمْ وَخَافُوا مِنِّي إِن كُنْتُمْ مُّؤْمِنِينَ ١٧٥

“As for those who responded to the call of Allah and His Messenger after their injury,¹ those of them who did good and were mindful of Allah will have a great reward. Those who were warned, “Your enemies have mobilized their forces against you, so fear them,” the warning only made them grow stronger in faith and they replied, “Allah alone is sufficient as an aid for us and He is the best Protector.” So they returned with Allah’s favours and grace, suffering no harm. For they sought to please Allah. And surely Allah is the Lord of infinite bounty. That warning was only from Satan, trying to prompt you to fear his followers. So do not fear them; fear Me if you are true believers.” (3:172-175)

Sariyyah of Banu Asad

1. Seeing weakened Muslim community, the tribe of Banu Asad, led by Tulaihah al-Asadi, started preparing to launch an offensive against Muslims.
2. The Prophet ﷺ got to know about this through spies, so he sent an army of 150 men led by Abu Salamah before they were able to gather an army. Banu Asad was terrified at the surprise attack, and they fled, and Muslims took their livestock as booty and returned.
3. This expedition had a toll on Abu Salamah as he was already not well recovered from the wounds he got on the day of Uhud. When he returned, his wounds worsened and lead to his death.

Assassination of Khalid ibn Sufyan al-Hudhalee

1. To support his fellow polytheists, Khalid ibn Sufyan al-Hudhalee started organizing people to launch offensive on Madinah.
2. When the Prophet ﷺ got to know of this, he sent Abdullah bin Unais to assassinate him as he was the main force behind this plan.
3. When Abdullah bin Unais came back successful in his task, the Prophet ﷺ gave him his staff and said, "It will be a sign between me and you on the Day of Judgement."

The Tragedy of ar-Raj'ee

1. Banu Laihyan, one of the clans of Hudayl tribe (that of Khalid bin Sufyan al-Hudalee), went to the people of 'Udal and al-Qarrah offering them money to take revenge from the Prophet ﷺ for the assassination of Khalid.
2. The two clans went to the Prophet ﷺ and asked him to send some of his companions who could teach them about Islam.
3. The Prophet ﷺ sent 10 of his companions, appointing 'Aasim bin Thabit as their leader.
4. When they reached a spot between Usfan and Makkah, two hundred fighters of Banu Lihyaan ambushed them. The companions realized that they had been betrayed.
5. They were asked to surrender but the companions fought until seven of them including 'Aasim bin Thabit were martyred.
6. The remaining three were again asked to surrender, so they surrendered. But they soon realized that they were not being given safety, so Abdullah bin Tariq resorted to fighting and hence was martyred.
7. The remaining two, Khubaib and Zaid bin Dihthinna, were sold to Quraish as the former had killed al-Harith bin Aamir bin Naufal and the latter had killed Umayyah bin Khalf. Both were killed by the Quraish.

The Tragedy of Bi'r Ma'una

1. The tribe leader of Banu 'Aamir, Mulaa'ib al-Asinnah, came to visit the Prophet ﷺ and seemed to be very close to accept Islam and asked the Prophet ﷺ to send some people to call his tribe to Islam and teach them about it.
2. Therefore, the Prophet ﷺ sent almost 70 of the Ansaar who were known as "Qur'aa (the reciters)" to teach them.
3. 'Aamir ibn at-Tufail, one of the chieftains of Banu 'Aamir, had initially offered the Prophet ﷺ to make him a partner in the rulership of Arabia if he is victorious or to make him his successor or to be ready to face him in battle. The Prophet ﷺ had rejected his offers and he was looking for an opportunity to attack the Muslims.
4. When 'Aamir found out about the companions coming to teach them, he took the help of Banu Sulaim and attacked the companions and killed all except one, 'Amr bin Umayyah ad-Darmee, who was initially taken captive and then released by 'Aamir bin Tufail who got to know that he was from the descendants of Mudar (both sharing the same lineage from him).

5. 'Amr on his way back found two people of Banu 'Aamir coming from Madinah, so he attacked them and killed them to avenge for what their people had done against his companions, unaware of the fact that they both had just got protection from the Prophet ﷺ.

Marriage of Prophet ﷺ with Umm-e-Salamah

1. When Abu Salamah was about to pass away, Umm-e-Salamah recalled a hadith which Abu Salamah himself told Umm-e-Salamah that the Prophet ﷺ said that whoever is stricken by a calamity and he says “إنا لله وانا اليه راجعون اللهم أجرني في مصيبتي، واخلف لي خيرا منها” (Indeed we belong to Allah and indeed to Him we shall return. O Allah! Reward me for my (patience on this) affliction and replace it for me with something better) but she to herself, “Who can be better than Abu Salamah? (As they both loved each other very much).”
2. After her Iddah (the waiting period after the death of husband/divorce) was over, Abu Bakr sent her the marriage proposal which she rejected and then Umar sent her a proposal which she also rejected.
3. Then the Prophet ﷺ sent a proposal to which she responded, “O Messenger of Allah ﷺ, I am a woman of old age. I have four kids and I am a jealous woman (I would be jealous of the co-wives if I get married to you).” The Prophet ﷺ responded to her, “As for your age, I am stricken with the same calamity as you (meaning I have grown old too). As for your kids, they will be my kids and as for your jealousy, I'll pray to Allah to remove it from your heart.”
4. Satisfied after this conversation with the Prophet ﷺ, Umm-e-Salamah, accepted the proposal and she became his sixth wife.

Expulsion of Banu Nadeer

1. There are three reasons which led to the expulsion of Banu Nadeer:
 - a. They attempted to assassinate the Prophet ﷺ.
 - b. They didn't participate in defending in Madinah as per the contract at the time of Hijrah, thus going against the state.
 - c. They supported Abu Sufyan in his raid at Madinah when he attacked after Badr with 200 men, hence directly involved in act of terrorism against the state.
2. This expulsion happened in the 4th AH in the month of Rabiul-Awwal.
3. The Prophet ﷺ went to Banu Nadeer to ask for assistance in the collection of the blood money for the two men who were killed by Amr bin Umayyah.
 - a. He ﷺ went with Abu Bakr, Umar and Ali. They made him wait out one of the fortresses and when they went inside, they decided that they would throw a stone at him and get rid of him.
 - b. Sallam bin Mishkam, one of the leaders of Banu Nadeer, cautioned them and asked them not to do it as Allah will expose them as they knew from inside that he is a true messenger of Allah (ﷺ).
 - c. Allah informed the Prophet ﷺ and he went away without saying anything to his companions.
4. The Prophet ﷺ ordered Muhammad bin Maslamah (who was an Ansari companion from 'Aws and the 'Aws had an alliance with Banu Nadeer in the times of jahiliyyah) to give Banu Nadeer an ultimatum to leave Madinah within 10 days.
5. When the hypocrites learned of this, their leader, Abdullah bin Ubai sent a word to them, saying:

"Stay fast in your places, refuse to leave your homes and gather in your fort, for verily, I have two thousand of my people and others of the Arabs who are willing to stay with you in your fort until death, every last one of them, while you wait for Quraish and their allies of Ghatafan to send you reinforcements."

The Qur'an addresses the states of hypocrites:

أَلَمْ تَرَ إِلَى الَّذِينَ نَافَقُوا يَقُولُونَ لِإِخْوَانِهِمُ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا مِنْ أَهْلِ الْكِتَابِ لَئِنْ أُخْرِجْتُمْ لَنَخْرُجَنَّ مَعَكُمْ وَلَا نَطِيعُ فِيكُمْ أَحَدًا أَبَدًا وَإِنْ قُوتِلْتُمْ لَنَنْصُرَنَّكُمْ وَاللَّهُ يَشْهَدُ إِنَّهُمْ لَكَاذِبُونَ ۝ ١١ لَئِنْ أُخْرِجُوا لَا يَخْرُجُونَ مَعَهُمْ وَلَئِنْ قُوتِلُوا لَا يَنْصُرُونَهُمْ وَلَئِنْ نَصَرُوهُمْ لَيُولَنَّ الْأَدْبَارَ ثُمَّ لَا يَنْصُرُونَ ۝ ١٢ لَأَنْتُمْ أَشَدُّ رَهْبَةً فِي صُدُورِهِمْ مِنَ اللَّهِ ۚ ذَلِكَ بِأَنَّهُمْ قَوْمٌ لَا يَفْقَهُونَ ۝ ١٣ لَا يُقَاتِلُونَكُمْ جَمِيعًا إِلَّا فِي قَرْيٍ مُحَصَّنَةٍ أَوْ مِنْ وَرَاءِ جُدُرٍ ۚ بَأْسُهُمْ بَيْنَهُمْ شَدِيدٌ ۚ تَحْسَبُهُمْ جَمِيعًا وَقُلُوبُهُمْ شَتَّى ۚ ذَلِكَ بِأَنَّهُمْ قَوْمٌ لَا يَعْقِلُونَ ۝ ١٤ كَمَثَلِ الَّذِينَ مِنْ قَبْلِهِمْ قَرِيبًا ذَاقُوا وَبَالَ أَمْرِهِمْ وَلَهُمْ عَذَابٌ أَلِيمٌ ۝ ١٥ كَمَثَلِ الشَّيْطَانِ إِذْ قَالَ لِلْإِنْسَانِ اكْفُرْ فَلَمَّا كَفَرَ قَالَ إِنِّي بَرِيءٌ مِنْكَ إِنِّي أَخَافُ اللَّهَ رَبَّ الْعَالَمِينَ ۝ ١٦ فَكَانَ عَقِبَهُمَا أَنَّهُمَا فِي النَّارِ خَالِدِينَ فِيهَا ۚ وَذَلِكَ جَزَاءُ الظَّالِمِينَ ۝ ١٧

Have you 'O Prophet' not seen the hypocrites who say to their fellow disbelievers from the People of the Book, "If you are expelled, we will certainly leave with you, and We will never obey anyone against you. And if you are fought against, we will surely help you."? But Allah bears witness that they are truly liars. Indeed, if they are expelled, the hypocrites will never leave with them. And if they are fought against, the hypocrites will never help them. And even if the hypocrites did so, they would certainly flee, then the disbelievers would be left with no help. Indeed, there is more fear in their hearts for you 'believers' than for Allah. That is because they are a people who do not comprehend. Even united, they would not 'dare' fight against you except 'from' within fortified strongholds or from behind walls. Their malice for each other is intense: you think they are united, yet their hearts are divided. That is because they are a people with no 'real' understanding. They are 'both just' like those who recently went down before them: they tasted the evil consequences of their doings. And they will suffer a painful punishment. 'They are' like Satan when he lures someone to disbelieve. Then after they have done so, he will say 'on Judgment Day', "I have absolutely nothing to do with you. I truly fear Allah—the Lord of all worlds." So they will both end up in the Fire, staying there forever. That is the reward of the wrongdoers.

(Surah al-Hashr: 11-17)

- a. When Jews heard of this, they became determined to fight and they sent a word to the Prophet ﷺ, "We will not leave our houses. Do whatever you want to do."
- b. When the Prophet ﷺ heard of this, he exclaimed, "Allahu Akbar! Allahu Akbar!" because he knew that the treaty has been broken by the Jews.
- c. The Prophet ﷺ left with companions and laid siege around the forts of Banu Nadeer who barricaded them inside the forts.
- d. The Jews waited for help from the hypocrites as per their promise, but they didn't come for their help.
- e. During the siege, the Muslims started burning down their trees (which were more precious to them than slaves as it was their source of income on which they heavily relied) to make them come out. Although, the Prophet ﷺ would not allow damage to the property during war but this was an exception granted to them by Allah which is referred to in Surah al-Hashr:

مَا قَطَعْتُمْ مِّن لِّبْنَةٍ أَوْ تَرَكْتُمُوهَا قَائِمَةً عَلَىٰ أُصُولِهَا فَبِإِذْنِ اللَّهِ وَلِيُخْزِيَ الْفَاسِقِينَ ه
"Whatever palm trees you 'believers' cut down or left standing intact, it was 'all' by Allah's Will, so that He might disgrace the rebellious."

(Surah al-Hashr: 5)

6. The Jews ultimately gave up and asked the Prophet ﷺ to allow them to leave. The Prophet ﷺ gave them 3 days to leave and to carry as many of their goods as they could on their camels without taking any of their weapons. They tried to take as much as they could, even the expensive doors of their fortresses, to which there's a reference in Surah al-Hashr as well. Most of them settled in Khayber while some went towards the direction of Syria.

هُوَ الَّذِي أَخْرَجَ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا مِنْ أَهْلِ الْكِتَابِ مِنْ دِيَارِهِمْ لِأَوَّلِ الْحَشْرِ مَا ظَنَنْتُمْ أَنْ يَخْرُجُوا وَظَنُّوا أَنَّهُمْ مَانِعَتُهُمْ حُصُونُهُمْ مِنَ اللَّهِ فَأَتَتْهُمْ اللَّهُ مِنْ حَيْثُ لَمْ يَحْتَسِبُوا وَقَدَفَ فِي قُلُوبِهِمُ الرُّعْبَ ۚ يُخْرِبُونَ بُيُوتَهُمْ بِأَيْدِيهِمْ وَأَيْدَى الْمُؤْمِنِينَ فَاعْتَبِرُوا يَا أُولِيَ الْأَبْصَارِ ۚ

"He is the One Who expelled the disbelievers of the People of the Book from their homes for 'their' first banishment 'ever'. You never thought they would go. And they thought their strongholds would put them out of Allah's reach. But 'the decree of' Allah came upon them from where they never expected. And He cast horror into their hearts so they destroyed their houses with their own hands and the hands of the believers. So take a lesson 'from this', O people of insight!" (Surah al-

Hashr: 4)

Lessons:

1. Allah protected the Prophet's ﷺ life until Allah's religion had not been perfected/all the laws had not been revealed.
2. A believer should not be stung by the same hole twice.
3. The Prophet ﷺ showed mercy even when Banu Nadeer deserved execution as they committed acts of terrorism against the state. He ﷺ still allowed them to take their belongings as much as they could.

The Battle of Trench/Ahzaab

1. It took place in the month of Shawwal in 5th AH.
2. The reason of this battle was that Banu Nadeer's dignitaries went to Quraish to incite them against the Prophet ﷺ and said that they would support them against the Muslims if they were to attack them. Abu Sufyan welcomed their idea and asked them, "O clan of Jew, you are the people of the first book, and you know what Muhammad (ﷺ) and we differ about; is our religion better or his?" The Jews, to please Abu Sufyan said, "Your religion is better than his and you are more worthy of the truth than he is." Allah referred to it in the Qur'an:

أَلَمْ تَرَ إِلَى الَّذِينَ أُوتُوا نَصِيبًا مِّنَ الْكِتَابِ يُؤْمِنُونَ بِالْجِبْتِ وَالطَّاغُوتِ وَيَقُولُونَ لِلَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا هَؤُلَاءِ أَهْدَىٰ مِنَ الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا سَبِيلًا ۝١

"Have you 'O Prophet' not seen those who were given a portion of the Scriptures yet believe in idols and false gods and reassure the disbelievers that they are better guided than the believers?" (Surah an-Nisa: 51)

3. The main groups who supported each other in this battle against the Muslims: Quraish, Ghatafan, Banu Asad (led by Tulaihah al-Asadi) and the Jews.
4. When Banu Khuza'a got to know about the departure of Quraish, they came to Madinah in four nights and informed the Prophet ﷺ about the departure of Quraish and the confederates.

Digging of Trench and the Events that took place during that time

1. Being short of time, the Prophet ﷺ had to think of a strategy as soon as possible. Salman al-Farisi, who recently earned his freedom from his master, suggested that they should dig a trench (a technique which the Persians would use). This was not something known to the Arabs.
 - a. So, the Prophet ﷺ assigned 40 yards to 10 men each.
 - b. The trench was dug at the north as Madinah was naturally covered with active volcanoes in the east and the west and by dense date palm trees and buildings from the south making it almost impossible for a large army to attack.
2. For the companions to dig the trench, they had to leave their houses and go towards the outskirts of city, camp there and dig the trench day and night. They had several challenges to face:

- a. Fear of the enemy approaching the city before the trench is dug.
 - b. It was severe cold, as it was winter at that time of the year.
 - c. Hunger, as they were on the outskirts of the city and because of winters, they were surviving on the stored food and obviously they couldn't trade because of the war situation.
 - d. They were camping and not in their homes as they had to be vigilant during the night hours as so the enemy may not attack during night time.
3. The Prophet ﷺ took with him some of his wives, including Ayesha, who camped with him.
4. The rest of the womenfolk and children of the Muslims were sent to the forts Muslims owned and Hasan bin Thabit was left with them.
5. The Prophet ﷺ himself took part in the digging of trench to motivate the companions. Al-Bara bin Azib said, "I saw the Messenger of Allah ﷺ carrying away the dirt of the trench so that his abdomen was covered in soil."
6. The digging of the trench took 6 days before the confederates could arrive at the walls of the city.
7. During the digging of the trench, Abu Talha al-Ansari said that we complained to the Prophet ﷺ of hunger, showing a stone, we had tied around our stomach, so he exposed his stomach showing the two stones he had tied because of the hunger.
8. When some of the companions saw this situation of the Prophet ﷺ they couldn't resist but to do something. Jabir bin Abdullah sought permission to go back to his home which the Prophet ﷺ granted. So Jabir went to his wife and said to her, "I saw the Prophet ﷺ in a situation that I cannot bear. So do you have anything (to eat)?". So she said that she had barley and a female goat which we slaughtered and then I went to the Prophet ﷺ and said to him, "O Messenger of Allah ﷺ, a small invitation to some food with me, so please rise with one or two men." He ﷺ asked, "How much food?" When I told him, he ﷺ responded, "Plenty of good food!" and he ﷺ then commanded a caller to announce, "O people of the trench! Verily Jabir has invited you to food, so hasten forth!". The Prophet ﷺ told Jabir not to remove the pot or the bread from the oven until he arrives. Jabir ran to his home and said to his wife, "Mercy on you! The Prophet ﷺ is coming with the Muhajiroon and the Ansar." She asked, "Did he ask you?" When Jabir responded in positive, she said, "Allah and His Messenger ﷺ know best as he has been informed of what we have." So when the companions came, the Prophet ﷺ would himself take bread and put meat on it and then cover the pot and he served all the people of trench and then the Prophet ﷺ and Jabir's family ate and Jabir said, "I swear by Allah! They ate until they left full and our pot was still bubbling as it had been, and our dough was still baking bread as it had been!"
9. While digging the trench, the companions came across a big boulder which they couldn't break. So they informed the Prophet ﷺ and he asked them to sprinkle water over it and wait for him.
 - a. So the Prophet ﷺ struck it once and the boulder broke a bit and the Prophet ﷺ said, "Allahu Akbar! I have been given the keys of Sham! By Allah, I see its red palaces from where I stand." Then he struck it for the second time and the boulder broke a bit more and he exclaimed, "Allahu Akbar! I have been given the keys of Persian, by Allah! I see Mada'in and I see its white palace from where I stand." And with the third blow, the boulder turned into pieces, and he said, "Allahu Akbar! I've been given the keys of Yemen. By Allah, I can see the doors of San'a' from where I stand."
 - b. Allah raised the hopes of the companions at this crucial point where they were struck with fear.

The Armies face each other

1. The army of Quraish and the confederates, summing up to ten thousand people, reached the outskirts of Madinah and were surprised to see the huge trench between them and the city.
2. At the opposite side of the trench was Muslim army comprising of three thousand men who would shoot arrows and throw spears at them to restrain them from crossing the trench.
3. So Quraish had no choice other than to lay siege, for which they weren't prepared and try to cross the trench as soon as possible before their supplies dwindle out.
4. It was a terrifying situation for the Muslim camp because the numbers of the confederates were huge (as compared to Uhud) and if they would manage to come inside, it would be a catastrophe.
 - a. Ayesha, may Allah be pleased with her, narrates the anxiety they were in. She said that the Prophet ﷺ would come to his camp and put his head in her lap to rest and then suddenly sit up to listen. One day he heard a man with armor. When asked, the man said, "I am Sa'd (bin Abi Waqqas). I have come to you so that you may command me." So the Messenger ﷺ commanded him to spend the night at that breach and Ayesha said, "So the Prophet ﷺ slept in my lap (a deep sleep) so that I heard him breathing heavily. I will never forget this (favor) of Sa'd bin Abi Waqqas."
5. Quraish and the confederate were desperate to break in, therefore, they sent Huyai bin Akhtab (the leader of Banu Nadeer) to Banu Quraizah (the only tribe within Madinah now) to ask them to break the treaty and attack the Muslims from outside so they could breach the trench and attack from the outside.
 - a. When Huyai approached the forts of Banu Quraizah, their leader, Ka'b bin Asad, refused to open the door and said to his people, "Do not associate yourselves with those people in any way, for we know not to whom victory will fall. And beware of Huyai, for he was the cause of the downfall of his people."
 - b. But Huyai persisted and Ka'b said to him, "Mercy on you, O Huyai! You are a person of bad omen, and I have a vow with Muhammad (ﷺ) which I will not break as I have seen nothing from him except loyalty and honesty."
 - c. Huyai responded, "By Allah! You have not closed your fort except for the fear that I will eat from your pot." When Ka'b heard this, he opened the door.
 - d. Huyai was adamant and he insisted that Ka'b break the treaty and attack from inside but Ka'b resisted. Then Huyai resorted to the condition that he would remain inside his fort (putting himself in danger) if he would break the treaty and attack from the inside. When this happened, Ka'b agreed, knowing how seriously committed Huyai was and they tore apart the document of treaty and they sent word to the confederates, "Stay steadfast, for we shall attack them from the rear and annihilate them."

Lessons:

1. The Prophet ﷺ welcomed new ideas. One should explore new ideas which help one in religion and the worldly matters.
2. The disbelievers unite against the Muslims whether they are loyal to each other or not.
3. When Muslims are united, the disbelievers don't stand a chance against us, even when we face defeat. So we should practice those things which help us bond with each other more, like spreading salam, helping each other, not having malice against each other etc.
4. A wife should be a constant support for her husband, comforting him during the challenges of life and vice versa.
5. A leader should lead from the front instead of just dictating at time in order to encourage his team.
6. A leader should take care of his team instead of being selfish.
7. The love which companions had for the Prophet ﷺ was unmatched. We should show our love to him by obeying him in every way possible, praying for him and sending salutations upon him.
8. Allah tests those whom he loves.
9. We should complete our oath with people, even with non-Muslims. Even if we commit with someone to meet at a certain time, we should be punctual.

Lec No-23: The Battle of Confederates (cont.) & The Battle of Banu Quraizah

The Betrayal of Banu Quraizah

1. The news through word of mouth reached the Prophet ﷺ and he said, “حسبنا الله ونعم الوكيل”.
 - a. The Prophet ﷺ would never react in haste. He asked the companions who would bring us the news of Banu Quraizah. Zubair ibn al-Awwam went forth and said that he would bring the news, so the Prophet ﷺ said, “For every Prophet, there is a disciple (a very loyal follower), and my disciple is Zubayr.” And the Prophet ﷺ also said to Zubayr, “May my father and mother be sacrificed for you.”
 - b. The Prophet ﷺ also sent Sa’d bin Muaz and Sa’d bin Ubadah as official delegates to Banu Quraizah to see if they are committed to the treaty or not and he ﷺ instructed them to announce if Banu Quraizah are loyal to them and if not, they should give him the information in a discrete manner.
 - c. When both the Sa’d’s reached Banu Quraizah, they found the situation to be even worse than they had imagined. Banu Quraizah started speaking ill of Allah’s Messenger ﷺ and said, “Who is the Messenger? There is no covenant between us, nor any agreement.” And there was a heated discussion between both parties and both of them left.
 - d. When Sa’d bin Muaz and Sa’d bin Ubadah reached the Prophet ﷺ, they said, “Udal and Qara” (which meant treachery).
 - e. The Prophet ﷺ remarked, “Allahu Akbar! Glad tidings, O Muslims!”
2. When the news spread in the ranks of the Muslims, they got terrified because they feared for their women and children as they were inside the city, which was now exposed to the Jews and they couldn’t leave the outskirts of the city or else the confederates would cross the trench. The hypocrites at this time panicked and they would say that we were promised Syria and Persia and here we cannot even go to the restroom because of the fear.

*“Remember` when they came at you from east and west,<sup>1</sup> when your eyes grew wild` in horror` and your hearts jumped into your throats, and you entertained` conflicting` thoughts about Allah. Then and there the believers were put to the test, and were violently shaken. And` remember` when the hypocrites and those with sickness in their hearts said, “Allah and His Messenger have promised us nothing but delusion!” And `remember` when a group of them said, “O people of Yathrib!¹ There is no point in you staying` here`, so retreat!” Another group of them asked the Prophet’s permission` to leave`, saying, “Our homes are vulnerable,” while` in fact` they were not vulnerable. They only wished to flee. Had their city been sacked from all sides and they had been asked to abandon faith, they would have done so with little hesitation. They had already pledged to Allah earlier never to turn their backs` in retreat`. And a pledge to Allah must be answered for. Say, `O Prophet`,` “Fleeing will not benefit you if you` try to` escape a natural or violent death. `If it is not your time`,` you will only be allowed enjoyment for a little while.” Ask` them, O Prophet`,` “Who can put you out of Allah’s reach if He intends to harm you or show you mercy?” They can never find any protector or helper besides Allah.
Allah knows well those among you who discourage` others from fighting`, saying `secretly` to their brothers, “Stay with us,” and who themselves hardly take part in fighting. `They are` totally unwilling to assist you. When danger comes, you see them staring at you with their eyes rolling like someone in the throes of death. But once the danger is over, they slash you with razor-sharp tongues, ravenous for` worldly` gains. Such people have not` truly` believed, so Allah has rendered their deeds void. And that is easy for Allah. They` still` think that the enemy alliance has not` yet` withdrawn. And if the allies were to come` again`, the hypocrites would wish to be away in the desert among nomadic Arabs,` only` asking for news about you` believers`. And if the hypocrites were in your midst, they would hardly take part in the fight.” (33:10-20)*

- a. The situation was getting worse. The Jews sent some of their spies at night to check if the fortresses where the Muslim women and children were guarded or not.
- b. Safiyyah bint-e-Abdul Muttalib saw them moving around the fortress, so she asked Hassan bin Thabit to go down and kill him so that the Jews would assume that the fort is guarded. But Hassan said, "May Allah forgive you, O daughter of Abdul Muttalib, by Allah, you know I am not the one for that and were I capable O would have been with the Prophet ﷺ."

- c. So Safiyyah herself went down during the dark and struck him either with a pole or a dagger and killed him and came back into the fort and said to Hassan, "O Hassan! Go down and take his weapons for nothing prevented me from that but that he is a man (I don't want to see him in a state where his awrah might be uncovered when taking off the armor)." When Hassan refused, she said, "Then (at least) take him by the head and cast him to them (so that they might know that the fort is guarded and they don't dare to attack them)." But Hassan refused and said, "By Allah, this is not in me (I cannot do it)." So Safiyyah chopped his head off and threw it towards the spies and the spies ran away saying, "Indeed we knew that Muhammad (ﷺ) would not leave his family unguarded without anyone to protect them."
3. In this dire situation, the Prophet ﷺ thought of sending Ghatafan an offer of one third of the fruits of Madinah if they would leave. But when Sa'd bin Muaz and Sa'd bin Ubadah were consulted, they asked the Prophet ﷺ if this was something ordained by Allah or something he was thinking about. The Prophet ﷺ said, "If I had been commanded, I would not have consulted you, rather this is my opinion that I present to you." Sa'd bin Muaz said to the Prophet ﷺ, "...By Allah! We are in no need of this. By Allah! We will give them nothing but the sword until Allah judges between us!" When the Prophet ﷺ heard of their dedication, he withdrew his idea.
4. During this time, some of the polytheists were able to cross the trench and some skirmishes took place.
 - a. From them was the duel between Amr bin Abd Wudd, who despite being an elderly man, was known for his amazing strength. When Amr crossed the trench with Ikrimah, he called for a duel. Ali stood up and said, "I will fight him, O Messenger of Allah ﷺ!" The Prophet ﷺ made him sit and said, "This is Amr bin Abd Wudd." This happened thrice and Ali said the third time, "And what if he is Amr?" So the Prophet ﷺ gave him permission and wrapped his head with a turban and prayed to Allah, "O Allah! Help him against Amr! O Allah! You took Ubaydah in Badr and Hamza in Uhud, and here is Ali, so do not leave me alone!" And so Ali went forth and introduced himself. When Amr got to know of Ali, he refused to fight and said, "Your father was a friend of mine and I don't want to kill you." Ali replied, "But I want to kill you." And so, both rushed towards each other, and Ali was able to kill him, and the Muslim camp roared with takbeer.
 - b. During these skirmishes, Sa'd bin Muaz was hit by a blunt arrow which hit him above his aorta and it bled severely. The Muslims tried to cauterize it, but it swelled and Sa'd made a dua asking Allah to make him live if there are more battles with the Quraish as they come to fight Allah and His Messenger and if not, bless him with martyrdom and let me witness the fate of Banu Quraizah. When Sa'd made this dua, his bleeding stopped.

- c. During this part of the battle, the intensity of shooting increased and the companions were not even able to move a bit and they weren't able to pray their Asr prayer. So the Prophet ﷺ prayed it after sunset and prayed against the polytheists.

Allah sent His Help

5. With this severe cold and severe fear of being attack from inside and outside, when the Muslims weren't able to see any light, Allah sent his help.
 - a. Nu'im bin Mas'ood, one of the leaders of Ghatafan, came to the Prophet ﷺ and secretly accepted Islam and offered his services. The Prophet ﷺ asked him if he can disunite the confederates so Nu'im sought permission to say something which he might not be able to say under normal circumstances (something that would generally come under defaming).
 - Nu'im went to Banu Quraizah and warned and said,
"Quraish and Ghatafan are not like you as you cannot leave it and Quraish and Ghatafan have come to fight Muhammad ﷺ and his companions and you have joined them and are helping them, but their land and property and women are elsewhere. They are not like you, if they have a chance they will take it and if other than that happens they will return to their land and leave you to this man in this country and you do not have the ability to fight them alone. Therefore, do not fight with them unless you take men from their nobility who would be more your assurance that they will fight Muhammad ﷺ with you until the end."
 - Nu'im then went to Abu Sufyan and said,
"Know that the Jews have regretted what they have done with that which was between them and Muhammad ﷺ, so they sent to him saying, 'We regret what we have done. Will it please you that we take seventy noble men of the two tribes, Quraish and Ghatafan and give them to you that you may slay them?....', so if the Jews send to you seeking a number of your men as assurance do not send one man of you to them and beware of them."
 - And then he went to Ghatafan and said the same thing.

- b. Allah willed that it was the eve of Sabith when Abu Sufyan and the leaders of Ghatafan sent Ikrimah with a group of delegates to Banu Quraizah and they asked them to fight tomorrow whatever the case is. To this Banu Quraizah responded, “Verily today is the Sabith and it is a day in which we do nothing. It happened that some of us broke the Sabith and they were turned into apes and swines, as you know.”

And they also demanded to hand over 70 of their men as security so that they are sure Quraish and Ghatafan won't betray them.

- So the Quraish and Ghatafan responded to them by saying, “By Allah! We will not send you a single man of our men so if you want to fight, come out and fight.”
 - Banu Quraizah refused to attack on Saturday without assurance.
 - Abu Sufyan responded, “Verily I don't understand how we had sought help from the brothers of apes and swines!”
 - And so the seeds of discord were sown between the Jews and the confederates.
- c. So that night Allah sent angels who came with the wind that turned the pots of confederates upside down, put out their fires, ripped their tents, and sand was poured into their eyes. That acted as a final nail in the coffin, and they were totally demoralized.

يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا اذْكُرُوا نِعْمَةَ اللَّهِ عَلَيْكُمْ إِذْ جَاءَتْكُمْ جُنُودٌ فَأَرْسَلْنَا عَلَيْهِمْ رِيحًا وَجُنُودًا لَّمْ تَرَوْهَا ۚ وَكَانَ اللَّهُ بِمَا تَعْمَلُونَ بَصِيرًا

“O believers! Remember Allah's favour upon you when 'enemy' forces came to 'besiege' you 'in Medina', so We sent against them a 'bitter' wind and forces you could not see. And Allah is All-Seeing of what you do.” (33:9)

The Confederates lost it!

1. On the other side however the Prophet ﷺ and Muslim weren't aware of what had been happening. So the Prophet ﷺ in that extremely cold night, where the companions were extremely tired with the siege and were suffering from cold and hunger, asked the companions,

“Who will rise and find out what the people have done and return and I will ask Allah that he will be my companion in Jannah?”

- a. Not a single companion came forward because of the context. Then when the Prophet ﷺ asked three times and none responded, he called Hudayfah ibn al-Yaman.

- b. Hudayfah said, "I found not an excuse when he called me by name but to rise. So I came to him and he ﷺ said, 'Did you hear my voice all night and my request to the men to send them that they may bring me information of the people?' I said, 'By the One Who sent you with the truth, it rang in my ears.' He ﷺ asked, "What prevented you from rising when you heard my words?' I said, "Hardship and hunger.' The Prophet ﷺ said, 'Go for, ibn al-Yaman, and no harm will come to you of heat or cold until you return to me.'

- c. It has been narrated by Ibrahim al-Taimi on the authority of his father who said:

We were sitting in the company of Hudhaifa. A man said: If I were in the time of the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ), I would have fought by his side and would have striven hard for his causes. Hudhaifa said: You might have done that, (but you should not make a flourish of your enthusiasm). I was with the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) on the night of the Battle of Abzib and we were gripped by a violent wind and severe cold. The Messenger of Allah (may peace be him) said: Hark, the man who (goes reconnoitring and) brings me the news of the enemy shall be ranked with me on the Day of Judgment by Allah (the Glorious and Exalted). We all kept quiet and none of us responded to him. (Again) he said: Hark, a man who (goes reconnoitring and) brings me the news of the enemy shall be ranked with me on the Day of Judgment by Allah (the Glorious and Exalted). We kept quiet and none of us responded to him. He again said: Hark, a man who (goes reconnoitring and) brings me the news of the enemy shall be ranked with me on the Day of Judgment by Allah (the Glorious and Exalted) Then he said: Get up Hudhaifa, bring me the news of the enemy. When he called me by name I had no alternative but to get up. He said: Go and bring me information about the enemy, and do nothing that may provoke them against me. When I left him, I felt warm as if I were walking in a heated bath untill I reached them. I saw Abu Sufyan warming his back against fire I put an arrow in the middle of the bow. intending to shoot at him, when I recalled the words of the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ)" Do not provoke them against me." Had I shot at him, I would have hit him. But I returned and (felt warm as if) I were walking in a heated bath (hammam). Presenting myself before him, I gave him information about the enemy. When I had done so, I began to feel cold, so the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) wrapped me in a blanket that he had in excess to his own requirement and with which he used to cover himself while saying his prayers. So I continued to sleep until it was morning. When it was morning he said: Get up, O heavy sleeper.

(Muslim: 1788)

The Ghazwah of Banu Quraizah

1. The Prophet ﷺ and the companions had hardly reached their homes when Jibreel came to the Prophet ﷺ and said,
"May Allah forgive you, we have not put down our arms since the enemy arrived. Allah orders you to march to Banu Quraizah and I am going with the angels who are with me in order to shake their forts; therefore depart with the people."
2. The Prophet ﷺ ordered, "Whoever hears this and is obedient let him not pray Asr but at Banu Quraizah."
3. The raya was given to Ali bin Abi Talib and they laid siege. There were 3000 companions with sixty horsemen. When Ali reached there, he heard Jews saying vulgar things regarding the Prophet ﷺ so Ali, after laying siege, went back to the Prophet ﷺ and said to him, "Why not stay away from these crude ones?" The Prophet ﷺ understood what Jews were doing so he said to Ali, "Go forth, for were the enemies of Allah to see me they would say nothing of that."
4. Ka'b bin Asad gave three options to the Jews:
 - a. Follow the Prophet ﷺ as they all knew that he was the true Prophet of Allah.
 - b. Let us slay our women and children and fight them without any fear of enslavement of our families.
 - c. Tonight is Saturday night, so let's surprise attack them.

When all of these options were rejected by the Jews, he responded, "Never was a man amongst you decisive since his mother gave birth to him for a single night!"

5. The siege lasted for 15 days and then the Jews sent an offer to the Prophet ﷺ that they would accept what he gave to Banu Nadeer. The Prophet ﷺ rejected their offer. Then they sent word to just leave them without carrying anything from their property which the Prophet ﷺ also rejected. Then they asked the Prophet ﷺ to send Abu Lubabah ibn al-Mundhir (a companion from the tribe of Aws. Aws were the allies of Banu Quraizah in the days of Jahiliyyah).
 - a. When Abu Lubabah went to their fort, he was surrounded by their women and children as they pleaded him for mercy.
 - b. When Abu Lubabah was asked about what would be their fate, he motion with his hand upon his neck, indicating execution. Abu Lubabah said,
"By Allah, my feet had not moved from their place when I realized that I had betrayed Allah and his Messenger ﷺ, so I said, 'By Allah, I will not look at the face of the Messenger ﷺ until I repent to Allah.'"
 - c. So Abu Lubabah went straight out of the fort to Masjid an-Nabawi and tied himself to a pillar until Allah accepts his repentance.
 - d. Allah revealed the acceptance of his repentance 6 days after this incident. That pillar, to this day, is known and called as "The Pillar of Repentance".

6. Allah's Messenger ﷺ ordered to tie the people of Banu Quraizah. When the people of Aws saw this, they were taken by this and asked the Prophet ﷺ to treat them like the Prophet ﷺ treated Banu Nadeer and Banu Qainuqah (who were the allies of Khazraj). So the Prophet ﷺ asked them if they would be happy if one of them takes the decision. They accepted the proposal and Sa'd bin Mua'dh, their leader, was appointed to take the decision and brought from the tent which was built for him in the Masjid to care of him.
- Sa'd came to the scene saying, "The time has come for Sa'd to not fear in the way of Allah of anyone's reproach." When people heard him saying this, they understood what would be his decision.
 - The Prophet ﷺ ordered the people to stand up and come to greet and welcome their leader, saying, "Rise to your leader and help him down."
 - Sa'd then said to his people, "Will you give me your word by Allah that the verdict will be as I rule?" His people agreed. Then Sa'd asked the Prophet ﷺ with humility, "And you, O Messenger of Allah ﷺ?" The Prophet ﷺ also agreed. Then Sa'd said, "Then I rule that their men be slain and their money be divided and their women and children be taken captives." This decision of Sa'd was consistent with the laws of Jews in the Torah, where it says,

"12 If they refuse to make peace and they engage you in battle, lay siege to that city. 13 When the Lord your God delivers it into your hand, put to the sword all the men in it. 14 As for the women, the children, the livestock and everything else in the city, you may take these as plunder for yourselves. And you may use the plunder the Lord your God gives you from your enemies." (Deutonomy 20:12-14)

- d. So all the men were killed. They numbered somewhere between 700-1000 and women and children taken captives. Only one woman was killed because she killed a companion during the siege by throwing a grinding stone on him.
 - e. Two Jews, Tha'labah and Usayd, accepted Islam during the siege and they were spared.
 - f. One Jew, 'Amr bin Su'da, left the fort one night and Muhammad Bin Maslamah (who was put in charge of this matter by the Prophet ﷺ) allowed him to escape because he was the only one who chastised the Jews for betraying the treaty and he separated himself from them.
 - g. The money gathered from this battle was distributed according to the Ghaneemah in wars.
7. Many Islamophobes criticize the killing of Banu Quraizah, claiming that this was a massacre or semitism. They run from the reality and play blame games. There are two main issues which are raised:
- a. The killing of Banu Quraizah was not justified. It was justified because of the following reasons:
 - They committed treason by going against the very treaty they signed and agreed to abide by.
 - They committed act of terrorism by helping the enemies against the state.
 - Their execution was because of their crime, not because of their ethnicity. In other words, they were treated like this not because of who they were but what they did.
 - Their punishment was totally in line with the teachings of Torah.
 - Their punishment was based on the verdict of the leader of their own allies in the days of Jahiliyyah, not the Prophet ﷺ.
 - Their crime was so heinous that it could've destroyed the whole state including men, women and children.
 - If they were to commit such a crime against the Muslims living in that place, under a legal treaty, what they would've done if they would've gone out openly against the Muslims. What Banu Nadeer did in this battle is just a little example of that.
 - In any state today, the harshest of the punishment is for the traitors and those who commit acts of terrorism. Below is a chart just to show how the United States responds to treachery, treason and terrorism:

Summary Table: U.S. Legal Response to Internal Collaboration with the Enemy During Wartime

Action	Relevant U.S. Law	Penalty
1. Treason	U.S. Constitution (Art. III, Sec. 3) + 18 U.S. Code § 2381	Death or minimum 5 years imprisonment + fine

Action	Relevant U.S. Law	Penalty
2. Sedition	18 U.S. Code § 2384	Up to 20 years imprisonment
3. Providing aid to enemy/terrorists	18 U.S. Code § 2339A/B	Up to life imprisonment
4. Espionage (military/intel secrets)	Espionage Act (18 U.S. Code § 793–798)	Up to life imprisonment or death
5. Military aid to the enemy (during wartime)	Law of War + Military Commissions Act	Indefinite detention, trial, life or death

- b. All of their men shouldn't have been killed.
- All grown up men were considered to be a part of the army in that time. There was no dedicated army. So all those who were killed were fighting/combating individuals, not civilians.
 - Ka'b bin Asad, their leader, gave them ALL options but ALL of them didn't accept it except for three people. This indicates an important point that all of them were a part of this treachery otherwise they would've accused their leader of making them face such a situation and would've accepted one of the conditions to get freedom. Of the three people who were spared, one was Amr bin Su'da who left the fort and was allowed to leave by Muhammad bin Masalamah as he didn't support Jews in their betrayal. The other two were Tha'labah and Usayd who accepted Islam and thus were left. This shows a very important point that not ALL of them were killed. Only those were killed who were persistent in their treachery and either didn't oppose the treachery and terrorism or they didn't repent by accept Islam (in which case your blood, money and honor is protected and previous sins forgiven).

Lessons:

1. Allah tests those whom He loves, as it proven by authentic narrations. The hardest tests are for the Prophets, then the next righteous and then the next and so on.
2. Whoever fears Allah, Allah makes out a way for him, like he helped the Prophet ﷺ and the companions in a situation where they were out of options.
3. A believer is always optimistic regarding Allah in every situation like the companions in this situation were optimistic.
4. A believer is required to take whatever steps (valid/genuine/not against shareeah) he can take and then put trust in Allah. This lesson is repeated throughout the Seerah in every battle of the Prophet ﷺ.
5. The companions were worried about their Salah even in war situation when they were fighting with the Messenger of Allah ﷺ & for the religion of Allah, not for any personal gains. They could've easily made an excuse for not worrying for the Salah by saying that they are fighting in the cause of Allah but they didn't. Yet we take the matter of Salah very lightly and neglect it!

6. A believer should be like Hudaifah; whenever Allah and His Messenger ﷺ order them to do anything, they do it without giving any excuse!
7. Jews are a nation of treachery with an exception of only a few people within them.
8. A believer considers his mistakes to be a mountain like Abu Lubabah and hastes to repent.

Lec- 24- Marriage with Zainab Bint-e-Jahsh- Battle of Muraisi- Incident of Slander

Marriage with Zainab Bint-e-Jahsh

1. The marriage took place in the 5th Year AH after her former husband Zaid ibn al-Harithah divorced her and she completed her iddah.
2. Before the Prophet's ﷺ marriage with Zainab, she was married to Zaid for about a year. The details of which are as follows:
 - a. Up till this time in the life of the Prophet ﷺ, Zaid was known as Zaid bin Muhammad (ﷺ) as he was adopted by the Prophet ﷺ. Ibn Umar said, "We used to call him Zaid bin Muhammad ﷺ until Allah revealed:

أَدْعُوهُمْ لِأَبَائِهِمْ هُوَ أَقْسَطُ عِنْدَ اللَّهِ ۚ فَإِنْ لَمْ تَعْلَمُوا آبَاءَهُمْ فَإِخْوَانُكُمْ فِي الدِّينِ
وَمَوَالِيكُمْ ۚ وَلَيْسَ عَلَيْكُمْ جُنَاحٌ فِيمَا أَخْطَأْتُمْ بِهِ ۚ وَلَكِنْ مَّا تَعَمَّدَتْ قُلُوبُكُمْ ۚ وَكَانَ اللَّهُ
عَفُورًا رَحِيمًا ٥

"Let your adopted children keep their family names. That is more just in the sight of Allah. But if you do not know their fathers, then they are 'simply' your fellow believers and close associates. There is no blame on you for what you do by mistake, but 'only' for what you do intentionally. And Allah is All-Forgiving, Most Merciful." (33:5)

- b. The Prophet ﷺ asked for Zainab's hand for Zaid to which she refused as she was a Qurashi and she didn't consider Zaid suitable for her as he was a freed slave. However, according to some scholars, Allah revealed:

وَمَا كَانَ لِمُؤْمِنٍ وَلَا مُؤْمِنَةٍ إِذَا قَضَىٰ اللَّهُ وَرَسُولُهُ أَمْرًا أَنْ يَكُونَ لَهُمُ الْخِيَرَةُ مِنْ أَمْرِهِمْ ۗ
وَمَنْ يَعْصِ اللَّهَ وَرَسُولَهُ فَقَدْ ضَلَّ ضَلَالًا مُّبِينًا ٣٦

"It is not for a believing man or woman—when Allah and His Messenger decree a matter—to have any other choice in that matter. Indeed, whoever disobeys Allah and His Messenger has clearly gone 'far' astray."

So she agreed. This was Allah's will that she would marry Zaid and the marriage would end up in a divorce for a greater purpose.

- c. Zaid and Zainab didn't get along well and Zaid decided to divorce her. The Prophet ﷺ would ask Zaid to fear Allah and not divorce her. But ultimately Zaid divorced her. Regarding this Allah revealed:

وَإِذْ تَقُولُ لِلَّذِي أَنْعَمَ اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَأَنْعَمْتَ عَلَيْهِ أَمْسِكْ عَلَيْكَ زَوْجَكَ وَاتَّقِ اللَّهَ وَتُخْفِي فِي
نَفْسِكَ مَا اللَّهُ مُبْدِيهِ وَتَخْشَى النَّاسَ وَاللَّهُ أَحَقُّ أَنْ تَخْشَاهُ ۚ فَلَمَّا قَضَىٰ زَيْدٌ مِنْهَا وَطَرًا
زَوَّجْنَاكَهَا لِكَيْ لَا يَكُونَ عَلَى الْمُؤْمِنِينَ حَرَجٌ فِي أَرْوَاجِ أَدْعِيَائِهِمْ إِذَا قَضَوْا مِنْهُنَّ وَطَرًا ۚ وَكَانَ
أَمْرُ اللَّهِ مَفْعُولًا ٣٧

"And 'remember, O Prophet, 'when you said to the one for whom Allah has done a favour and you 'too' have done a favour, 'Keep your wife and fear Allah,' while concealing within yourself what Allah was going to reveal. And 'so' you were considering the people, whereas Allah was more worthy of your consideration. So when Zaid totally lost interest in 'keeping' his wife, We gave her to you in marriage, so that there would be no blame on the believers for marrying the ex-wives of their adopted sons after their divorce. And Allah's command is totally binding." (33:37)

- d. The Arabs used to consider their adopted sons as real sons and the Islamic law had prohibited marrying the wives of their sons (after they divorce them or they pass away). So, according to some scholars, the Prophet ﷺ was informed that he would marry Zainab as per the order of Allah. This was not an easy task for the Prophet ﷺ as he knew that people would accuse him of marrying his own son's (adopted) wife. So Allah revealed the following verse to clarify that adopted sons remain adopted and they don't become the real sons and their wives, after they have been separated from their adopted sons, could be married and there's nothing wrong with it:

أَدْعُوهُمْ لِكَأَبَائِهِمْ هُوَ أَقْسَطُ عِنْدَ اللَّهِ ۚ فَإِنْ لَمْ تَعْلَمُوا آبَاءَهُمْ فَإِخْوَانُكُمْ فِي الدِّينِ وَمَوَالِيكُمْ ۚ وَلَيْسَ عَلَيْكُمْ جُنَاحٌ فِيمَا أَخْطَأْتُمْ بِهِ ۚ وَلَكِنْ مَّا تَعَمَّدَتْ قُلُوبُكُمْ ۚ وَكَانَ اللَّهُ غَفُورًا رَحِيمًا ه

"Let your adopted children keep their family names. That is more just in the sight of Allah. But if you do not know their fathers, then they are 'simply' your fellow believers and close associates. There is no blame on you for what you do by mistake, but 'only' for what you do intentionally. And Allah is All-Forgiving, Most Merciful." (33:5)

3. There was no marriage contract done as the verses of Qur'an stated that she has been married off to the Prophet ﷺ and the Prophet ﷺ entered upon her after the verses were revealed.

فَلَمَّا قَضَىٰ زَيْدٌ مِنْهَا وَطَرًا زَوَّجْنَاهَا

So when Zaid totally lost interest in 'keeping' his wife, We gave her to you in marriage (33:37)

4. Zainab would boast (not arrogance but sharing the honor she had received) in front of other cowives regarding her nikah. Also, the verses of hijab were revealed on the day of her wedding with the Prophet ﷺ.

Narrated by Anas bin Malik:

The Verse of Al-Hijab (veiling of women) was revealed in connection with Zainab bint Jahsh. (On the day of her marriage with him) the Prophet (ﷺ) gave a wedding banquet with bread and meat; and she used to boast before other wives of the Prophet (ﷺ) and used to say, "Allah married me (to the Prophet (ﷺ) in the Heavens." (Bukhari:7421)

5. She was the first of the wives of the Prophet ﷺ to pass away after Prophet's ﷺ death.

The Battle of Muraishi/Banu Mustalaq

1. There are different narratives as to when this battle took place. There are broadly three opinions:
 - a. Sha'ban 6AH.
 - b. Sha'ban 5AH.
 - c. 4AH.
2. The Prophet ﷺ got to know that the people of Banu Mustalaq were preparing to launch an offensive of Madinah so after sending spies for confirmation, the Prophet ﷺ left Madinah with around 700 fighters to Muraishi which was only about 200km from Madinah.
3. As the place was not too far from Madinah, and the hypocrites wanted to regain their lost status in order to save their honor and it was expected that the enemy would surrender because of a surprise attack and the Muslims would gain much of wealth, therefore, a large number of hypocrites accompanied the Muslim army this time.
4. When the Muslims reached Muraishi, the people of Banu Mustalaq had no clue what to do, so the whole tribe surrendered after a minimal fight which resulted in the death of 10 of their men. All of them were taken captives including their women and children. Their wealth was distributed according to the distribution of Ghaneemah.
5. The Muslims after overpowering Banu Mustalaq, left Muraishi and some important events took place on their way back to Madinah:
 - a. Two companions, one from the Ansaar and the other from the Muhajiroon, went to a well to take out water and a dispute broke between them. The dispute aggravated so much so that the Ansari companion called the Ansaar and the Muhajir companion called the Muhajiroon. It was close that both parties would've started a fight.
 - b. The Prophet ﷺ was informed of this, he arrived at the situation and said, "What type of call of the time of Ignorance is this?" Those companions who were involved, came back to their senses and forgave each other and settled the matter in a brotherly manner, recognizing that this was incited by the devil.
 - c. When this all reached Abdullah bin Ubai, the head of the hypocrites, he said,

"By Allah! I've not seen such a humiliation ever in my life! By Allah! I didn't like this all from the very beginning but my people overpowered me. See, how these Muhajiroon maltreated you? They overpowered us in our own city and their population has exceeded our population. They forgot our favor upon them. By Allah! The example of these destitutes of Quraish is like 'You feed your own dog to bite you'. By Allah! I should have died before this incident! By Allah! When we return to Madinah, the honorable people (we) will expel the humiliated people (them)."

- d. A companion, Zaid bin Arqam, was sitting in this gathering of Abdullah bin Ubai. He was a relatively younger companion. He went to Sa'd bin Ubadah, the chief of the tribe of Khazraj, and informed him regarding the whole incident. Sa'd informed the Prophet ﷺ of this incident. The Prophet ﷺ called Zaid and asked him if he was not mistaken in what he heard or maybe he said these things in anger, but Zaid rejected and said that he had heard this all very clearly and didn't say anything in anger.

- e. When Umar ibn al-Khattab heard this all, he was enraged and asked the Prophet ﷺ if he could kill Abdullah bin Ubai. The Prophet ﷺ said, "Leave him for the people will say that Muhammad ﷺ kills his own companions." The Prophet ﷺ then asked the caller to convey to the army to depart. It was noon time when the Prophet ﷺ would never travel in normal circumstances. The Prophet ﷺ did this so that the people wouldn't talk much about what happened and so that it wouldn't cause a fitnah.
- f. Meanwhile, the Prophet ﷺ called Abdullah bin Ubai and asked him if he had said what Zaid informed him. Abdullah bin Ubai blatantly refused and started swearing that he hadn't said anything of such a nature.
- g. Zaid was taken by the fact that the Prophet ﷺ didn't believe in him and he was really upset by this.
- h. They travelled the whole day and whole night and even the next day when sun was extremely hot, the Prophet ﷺ stopped the army and rested.
- i. The people were so tired that all fell asleep and no one was able to discuss the matters that took place before.
- j. During this time, Allah exposed the hypocrites and revealed to the Prophet ﷺ that the hypocrites were lying and what Zaid had told him was true. The Prophet ﷺ called Zaid and held his ear and said, "O Boy! Your ear was honest. Allah has approved what you said."
- k. Allah revealed Surah al-Munafiqoon in this context.
- l. The son of Abdullah bin Ubai, Abdullah bin Abdullah bin Ubai was a sincere companion. When he got to know what his father did, he went to the Prophet ﷺ to seek his permission to kill his father but the Prophet ﷺ said, "O Abdullah! Neither did I intend to kill him nor did I order it. As long as he is with us, we will treat him well."
 - i. Abdullah was furious. When the army was near Madinah, in the valley of Aqeeq, he took out his sword and started searching for the ride of his father. As soon as he got to his ride, he stood in front of his camel, holding his sword and said, "By Allah! You will not leave until you accept that you're humiliated and Allah's Messenger ﷺ is the one with honor and dignity."
 - ii. He was so badly ridiculed that he started confessing in front of his son, "I am the one humiliated."
 - iii. When the Prophet ﷺ saw this, he ordered Abdullah to leave his father and so Abdullah left.

Lec- 25&26: The incident of Ifk – The Treaty of Hudaibiyyah

The Incident of Ifk

Narrated `Aisha:

Whenever Allah's Messenger (ﷺ) intended to go on a journey, he used to draw lots amongst his wives, and Allah's Messenger (ﷺ) used to take with him the one on whom lot fell. He drew lots amongst us during one of the Ghazwat which he fought. The lot fell on me and so I proceeded with Allah's Messenger (ﷺ) after Allah's order of veiling (the women) had been revealed. I was carried (on the back of a camel) in my howdah and carried down while still in it (when we came to a halt). So we went on till Allah's Messenger (ﷺ) had finished from that Ghazwa of his and returned. When we approached the city of Medina he announced at night that it was time for departure. So when they announced the news of departure, I got up and went away from the army camps, and after finishing from the call of nature, I came back to my riding animal. I touched my chest to find that my necklace which was made of Zifar beads (i.e. Yemenite beads partly black and partly white) was missing. So I returned to look for my necklace and my search for it detained me. (In the meanwhile) the people who used to carry me on my camel, came and took my howdah and put it on the back of my camel on which I used to ride, as they considered that I was in it. In those days women were light in weight for they did not get fat, and flesh did not cover their bodies in abundance as they used to eat only a little food. Those people therefore, disregarded the lightness of the howdah while lifting and carrying it; and at that time I was still a young girl. They made the camel rise and all of them left (along with it). I found my necklace after the army had gone. Then I came to their camping place to find no call maker of them, nor one who would respond to the call. So I intended to go to the place where I used to stay, thinking that they would miss me and come back to me (in my search). While I was sitting in my resting place, I was overwhelmed by sleep and slept. Safwan bin Al-Muattal As-Sulami Adh-Dhakwani was behind the army. When he reached my place in the morning, he saw the figure of a sleeping person and he recognized me on seeing me as he had seen me before the order of compulsory veiling (was prescribed). So I woke up when he recited Istirja' (i.e. "Inna li l-lahi wa inna ilaihi raji'un") as soon as he recognized me. I veiled my face with my head cover at once, and by Allah, we did not speak a single word, and I did not hear him saying any word besides his Istirja'. He dismounted from his camel and made it kneel down, putting his leg on its front legs and then I got up and rode on it. Then he set out leading the camel that was carrying me till we overtook the army in the extreme heat of midday while they were at a halt (taking a rest). (Because of the event) some people brought destruction upon themselves and the one who spread the Ifk (i.e. slander) more, was `Abdullah bin Ubai Ibn Salul. (Urwa said, "The people propagated the slander and talked about it in his (i.e. `Abdullah's) presence and he confirmed it and listened to it and asked about it to let it prevail." `Urwa also added, "None was mentioned as members of the slanderous group besides (`Abdullah) except Hassan bin Thabit and Mistah bin Uthatha and Hamna bint Jahsh along with others about whom I have no knowledge, but they were a group as Allah said. It is said that the one who carried most of the slander was `Abdullah bin Ubai bin Salul." `Urwa added, "Aisha disliked to have Hassan abused in her presence and she used to say, 'It was he who said: My father and his (i.e. my father's) father and my honor are all for the protection of

Muhammad's honor from you.". `Aisha added, "After we returned to Medina, I became ill for a month. The people were propagating the forged statements of the slanderers while I was unaware of anything of all that, but I felt that in my present ailment, I was not receiving the same kindness from Allah's Messenger (ﷺ) as I used to receive when I got sick. (But now) Allah's Messenger (ﷺ) would only come, greet me and say, 'How is that (lady)?' and leave. That roused my doubts, but I did not discover the evil (i.e. slander) till I went out after my convalescence, I went out with Um Mistah to Al-Manasi where we used to answer the call of nature and we used not to go out (to answer the call of nature) except at night, and that was before we had latrines near our houses. And this habit of our concerning evacuating the bowels, was similar to the habits of the old 'Arabs living in the deserts, for it would be troublesome for us to take latrines near our houses. So I and Um Mistah who was the daughter of Abu Ruhm bin Al-Muttalib bin `Abd Manaf, whose mother was the daughter of Sakhr bin 'Amir and the aunt of Abu Bakr As-Siddiq and whose son was Mistah bin Uthatha bin `Abbas bin Al-Muttalib, went out. I and Um Mistah returned to my house after we finished answering the call of nature. Um Mistah stumbled by getting her foot entangled in her covering sheet and on that she said, 'Let Mistah be ruined!' I said, 'What a hard word you have said. Do you abuse a man who took part in the battle of Badr?' On that she said, 'O you Hantah! Didn't you hear what he (i.e. Mistah) said?' I said, 'What did he say?' Then she told me the slander of the people of Ifk. So my ailment was aggravated, and when I reached my home, Allah's Messenger (ﷺ) came to me, and after greeting me, said, 'How is that (lady)?' I said, 'Will you allow me to go to my parents?' as I wanted to be sure about the news through them. Allah's Apostle allowed me (and I went to my parents) and asked my mother, 'O mother! What are the people talking about?' She said, 'O my daughter! Don't worry, for scarcely is there a charming woman who is loved by her husband and whose husband has other wives besides herself that they (i.e. women) would find faults with her.' I said, 'Subhan-Allah! (I testify the uniqueness of Allah). Are the people really talking in this way?' I kept on weeping that night till dawn I could neither stop weeping nor sleep then in the morning again, I kept on weeping. When the Divine Inspiration was delayed. Allah's Messenger (ﷺ) called `Ali bin Abi Talib and Usama bin Zaid to ask and consult them about divorcing me. Usama bin Zaid said what he knew of my innocence, and the respect he preserved in himself for me. Usama said, 'O Allah's Messenger (ﷺ)! She is your wife and we do not know anything except good about her.' `Ali bin Abi Talib said, 'O Allah's Messenger (ﷺ)! Allah does not put you in difficulty and there are plenty of women other than she, yet, ask the maid-servant who will tell you the truth.' On that Allah's Messenger (ﷺ) called Barira (i.e. the maid-servant) and said, 'O Barira! Did you ever see anything which aroused your suspicion?' Barira said to him, 'By Him Who has sent you with the Truth. I have never seen anything in her (i.e. Aisha) which I would conceal, except that she is a young girl who sleeps leaving the dough of her family exposed so that the domestic goats come and eat it.' So, on that day, Allah's Messenger (ﷺ) got up on the pulpit and complained about `Abdullah bin Ubai (bin Salul) before his companions, saying, 'O you Muslims! Who will relieve me from that man who has hurt me with his evil statement about my family? By Allah, I know nothing except good about my family and they have blamed a man about whom I know nothing except good and he used never to enter my home except with me.' Sa'd bin Mu'adh the brother of Banu `Abd Al-Ashhal got up and said, 'O Allah's Messenger (ﷺ)! I will relieve you from him; if he is from the tribe of Al-Aus, then I will chop his head off, and if he is from our brothers, i.e. Al-Khazraj, then order us, and we will fulfill your order.' On that, a man from Al-Khazraj got up. Um Hassan, his cousin, was from his branch tribe, and he was Sa'd bin Ubada, chief of

Al-Khazraj. Before this incident, he was a pious man, but his love for his tribe goaded him into saying to Sa'd (bin Mu'adh). 'By Allah, you have told a lie; you shall not and cannot kill him. If he belonged to your people, you would not wish him to be killed.' On that, Usaid bin Hudair who was the cousin of Sa'd (bin Mu'adh) got up and said to Sa'd bin 'Ubada, 'By Allah! You are a liar! We will surely kill him, and you are a hypocrite arguing on the behalf of hypocrites.' On this, the two tribes of Al-Aus and Al Khazraj got so much excited that they were about to fight while Allah's Messenger (ﷺ) was standing on the pulpit. Allah's Messenger (ﷺ) kept on quietening them till they became silent and so did he. All that day I kept on weeping with my tears never ceasing, and I could never sleep. In the morning my parents were with me and I wept for two nights and a day with my tears never ceasing and I could never sleep till I thought that my liver would burst from weeping. So, while my parents were sitting with me and I was weeping, an Ansari woman asked me to grant her admittance. I allowed her to come in, and when she came in, she sat down and started weeping with me. While we were in this state, Allah's Messenger (ﷺ) came, greeted us and sat down. He had never sat with me since that day of the slander. A month had elapsed and no Divine Inspiration came to him about my case. Allah's Apostle then recited Tashah-hud and then said, 'Amma Badu, O `Aisha! I have been informed so-and-so about you; if you are innocent, then soon Allah will reveal your innocence, and if you have committed a sin, then repent to Allah and ask Him for forgiveness for when a slave confesses his sins and asks Allah for forgiveness, Allah accepts his repentance.' (continued...) (continuing... 1): -5.462:... ... When Allah's Messenger (ﷺ) finished his speech, my tears ceased flowing completely that I no longer felt a single drop of tear flowing. I said to my father, 'Reply to Allah's Messenger (ﷺ) on my behalf concerning what he has said.' My father said, 'By Allah, I do not know what to say to Allah's Messenger (ﷺ).' Then I said to my mother, 'Reply to Allah's Messenger (ﷺ) on my behalf concerning what he has said.' She said, 'By Allah, I do not know what to say to Allah's Messenger (ﷺ).' In spite of the fact that I was a young girl and had a little knowledge of Qur'an, I said, 'By Allah, no doubt I know that you heard this (slandering) speech so that it has been planted in your hearts (i.e. minds) and you have taken it as a truth. Now if I tell you that I am innocent, you will not believe me, and if confess to you about it, and Allah knows that I am innocent, you will surely believe me. By Allah, I find no similitude for me and you except that of Joseph's father when he said, '(For me) patience in the most fitting against that which you assert; it is Allah (Alone) Whose Help can be sought.' Then I turned to the other side and lay on my bed; and Allah knew then that I was innocent and hoped that Allah would reveal my innocence. But, by Allah, I never thought that Allah would reveal about my case, Divine Inspiration, that would be recited (forever) as I considered myself too unworthy to be talked of by Allah with something of my concern, but I hoped that Allah's Messenger (ﷺ) might have a dream in which Allah would prove my innocence. But, by Allah, before Allah's Messenger (ﷺ) left his seat and before any of the household left, the Divine inspiration came to Allah's Messenger (ﷺ). So there overtook him the same hard condition which used to overtake him, (when he used to be inspired Divinely). The sweat was dropping from his body like pearls though it was a wintry day and that was because of the weighty statement which was being revealed to him. When that state of Allah's Messenger (ﷺ) was over, he got up smiling, and the first word he said was, 'O `Aisha! Allah has declared your innocence!' Then my Mother said to me, 'Get up and go to him (i.e. Allah's Messenger (ﷺ)).' I replied, 'By Allah, I will not go to him, and I praise none but Allah. So Allah revealed the ten Verses:- - "Verily! They who spread the slander Are a gang, among you....." (24.11-20) Allah revealed those Qur'anic Verses to declare my innocence. Abu Bakr As-Siddiq who used to disburse money for Mistah bin Uthatha because of his relationship to him and his poverty, said, 'By Allah, I will never give to Mistah bin Uthatha anything after what he has said about Aisha.' Then Allah revealed:-- "And let not those among you who are good and wealthy swear not to give (any sort of help) to their kinsmen, those in need, and those who have left their homes for Allah's cause, let them pardon and forgive. Do you not love that Allah should forgive you? And Allah is oft-Forgiving Most Merciful." (24.22) Abu Bakr As-Siddiq said, 'Yes, by Allah, I would like that Allah forgive me.' and went on giving Mistah the money he used to give him before. He also added, 'By Allah, I will never deprive him of it at all.' Aisha further said: "Allah's Messenger (ﷺ) also asked Zainab bint Jahsh (i.e. his wife) about my case. He said to Zainab, 'What do you know and what did you see?' She replied, "O Allah's Messenger (ﷺ)! I refrain from claiming falsely that I have heard or seen anything. By Allah, I know nothing except good (about `Aisha)." From amongst the wives of the Prophet (ﷺ) Zainab was my peer (in beauty and in the love she received from the Prophet) but Allah saved her from that evil because of her piety. Her sister Hamna, started struggling on her behalf and she was destroyed along with those who were destroyed. The man who was blamed said, 'Subhan-Allah! By Him in Whose Hand my soul is, I have never uncovered the cover (i.e. veil) of any female.' Later on the man was martyred in Allah's Cause."

Lessons

1. Dangers of spreading unverified information without verification.
2. Allah tests with a single trial several people.
3. Righteous people don't act hastily.
4. Allah's Messenger ﷺ didn't know the unseen.
5. Learn to forgive from Abu Bakr.
6. Human nature of the Prophet ﷺ.

Sariyyah Muhammad bin Maslamah

1. One of the very first expeditions sent after the Battle of Trench. This was initiated to tame down the tribes who were supporting Quraish against the Muslims.
2. Muhammad bin Maslamah went on this expedition with thirty men towards the tribe of Banu Qurta, a subtribe of Banu Bakr.
3. The mission was successful and they were able to kill ten of their men and the remaining fled.
4. On their way back, they saw a man of Najd passing close to Madinah. Having a suspicion about him, they captured him and tied him in Masjid an-Nabwi.
5. When the Prophet ﷺ got to know of this, he went to see the man and recognized him as Thumamah bin Uthal, who was one of the leaders of Banu Haneefah. He was going for Umrah towards Makkah.
6. The Prophet ﷺ came to him and asked, "What do you have, O Thumamah? (asking about his intentions)" To which Thumamah responded, "O Muhammad ﷺ, I have good. If you kill me then you will kill a man who has people to take revenge for and if you do a favor and release me then I am of those who doesn't forget people's favor. And if you want money, then let me know how much money do you want."

- a. The Prophet ﷺ left and came back the next day and asked the same question to which Thumamah replied the same.
- b. This happened the third day as well and then the Prophet ﷺ said, "Leave Thumamah."
- c. But the tables had turned by then. The Prophet ﷺ had freed him but Thumamah had witnessed the companions, their conversations and their prayers five times a day for three consecutive days and this had a deep effect on his heart.
- d. When he was freed, he went to a nearby pond, had a bath and came back to the Prophet ﷺ and accepted Islam and said, "I was going for Umrah, what do you command me now, O Prophet of Allah ﷺ?" So the Prophet ﷺ asked him to continue his journey.
- e. When the Quraish got to know that Thumamah has converted, they called him an apostate. This made Thumamah angry and he said, "By Allah, I will not give you a grain of wheat until the Prophet ﷺ grants me permission to do so."
- f. That year, the people of Makkah suffered from a drought and they had to send a plea to the Prophet ﷺ to ask Thumamah to take back his oath and give them wheat. So the Prophet ﷺ wrote a letter to Thumamah and asked him to lift the ban.

The Battle of Banu Lihyan

1. This was the tribe who betrayed the Prophet ﷺ in the incident of Raji' and killed 10 of his companions.
2. As the location of this tribe was close to Makkah, and the Prophet ﷺ was at war with Quraish, he was looking for a suitable time to attack them.
3. Either in Jamadi al-'Ula or Rabi-ul-Awwal, 6AH, the Prophet ﷺ launched an offensive against them with 200 men.
4. When Banu Lihyan got to know of this, they hid in the mountains (the mountains of Tihamah).
5. The Muslim army spent a number of days before returning to Madinah. The Quraish were terrified by these military activities and feared that they would be attacked by the Prophet ﷺ.
6. According to some scholars, this was the same journey when returning to Madinah the Prophet ﷺ visited the grave of his mother.

Treaty of Hudaibiyyah

1. In Shawwal 6AH, the Prophet ﷺ had a dream that he is performing Umrah, so he announced that he will be going to perform Umrah so whoever wants to accompany him may join. The announcements were made in the surrounding tribes as well so that it would be wide spread that Muslims are leaving for Umrah, not for war (important for Quraish to know).
2. The Muslims were extremely happy because:
 - a. They would be going to visit their homeland after almost 6-7 years.

- b. They had an extreme love for Ka'bah, which they hadn't seen during all of this time period.
 - c. They had their memories associated with Makkah.
 - d. They only left it because they were forced to.
3. According to the customs of the Arabs, the Quraish had no right to stop anyone from performing Umrah. They were only the custodians of Ka'bah, not the owners. But there was this fear that Quraish might attack the Muslims. In order to make their intention clear and take necessary precautions, the Prophet ﷺ:
 - a. Wore the clothes for Ihram (unstitched clothes) from Dhul-Hulaifah (meeqat near Madinah for Umrah and Hajj).
 - b. Ordered some companions to load weapons on camel and bring them along the pilgrims in case of necessity on the suggestion of Umar Ibn al-Khattab.
4. Bishr ibn Sufyan met the Prophet ﷺ near Usfan, which was two days journey from Makkah, and informed him that the Quraish have vowed to Allah that they will not allow you to enter Makkah. When the Prophet ﷺ heard this, he said, "Woe to Quraish! They are consumed with the thoughts of war. What would it hurt them if they allowed me to deal freely with the people?"
5. When the Prophet ﷺ got to know of this, he consulted his companions and gave them two options:
 - a. Attack the tribes who are showing support to the Quraish to attack the Muslims.
 - b. Take another route to avoid war and in case anyone stops them, they would fight them.
6. The Quraish had sent Khalid ibn al-Waleed with two hundred horsemen to attack the Muslims. When the army reached near Usfan, the Prophet ﷺ prayed the prayer of fear and changed the route that would take them west towards the coast, then south, then east towards Makkah from Hudaybiyyah.
7. This route was not the usual route and it was extremely difficult to take this path. When the Prophet ﷺ realized that the companions were having difficulty, he asked them to pray for forgiveness.
8. When the Muslims reached al-Hudaybiyyah, Qaswa (the camel of the Prophet ﷺ) knelt down and refused to move. Some of companions said, "Qaswa has become stubborn." The Prophet ﷺ said, "Qaswa didn't become stubborn. It is not its character. It was prevented from continuing by the One Who prevented the elephants." The Prophet ﷺ then said, "By the One Who has my soul in His Hand, they (the Quraish) will not ask me for something by which they are honoring the sanctified things of Allah, except that I will give it to them."
9. When the Quraish were convinced that the Prophet ﷺ didn't come to fight, they sent Budail bin Waqara to negotiate with the Prophet ﷺ.
 - a. The Prophet ﷺ made his intent very clear to Budayl and he went back to Quraish and said, "O people of Quraish, you are indeed acting hastily with Muhammad ﷺ, for he has not come to fight; rather he has come simply to visit this House."
 - b. The Quraish responded, "Even if he ﷺ has come for that purpose only, he will not, by Allah, not enter upon us by force and the Arabs will not say that he did that to us."

10. This position of negotiations is already showing how strong Muslims have become in these six years. Once they had to escape fearing for their lives, and now they are negotiating with the same Quraish.
11. When Budail failed, Urwah bin Mas'ood ath-Thaqafi asked Quraish if they trusted him or not (Urwah's mother was from Quraish so he had strong ties with Quraish, although he belonged to the tribe of Thaqeef). Bukhari narrates the hadith in detail:
 - a. `Urwa bin Mas'ud got up and said, "O people! Aren't you the sons?" They said, "Yes." He added, "Am I not the father?" They said, "Yes." He said, "Do you mistrust me?" They said, "No." He said, "Don't you know that I invited the people of `Ukaz for your help, and when they refused I brought my relatives and children and those who obeyed me (to help you)?" They said, "Yes."
 - b. He said, "Well, this man (i.e. the Prophet) has offered you a reasonable proposal, you'd better accept it and allow me to meet him." They said, "You may meet him." So, he went to the Prophet (ﷺ) and started talking to him.
 - c. The Prophet (ﷺ) told him almost the same as he had told Budail. Then `Urwa said, "O Muhammad! Won't you feel any scruple in extirpating your relations? Have you ever heard of anyone amongst the Arabs extirpating his relatives before you? On the other hand, if the reverse should happen, (nobody will aid you, for) by Allah, I do not see (with you) dignified people, but people from various tribes who would run away leaving you alone." Hearing that, Abu Bakr abused him and said, "Do you say we would run and leave the Prophet (ﷺ) alone?" `Urwa said, "Who is that man?" They said, "He is Abu Bakr." `Urwa said to Abu Bakr, "By Him in Whose Hands my life is, were it not for the favor which you did to me and which I did not compensate, I would retort on you."
 - d. `Urwa kept on talking to the Prophet (ﷺ) and seizing the Prophet's beard as he was talking while Al-Mughira bin Shu'ba was standing near the head of the Prophet, holding a sword and wearing a helmet. Whenever `Urwa stretched his hand towards the beard of the Prophet, Al-Mughira would hit his hand with the handle of the sword and say (to `Urwa), "Remove your hand from the beard of Allah's Messenger (ﷺ)." `Urwa raised his head and asked, "Who is that?" The people said, "He is Al-Mughira bin Shu'ba." `Urwa said, "O treacherous! Am I not doing my best to prevent evil consequences of your treachery?" Before embracing Islam Al-Mughira was in the company of some people. He killed them and took their property and came (to Medina) to embrace Islam. The Prophet (ﷺ) said (to him, "As regards your Islam, I accept it, but as for the property I do not take anything of it. (As it was taken through treason).
 - e. `Urwa then started looking at the Companions of the Prophet. By Allah, whenever Allah's Messenger (ﷺ) spat, the spittle would fall in the hand of one of them (i.e. the Prophet's companions) who would rub it on his face and skin; if he ordered them they would carry his orders immediately; if he performed ablution, they would struggle to take the remaining water; and when they spoke to him, they would lower their voices and would not look at his face constantly out of respect.
 - f. `Urwa returned to his people and said, "O people! By Allah, I have been to the kings and to Caesar, Khosrau and An- Najashi, yet I have never seen any of them respected by his courtiers as much as Muhammad is respected by his companions. By Allah, if he spat, the spittle would fall in the hand of one of them (i.e. the Prophet's companions) who would rub it on his face and skin; if he ordered them, they would carry out his order immediately; if he performed ablution, they would struggle to take the remaining water; and when they spoke, they would lower their voices and would not look at his face constantly out of respect." `Urwa added, "No doubt, he has presented to you a good reasonable offer, so please accept it."

- g. The irony here is amazing. Urwa was playing mind games when he tried to disunite the Muslims by saying that these people will leave the Prophet ﷺ as they had no tie to connect them. He unwittingly did just that to the leaders of Quraish when he returned to them.
12. After Urwa, Hulaish ibn Alqamah from the tribe of Bani Kinana said, "Allow me to go to him," and they allowed him.
- a. When he approached the Prophet and his companions, Allah's Messenger (ﷺ) said, "He is so-and-so who belongs to the tribe that respects the Budn (i.e. camels of the sacrifice). So, bring the Budn in front of him." So, the Budn were brought before him and the people received him while they were reciting Talbiya.
 - b. When he saw that scene, he said, "Glorified be Allah! It is not fair to prevent these people from visiting the Ka`ba." When he returned to his people, he said, 'I saw the Budn garlanded (with colored knotted ropes) and marked (with stabs on their backs). I do not think it is advisable to prevent them from visiting the Ka`ba."

1. When all of the above-mentioned people were tried and tested by the Quraish, they decided to send Suhail bin Amr. When the Prophet (ﷺ) saw him coming, he said, "Verily, the people wanted a truce when they decided to send this man."
2. When Suhail bin `Amr came, the Prophet (ﷺ) said, "Now the matter has become easy."
 - a. Suhail said to the Prophet "Please conclude a peace treaty with us." So, the Prophet (ﷺ) called the clerk and said to him, "Write: By the Name of Allah, the most Beneficent, the most Merciful." Suhail said, "As for 'Beneficent,' by Allah, I do not know what it means. So write: By Your Name O Allah, as you used to write previously." The Muslims said, "By Allah, we will not write except: By the Name of Allah, the most Beneficent, the most Merciful." The Prophet (ﷺ) said, "Write: By Your Name O Allah."
 - b. Then he dictated, "This is the peace treaty which Muhammad, Allah's Messenger (ﷺ) has concluded." Suhail said, "By Allah, if we knew that you are Allah's Messenger (ﷺ) we would not prevent you from visiting the Ka`ba, and would not fight with you. So, write: 'Muhammad bin `Abdullah.'" The Prophet (ﷺ) said, "By Allah! I am Apostle of Allah even if you people do not believe me. Write: Muhammad bin `Abdullah." (Az-Zuhri said, "The Prophet (ﷺ) accepted all those things, as he had already said that he would accept everything they would demand if it respects the ordinance of Allah, (i.e. by letting him and his companions perform `Umra.)"
 - c. The Prophet (ﷺ) said to Suhail, "On the condition that you allow us to visit the House (i.e. Ka`ba) so that we may perform Tawaf around it." Suhail said, "By Allah, we will not (allow you this year) so as not to give chance to the 'Arabs to say that we have yielded to you, but we will allow you next year." So, the Prophet (ﷺ) got that written.
 - d. Then Suhail said, "We also stipulate that you should return to us whoever comes to you from us, even if he embraced your religion." The Muslims said, "Glorified be Allah! How will such a person be returned to the pagans after he has become a Muslim? While they were in this state Abu- Jandal bin Suhail bin `Amr came from the valley of Mecca staggering with his fetters and fell down amongst the Muslims. Suhail said, "O Muhammad! This is the very first term with which we make peace with you, i.e. you shall return Abu Jandal to me." The Prophet (ﷺ) said, "The peace treaty has not been written yet." Suhail said, "I will never allow you to keep him." The Prophet (ﷺ) said, "Yes, do." He said, "I won't do.: Mikraz said, "We allow you (to keep him)." Abu Jandal said, "O Muslims! Will I be returned to the pagans though I have come as a Muslim? Don't you see how much I have suffered?". Abu Jandal had been tortured severely for the Cause of Allah.
 - e. `Umar bin Al-Khattab said, "I went to the Prophet (ﷺ) and said, 'Aren't you truly the Messenger of Allah?' The Prophet (ﷺ) said, 'Yes, indeed.' I said, 'Isn't our Cause just and the cause of the enemy unjust?' He said, 'Yes.' I said, 'Then why should we be humble in our religion?' He said, 'I am Allah's Messenger (ﷺ) and I do not disobey Him, and He will make me victorious.' I said, 'Didn't you tell us that we would go to the Ka`ba and perform Tawaf around it?' He said, 'Yes, but did I tell you that we would visit the Ka`ba this year?' I said, 'No.' He said, 'So you will visit it and perform Tawaf around it?' " `Umar further said, "I went to Abu`Bakr and said, 'O Abu Bakr! Isn't he truly Allah's Prophet?' He replied, 'Yes.' I said, 'Then why should we be humble in our religion?' He said, 'Indeed, he is Allah's Messenger (ﷺ) and he does not disobey his Lord, and He will make him victorious. Adhere to him as, by Allah, he is on the right.' I said, 'Was he not telling us that we would go to the Ka`ba and perform Tawaf around it?' He said, 'Yes, but did he tell you that you would go to the Ka`ba this year?' I said, 'No.' He said, "You will go to Ka`ba and perform Tawaf around it." (Az-Zuhri said, " `Umar said, 'I performed many good deeds as expiation for the improper questions I asked them.' ")

- f. When the writing of the peace treaty was concluded, Allah's Messenger (ﷺ) said to his companions, "Get up and' slaughter your sacrifices and get your head shaved." By Allah none of them got up, and the Prophet repeated his order thrice. When none of them got up, he left them and went to Um Salama and told her of the people's attitudes towards him. Um Salama said, "O the Prophet (ﷺ) of Allah! Do you want your order to be carried out? Go out and don't say a word to anybody till you have slaughtered your sacrifice and call your barber to shave your head."
- g. So, the Prophet (ﷺ) went out and did not talk to anyone of them till he did that, i.e. slaughtered the sacrifice and called his barber who shaved his head. Seeing that, the companions of the Prophet (ﷺ) got up, slaughtered their sacrifices, and started shaving the heads of one another, and there was so much rush that there was a danger of killing each other. Then some believing women came (to the Prophet (ﷺ)); and Allah revealed the following Divine Verses:—"O you who believe, when the believing women come to you as emigrants examine them . . ." (60.10)
- h. When the Prophet (ﷺ) returned to Medina, Abu Basir, a new Muslim convert from Quraish came to him. The Infidels sent in his pursuit two men who said (to the Prophet (ﷺ)), "Abide by the promise you gave us." So, the Prophet (ﷺ) handed him over to them. They took him out (of the City) till they reached Dhul-Hulaifa where they dismounted to eat some dates they had with them.
- i. Abu Basir said to one of them, "By Allah, O so-and-so, I see you have a fine sword." The other drew it out (of the scabbard) and said, "By Allah, it is very fine and I have tried it many times." Abu Basir said, "Let me have a look at it." When the other gave it to him, he hit him with it till he died, and his companion ran away till he came to Medina and entered the Mosque running. When Allah's Messenger (ﷺ) saw him he said, "This man appears to have been frightened." When he reached the Prophet (ﷺ) he said, "My companion has been murdered, and I would have been murdered too." Abu Basir came and said, "O Allah's Messenger (ﷺ), by Allah, Allah has made you fulfill your obligations by your returning me to them (i.e. the Infidels), but Allah has saved me from them." The Prophet (ﷺ) said, "Woe to his mother! What excellent war kindler he would be, should he only have supporters."

- j. When Abu Basir heard that he understood that the Prophet (ﷺ) would return him to them again, so he set off till he reached the seashore. Abu Jandal bin Suhail got himself released from them (i.e. infidels) and joined Abu Basir. So, whenever a man from Quraish embraced Islam he would follow Abu Basir till they formed a strong group. By Allah, whenever they heard about a caravan of Quraish heading towards Sham, they stopped it and attacked and killed them (i.e. infidels) and took their properties.
- k. The people of Quraish sent a message to the Prophet (ﷺ) requesting him for the Sake of Allah and Kith and kin to send for (i.e. Abu Basir and his companions) promising that whoever (amongst them) came to the Prophet (ﷺ) would be secure. So the Prophet (ﷺ) sent for them (i.e. Abu Basir's companions) and Allah I revealed the following Divine Verses: "And it is He Who Has withheld their hands from you and your hands From them in the midst of Mecca, After He made you the victorious over them. ... the unbelievers had prid" and haughtiness, in their hearts ... the pride and haughtiness of the time of ignorance." (48.24-26) And their pride and haughtiness was that they did not confess (write in the treaty) that he (i.e. Muhammad) was the Prophet of Allah and refused to write: "In the Name of Allah, the most Beneficent, the Most Merciful," and they (the mushriks) prevented them (the Muslims) from visiting the House (the Ka`bah).

The Battle of Khyber:

1. The Battle of Khyber took place in the month of Muharram 7AH.
2. The first people to be dealt after the treaty of Hudaibiyyah were the Jews who had helped Quraish in the previous battles, specially in the battle of confederates, against the Muslims. As the danger from Quraish was temporarily over, the Prophet (ﷺ) marched towards the Jews gathered in Khyber.
3. The Jews were surprised to see the Muslim army and out of fear they barricaded themselves in their fortresses.
4. There were two main sections of Khayber:
 - a. Section one had 5 fortresses.
 - b. Section two had 3 fortresses.
5. As the Jews had barricaded themselves, the Muslims had to lay a siege.
6. One of the most difficult forts was the fort of Na'im. The Prophet (ﷺ) wasn't well so he initially sent Abu Bakr to lead the army and the army fought but they weren't successful. Next day, he gave Umar the banner and the army fought under him but they too weren't successful.

Lec-28: The Battle of Khayber & Events between Khayber and the Conquest of Makkah

The Battle of Khayber:

Fort of Na'im

1. When the Prophet ﷺ said that he will hand over the flag to the one whom Allah & His Messenger ﷺ loves and he loves Allah and His Messenger ﷺ everyone wanted to gain this virtue. Umar said, "Never did I want leadership but that day."
 - a. Next day the Prophet ﷺ asked where Ali bin Abi Talib was. He was told that Ali was unwell; his eyes ail him. So, the Prophet ﷺ called for him.
 - b. The Prophet ﷺ spat in his eyes and prayed to Allah for his cure and Ali said, "Verily, I never again had an eye infection or a headache since the Prophet ﷺ spat in my eyes."
2. The Prophet ﷺ asked Ali to go forth and fight the people until they declare that there is no one worthy of worship except Allah and that Muhammad ﷺ is His Messenger. And if they do this, then their blood and money are forbidden to be violated and if Allah guides even one man through you that is better for you than owning red camels.
3. The first one to fight was al-Harith (the brother of Marhab/Muraahib). He was killed by Ali and the rest of the fighters with him returned to the fort.
4. Then Marhab/Muraahib, who was one of their prominent fighters, came out to fight and Amir bin al-Akwa faced him. During the duel, Amir was hit by his own sword, and he passed away. People started saying that his deeds will be undone as he was killed by his own sword and when the Prophet ﷺ heard about this, he said, "They lie; indeed, he is a martyr."
5. Then Marhab/Muraahib had a duel with Ali and Ali was able to kill Marhab.
6. Then the brother of Marhab, Yasir, came forward and Zubair ibn al-Awwam went forward to fight him. Seeing this, Safiyyah said, "Will he kill my son, O Messenger of Allah ﷺ?" He ﷺ said, "No, your son will kill him, Allah willing." And Zubair was able to kill Yasir.
7. The morale of the fort of Na'im shattered and thus the Muslims were able to conquer this fort.
8. The siege of this fort continued for 10 days until it was conquered.

Fort of al-Sa'b

1. There were 500 warriors in this fort. The Prophet ﷺ gave the liwa to al-Hubaab ibn al-Mundhir and the Muslims had laid siege for two days when they complained of hunger as they were running out of food. The Messenger of Allah ﷺ prayed to Allah, "O Allah! Indeed, you know their state and that they have no strength and that I have nothing in my possession to give them. So give them victory over the mightiest of fortresses in wealth with much food and fat."
2. And it was Allah's will that the fort of al-Sa'b was conquered by evening, and the Muslims gained much food and fatty products. Also, they were able to gain catapults from this fort which helped them conquer other forts.

Other forts including the fort of Qamus

1. The Muslims were able to conquer other forts one by one until they came to the second section of Khayber and laid siege to the fort of Qamus which was the mightiest fort of Khayber.
2. The Muslims laid siege for 20 days and Allah ultimately gave them victory at the hands of Ali.
3. It was this fort from which Safiyah bint-e-Huyai was captured.

Peace Treaty

1. The last of the forts were that of al-Watih and al-Sulalim. The siege lasted for 14 days and ultimately the Jews surrendered.
2. Kinana bin Abu-al-Huqaiq asked the Prophet ﷺ to let them go on the condition that they will leave everything in Khayber so that their life will be spared.
3. Initially the Prophet ﷺ asked them to leave Khayber on the above-mentioned condition then the Jews said to the Prophet ﷺ, "O Muhammad ﷺ, let us remain in this land and take care of it for we know more about it than you do and would be more able to keep it thriving."
4. The Prophet ﷺ was blessed with wisdom. He realized that he doesn't have resources to maintain this land, so he agreed with the Jews on two conditions:
 - a. They will divide the production of Khayber into two and keep one portion for themselves and give the other portion to the Muslims.
 - i. Again, we see the wisdom of the Prophet ﷺ in this that he didn't keep a fixed portion for them and agreed to give them half of the yield to keep them motivated to produce as many crops as possible.
 - b. The Muslims can expel them whenever they want.

Arrival of Ja'far bin Abi Talib and the people of Ash'aree tribe

1. After the treaty of Hudaibiyyah, the Prophet ﷺ had sent Amr bin Umayyah ad-Darmee to an-Najashee to ask him to send Ja'far and the rest of the companions back. An-Najashee, showing his generosity, arranged two ships for the Muslims and gave them gifts as well.
2. Ja'far and his companions were not alone. The people of Ash'aree tribe had set on from Yemen to migrate to the Prophet ﷺ. When they set out from Yemen via Red Sea, they were caught up in a storm and the ship took them to Abyssinia. So Ja'far asked them to stay with them and then they migrated together. The Ash'aree people were around 52-59 in number.
3. When Ja'far saw the Prophet ﷺ he jumped out of joy and when the Prophet ﷺ saw Ja'far he said, "I don't know what makes me happier; the conquest of Khayber or the arrival of Ja'far!"
4. There is an interesting interaction between Asma bint-e-Umais and Umar ibn al-Khattab regarding the companions who were with the Prophet ﷺ during all this time and those who stayed in Abyssinia.
 - a. Asma was from those who had migrated to Abyssinia and came back with Ja'far (she was the wife of Ja'far).
 - b. Once Asma was sitting with Hafsa when Umar came and said to her, "We performed Hijrah before you did and so we are more deserving of the Prophet ﷺ than you are."

Asma became angry and said, "No, by Allah! You were with the Prophet ﷺ who fed the hungry among you and admonished the ignorant among you while we were far away, estranged and hated in the land of Abyssinia. And we were there for the cause of Allah and His Messenger ﷺ. And by Allah, I will neither eat any food nor have any drink until I mention what you said to the Prophet ﷺ..."

- c. So Asma went to the Prophet ﷺ and told him what had happened. So, the Prophet ﷺ responded, "He is not more deserving of me than you are. He and his companions performed one migration while all of you performed two migrations."
 - d. When the companions who had arrived from Abyssinia heard of this incident, they came in groups to Asma to hear it directly from her. Asma would say, "..There was nothing in the whole world that made them happier nor anything they cared about more than what the Prophet ﷺ said about them."
5. The Prophet ﷺ gave share of war booty to the people of Abyssinia and Ash'aairah as well.

Incident of feeding the Prophet ﷺ a poisoned sheep

1. After the Khayber's victory, the Jews offered the Prophet ﷺ some food which the Prophet ﷺ accepted. However, that sheep was poisoned by a Jewish lady Zainab bint-al-Harith (wife of Sallam bin Mishkam).
2. When the Prophet ﷺ took the first bite, he spit it out but one companion Bishr ibn al-Baraa swallowed a piece.
3. When the Jews were interrogated, they confessed that they had poisoned the sheep and they presented an excuse by saying, "If you were lying (regarding your Prophethood), then we will be saved from you. And if you are truly a Prophet, then it will not harm you."
4. The woman who had poisoned the sheep also confessed. She was initially forgiven by the Prophet ﷺ but when Bishr died because of the poison, she was killed.

Some of the Rulings during Khayber

1. The meat of domestic donkeys was prohibited.
2. Intimate relations with female slaves who were expecting was prohibited.
3. Riba al-Fadl was prohibited.
4. Mutah (temporary marriage contract) was prohibited.

Prophet's ﷺ marriage with Safiyyah bint-e-Huyai

1. Initially the Prophet ﷺ gave Safiyyah to Daihyah al-Kalbee but the companions suggested the Prophet ﷺ to take Safiyyah himself as she was the daughter of the leader of Banu Nadeer, Huyai bin Akhtab. So, the Prophet ﷺ took Safiyyah for himself and asked Daihyah to select any of the slave girls for himself.
2. Safiyyah accepted Islam and her dowry was her freedom.
3. The Muslims left Khayber and on their way back when they were just six miles outside Khayber, the Prophet ﷺ diverted from the main road intending to consummate his marriage with Safiyyah but she refused. The Prophet ﷺ was troubled by this but didn't say anything at this point.

4. Then as the Muslims moved forward, they reached a point called as-Sahbaa and this was the point where the marriage was consummated. The Prophet ﷺ asked Safiyyah regarding her refusal initially, to which she responded, "I feared for your life (as they were still very close to Khayber and so Safiyyah wanted them to go far away so that they were out of danger)."
5. When the night was over and the Messenger of Allah ﷺ came out of his tent, he saw Abu Ayub al-Ansari equipped outside his tent. He asked Abu Ayub why he was equipped outside his tent to which Abu Ayub responded, "O Messenger of Allah ﷺ, I feared for your life because of this woman; she is a woman whose father, husband and people were killed, and who had only recently been a disbeliever. I therefore feared that she might harm you." When the Prophet ﷺ heard this, he prayed for him, "O Allah, protect Abu Ayub, just as he spent the night guarding me."
 - a. This incident shows how much Abu Ayub loved the Prophet ﷺ.

Invitation to Kings:

1. The treaty of Hudaibiyyah served as a signal of the beginning of the expansion of Muslim nation. For that, the Prophet ﷺ started sending letters to the kings of different areas. Of those who were invited to Islam were:
 - a. Harqal, the emperor of Rome.
 - b. Kisra, the ruler of Persian empire.
 - c. An-Najashee, the ruler of Abyssinia.
 - d. Al-Muqawqis, the ruler of Egypt.
2. These letters were extremely significant because:
 - a. It was the announcement of the existence of a new country.
 - b. To gauge the reaction of foreign rulers.
 - c. The Prophet ﷺ was conveying the message of Islam to the whole world.

Letters of the Prophet (ﷺ) to the Kings and Chiefs

The Letter of the Prophet (ﷺ) to Al-Mundhir bin Sawa

No.	Bearer	Destination	Addressed To
①	Amr bin Umalyyah	Abyssinia	The Negus
②	Al-Ala' bin Al-Hadrami	Bahrain	Al-Mundhir bin Sawa
③	Abdullah bin Hudhafah	Al-Madain	Chosroes of Persia
④	Dihiyah Al-Kalbi	Jerusalem	Hercules, Caesar of the Roman empire
⑤	Hatib bin Abi Balta'h	Alexandria	Al-Muqawqis, the ruler of Egypt
⑥	Amr bin Al-'As	Oman	Jayfar and 'Abd, the sons of Al-Julandi
⑦	Sulait bin Amr	Yamamah	Hawdhah bin Ali
⑧	Shuja' bin Wahb	Damascus	Al-Harith bin Abi Shamr Al-Gassani

The Compensatory Umrah:

1. It took place in 7AH in the month of Dhul Qa'dah, one year after the treaty of Hudaibiyyah.
2. Those who witnessed the treaty of Hudaibiyyah went along with the Prophet ﷺ.
3. The Prophet ﷺ took 200 horsemen with him carrying weapons in case of an emergency and it was led by Muhammad bin Maslamah.
4. When the Prophet ﷺ was just 8 miles outside Makkah, Quraish sent Mikraz bin Hafs, as they were surprised to see 200 horsemen carrying weapons with them. He met the Prophet ﷺ and said to him, "By Allah, O Muhammad ﷺ, we have not known you for treachery.... We agreed that people would not enter Makkah with no weapons except for swords in their scabbards." The Prophet ﷺ replied, "That is the only way that we will enter."
5. So, a crowd of nearly 2000 men entered Makkah raising talbiyyah, the epitome of monotheism, in a city which was filled with polytheism was breathtaking. The Quraish were in awe.
6. Furthermore, the Prophet ﷺ ordered the companions to expose their right shoulders during circumambulation and to walk briskly during their first three rounds of the circumambulation. This was done to negate the notion that had spread within the people of Makkah that the companions (their own relatives) have become weak because of the diseases of Madinah (Yathrib was known for its diseases).
7. Once the companions who came in first had performed Umrah, the Prophet ﷺ sent a group of companions outside to take care of the weapons so that the horsemen could perform Umrah.

Prophet's ﷺ marriage with Ma'moonah Bint al-Harith

1. Maimoonah was the last wife of the Prophet ﷺ. Abbas was looking for a suitable match for her as she was his sister in-law and who else Abbas could think of except for his own nephew, the Prophet ﷺ.
2. The Prophet ﷺ wanted to consummate his marriage in Makkah but the Quraish refused so the marriage was consummated on his way back to Madinah.

Impact of Compensatory Umrah

1. The Treaty of Hudaibiyyah and the events following it were having a deep effect on the Quraish. Amr ibn al-Aas realized that the Prophet ﷺ would soon gain control over the Arabian Peninsula. He just didn't want to face the humility of losing, so he suggested some of the Quraish, "Suppose that we go to an-Najashi and that we live with him. Then if Muhammad ﷺ comes out victorious over our people, we will stay with an-Najashi.... And if our people come out victorious, they know our ranking among them and they will consequently show kindness to us."
2. Amr needed this favor from Najashi, so they took some gifts for them but when they reached, they saw Amr ibn Umayyah, a companion who was sent by the Prophet ﷺ to an-Najashi to ask him to send Ja'far and his companions back. Amr was annoyed to see this.
3. So, Amr went to an-Najashi and asked him to hand over Amr ibn Umayyah to him so that he could kill him.

4. When an-Najashi heard this, he was enraged, and Amr could see this from an-Najashi's face. An-Najashi said to Amr, "Are you asking me to surrender to you the messenger of a man to whom an-Namoos al-Akbar (Angel Jibreel) comes, the same Namoos that would go to Musa? Are you asking me to do that so that you can kill him?! Woe upon you, O Amr! Obey me and follow him, for indeed, he ﷺ is upon the truth....."
5. This had a great impact on Amr and it was this moment that he realized the truth. He asked Najashi if he could take his pledge of Islam on the behalf of the Prophet ﷺ and thus Amr embraced Islam. This was a private meeting and the companions of Amr didn't know about this.
6. Amr decided to go to the Prophet ﷺ. So it was just before the conquest of Makkah that Amr decided to go to the Prophet ﷺ.
7. On his way to Madinah, he met Khalid bin Waleed and Uthman bin Talha. He asked Khalid where he was heading and Khalid told him that he was going to accept Islam.
8. There were certain instances which paved the way for Khalid to accept Islam:
 - a. Initially, when the Muslims were protected from Khalid and his cavalrymen when he tried to attack them before the Treaty of Hudaibiyyah, he thought to himself, "This man is somehow protected." It had a profound effect on him.
 - b. Then when the Muslims came for Umr al-Qada, his brother al-Waleed bin Waleed bin Mugheerah who had accepted Islam long ago, came to find him but couldn't find him so he wrote him a letter in which he expressed his amazement at Khalid who despite his intelligence has failed to accept Islam and he also share what the Prophet ﷺ said about him, quoting, "Someone like him shouldn't be ignorant of Islam! Were he to put his strength and energy and efforts along with that of the Muslims against the polytheists, that would be better for him, and we would place him ahead of others." al-Waleed specially said, "O brother, make up for what you have missed out on, for you have, on many an occasion, missed out on a great deal of good."
9. So, Khalid decided to eventually accept Islam, and he wanted to have a companion with him. He tried to convince Safwan bin Umayyah first, then Ikrimah bin Abi Jahl but both rejected his proposal. Then he shared his thoughts with Uthman bin Talha and Uthman said that he felt the same thing, so both set out to Madinah and on their way, they met Amr ibn al-Aas. Therefore, the three of them reached Madinah.
10. When they reached Madinah, al-Waleed hurried to his brother Khalid and asked him to rush to the Prophet ﷺ as he was informed about his arrival and was waiting for him. The Prophet ﷺ kept on smiling when he saw Khalid coming to him and Khalid came forward and proclaimed the shahadah and the Prophet ﷺ remarked, "All praise is for Allah, Who has guided you! I had indeed sensed intelligence in you, and I had hoped that it would lead you only to the path of goodness."
11. Khalid asked the Prophet ﷺ to pray for his forgiveness and so the Prophet ﷺ prayed for him.
12. There is a narration regarding the conversion of Amr which he narrates himself on his deathbed:

"....When Allah instilled the love of Islam in my heart, I came to the Apostle (ﷺ) and said: Stretch out your right hand so that may pledge my allegiance to you. He stretched out his right hand, I withdrew my hand, He (the Holy Prophet) said: What has happened to you, O 'Amr? replied: I intend to lay down some condition. He asked: What condition do you intend to put forward? I said: should be granted pardon. He (the Holy Prophet) observed: Are you not aware of the fact that Islam wipes out all the previous (misdeeds)? Verily migration wipes out all the previous (misdeeds), and verily the pilgrimage wipes out all the (previous) misdeeds. And then no one as or dear to me than the Messenger of Allah and none was more sublime in my eyes than he...."

(Muslim: 121)

13. These conversions took place in Safar 8AH.

Lec-30- The Battle of Mu'tah and the Conquest of Makkah

The Battle of Mu'tah

1. Mu'tah was situated at the north of Arabian Peninsula and was under the leadership of Arabs who would follow the instructions of the Roman empire.
2. The reason for this battle was the continuous hostility shown by these Arab tribes in different occasions:
 - a. Robbing Dahiyah al-Kalbee when he was passing through that area.
 - b. Assassination of al-Harith bin Umair who was sent by the Prophet ﷺ to the king of Basrah.
 - c. Killing a group of companions who were sent under the leadership of Amr bin Kab al-Ghaffaree to call the people to Islam.
3. So, it was necessary to take actions against them so that:
 - a. They would be taught a lesson.
 - b. They wouldn't dare to do such acts again.
4. The Battle took place in Jamadi al-Ula 8AH.
5. So, an army of 3000 fighters was prepared under the leadership of Za'id ibn al-Harithah.
6. The Prophet ﷺ appointed three leaders in this battle due to its severity:
 - a. Za'id ibn al-Harithah. If he would die, he would be replaced by:
 - b. Ja'far bin Abi Talib. If he would die, he would be replaced by:
 - c. Abdullah bin Rawahah.
7. When the army was ready, the Prophet ﷺ along with his companions went on with the army to bid them farewell. On their way, Abdullah bin Rawahah began to cry profusely. When he was asked why he was crying, he responded by saying, "By Allah, I am not in love with the world nor am I ardently in love with you all; rather, it is simply that I have heard the Prophet ﷺ recite a verse of the Qur'an in which Hellfire is mentioned: 'There is not one of you but will pass over it (Hell)! this is with your Lord; a Decree which must be accomplished.' (19:71) And I don't know where will I go once I pass over it!"
8. When the Muslims reached Ma'an (present day province in Jordan), they came to know that 200,000 fighters have gathered to fight them. One lac from the tribes of Lakham, Judham, Bahraa & Balee tribes and one lac from Heraqleus.
9. The Muslims had a consultation in Ma'an. Some said, "We will send word about the enemy's strength to the Messenger of Allah ﷺ in Madinah. Then, if he ﷺ wants, he ﷺ can send us reinforcements and if he ﷺ wants he ﷺ can order us to fight."
10. At this point, Abdullah bin Rawahah addressed the companions and said, "O people, by Allah, that which you now dislike is what you came to seek out in the first place- Martyrdom! And we don't fight people with strength or number; no, we fight them only with this religion that Allah has honored us with, so proceed forward, for you will then be faced with one of the two good things: Either victory or martyrdom."
11. And this moved the companions so much that they decided to fight the army. Zaid led the army to Mu'tah and decided to face the army there.

12. When both the armies met, the heat of the battle ignited. As the banner was with Zaid bin Harithah, Zaid was targeted, and Zaid met his martyrdom. After Zaid, Ja'far picked up the banner and he too fought ferociously and was attacked such that his right arm was chopped off first. Then he took the banner in his left hand, and it too was chopped off and then he was ultimately killed. Ja'far had over 90 injuries on his bodies and all at the front part of his body. After Ja'far, Abdullah bin Rawahah took the banner, and he too met his martyrdom.
13. It was at this desperate time that Thabit bin Arqam took the flag and gave it too Khalid bin Waleed. Khalid said, "I will not take it. You are more deserving of it: You are older and more experienced than me and you took part in Badr." Thabit said, "Take it, man, for by Allah, I picked it up for you only."
14. Khalid's task was quite difficult as he had to save the Muslim army from complete annihilation as the battle's intensity was immense. The task wasn't this easy as Khalid had to maintain a safe distance from the army so that they could retreat.
15. The fight took place the whole day and Khalid came out with an idea. At night, he swiped all the flanks of the army by moving the right side of the army to the left and front side of the army to the back and he also changed the flags. This was done to give the enemies a gesture that reinforcements had arrived. Also, he made sure that the soldiers would make a lot of noise when they were changing their positions.
16. The enemy was taken by this and the next day the enemy himself made a safe distance from the Muslim army, thinking that reinforcements had arrived and Khalid took this opportunity to save the Muslim army.
17. In Madinah, the Prophet ﷺ gave the companions a direct account of what was happening on the battlefield. He told them that Zaid, Ja'far and Abdullah were killed, and his eyes were filled with tears and then he said that the flag was taken by one of the swords of the Sword of Allah and this is how Khalid was blessed with the title of "The Sword of Allah".

The Conquest of Makkah

1. Banu Bakr attacks Banu Khuza'a.

- a. After the treaty of Hudaibiyyah, the tribe of Banu Bakr became allies of Quraish whereas the tribe of Banu Khuza'a entered the alliance with the Muslims.
- b. Banu Bakr and Banu Khuza'a had some tensions with each other in the past, but as a greater enemy for them, the Muslims, emerged so they had to keep their enmity for each other aside for quite a few years. When the treaty of Hudaibiyyah was signed, they now had the time to take vengeance on each other.
- c. After they had entered the alliance, Banu Bakr attacked Banu Khuza'a after seeking help from some of the noteables of Quraish who provided them with men and weapons as well. Several people from the tribe of Khuza'a were killed and this was a blatant violation of the treaty by both, Banu Bakr and Quraish.
- d. A delegation of Banu Khuza'a went to the Prophet ﷺ and informed him of the attack and sought his help. The Prophet ﷺ responded by saying, "May I not be helped (by Allah) if I don't help you.", indicating the seriousness of the assault and the dire need of Prophet's ﷺ help for Banu Khuza'a.

2. Abu Sufyan seeking protection.

- a. When this all happened, Abu Sufyan was not taken into confidence by the other noteables of Quraish and some of the Quraish realized the serious consequences of what they had done. So they sent Abu Sufyan to al-Madinah so he could talk to the Prophet ﷺ in order to make sure that the treaty is still intact.
- b. When Abu Sufyan reached al-Madinah, he went to the house of his daughter, Umm-e-Habiba Ramla bint-e-Abi Sufyan. When Abu Sufyan went into her house and wanted to sit, Umm-e-Habiba stopped him and took the bed of the Prophet ﷺ from underneath him and then asked him to sit. Abu Sufyan, surprised at what his daughter just did, asked, "O my daughter, I don't know whether it is me you're protecting from the bed or is it the bed?" To this, his daughter responded, "No, but this is bed of the Prophet ﷺ and it is not befitting that a polytheist should sit on the bed of Messenger of Allah ﷺ." Abu Sufyan said, "By Allah, evil has afflicted you since you've left me."
- c. Abu Sufyan went to the Prophet ﷺ and asked him if the treaty was still in contact and that he wanted assurance that they are still abiding by it. The Prophet ﷺ didn't respond to his questions, rather he asked him, "Did something happen?". Abu Sufyan denied that something had happened.
- d. Disappointed from gaining any favor from his daughter, Abu Sufyan went to Abu Bakr, Umar, Uthman, Ali and Fatimah but he got rejected from every single person.
- e. When he reached Makkah, the people rebuked him in the strongest of terms and said, "Woe to you, neither you came to us with a reassurance nor you came to us with the announcement of war."

3. Consultation with Abu Bakr & Umar.

- a. The Prophet ﷺ then consulted Abu Bakr and Umar and ultimately decided that he would be marching to Makkah with an army.

4. Announcement amongst masses.

- a. An announcement was made among the masses that the Prophet ﷺ is leaving for Makkah and that they should all make their preparations.
- b. An army of 10,000 people gathered and they started marching towards Makkah. This happened in the month of Ramadan 8AH.
- c. The Prophet ﷺ prayed to Allah that their plan remains hidden from Quraish so that they don't prepare for war and they surrender peacefully and accept Islam as this was the best option for them.

5. Hatib bin Abi Balta'a's letter.

- a. Hatib was a noble companion who took part in the battle of Badr as well. His family was in Makkah and he was not a Qurashi so his family had no one to take care of them if Makkah was attacked.
- b. So Hatib decided to write a letter to Quraish to inform them of the departure of the Prophet ﷺ and his intentions so that he could do a favor to Quraish and protect his family.
- c. Hatib gave this letter to a slave girl who came from Makkah to Madinah and paid her for that.
- d. Jibreel told the Prophet ﷺ about all what had happened so the Prophet ﷺ sent Ali bin Abi Talib, Zubair ibn al-Awwam and a third companion along with them to stop the lady and get the letter from her. The Prophet ﷺ told them the exact location where the lady would be.
- e. When they reached where the caravan of the lady was, they stopped the lady and asked her to take out the letter. When they asked her, she blatantly refused to have any such letter. Ali bin Abi Talib then threatened her and asked her to hand over the letter as the Prophet ﷺ had not lied to her and if she fails to comply, she would have to suffer. When she got to know that the matter is serious, she took out the letter from her braided hair.
- f. When the letter was brought back to the Prophet ﷺ, he called Hatib and asked him about the letter. Hatib accepted his mistake and said that he was sincere to Allah and His Messenger ﷺ and that he only did this to save his family because he had no Qurashi tribe to protect them.
- g. When Umar ibn al-Khattab heard this, he asked the Prophet ﷺ to give him permission to kill Hatib as he had committed treachery to Allah and His Messenger ﷺ but the Prophet ﷺ responded, "O Umar, what do you know that if Allah had seen the people of Badr and said, 'Do whatever you want, as you are forgiven.'" When Umar heard this, he began to cry and said, "Allah and His Messenger ﷺ knows best."

6. Abu Sufyan bin Harith and Abdullah bin Abi Umayyah.

- a. When the Prophet ﷺ was on his way, Abu Sufyan bin Harith and Abdullah bin Abi Umayyah were on their way to Madinah where they met the army.
 - i. Abdullah bin Umayyah was the paternal cousin of the Prophet ﷺ through his aunt Atika bint-e-Abdul Muttalib.
 - ii. Abu Sufyan bin Harith was his cousin through his uncle al-Harith bin Abdul Muttalib.

- iii. Both of these cousins became hostile toward the Prophet ﷺ when he began calling people to worship Allah alone.
- b. Abbas and family.
 - i. The last people to join the Prophet ﷺ on his journey to Makkah were Abbas and his family.
 - ii. As Abbas had been acting as a spy for the Prophet ﷺ in Makkah, he thought that his work is no more required in Makkah after the treaty of Hudaibiyyah, so he left to migrate towards al-Madinah and joined the Prophet's ﷺ army.

7. Breaking of fast and lighting torches in Mar al-Zahran.

- a. When the army reached Mar al-Zahran, which is just outside Makkah, he asked the companions to lit torches during the night time so that the Quraish will get to know the might with which the Muslims have arrived and so that they don't think of retaliating against them in any shape or form.
- b. Today, this area is known as Wadi' Fatma.

1. Abu Sufyan bin Harb, Abbas bin Muttalib and Umar bin Khattab's incident.
 - a. Time of prayer:
 - i. When the time of Prayer came, Abu Sufyan was surprised to see the Muslims running for the prayer. And when he was told that this is the time of prayer, he said, "By Allah, O Abbas, do they obey him in every matter?" Abbas said, "Were he ﷺ to ask them to leave food and drink, they would do so."
 - b. Conversation with the Prophet ﷺ.
 - i. When Abu Sufyan went to the Prophet ﷺ after the prayer, the Prophet ﷺ said to him, "Woe upon you, O Abu Sufyan! Is it not time for you to know that none has the right to be worshipped but Allah?". Abu Sufyan was expecting that the Prophet ﷺ would talk about his execution or banishment but he was surprised to hear the invitation to Islam. With raised emotions, he exclaimed, "May my father and mother be sacrificed for you! How forbearing, gentle, generous and noble are you! And how good and kind you are to your relatives! By Allah! Had there been another god alongside Allah, he would have helped me up until now."
 - ii. Similarly, he was invited asked about the Prophethood of Prophet ﷺ by himself to which Abu Sufyan replied, ".....I still have doubts in me about it at this very moment."
 - iii. At this Abbas said, "Woe upon you! Embrace Islam before....". This was not done to threaten Abu Sufyan but to make him realize how foolish this was after all that has happened.
 - iv. So Abu Sufyan, hesitantly, accepted Islam but later on he would accept it wholeheartedly.
 - c. Abu Sufyan sees the army (Raya with Zubair and Sa'd bin Ubadah (given to Qays bin Sa'd bin Ubadah), Khalid bin Waleed,))
 - i. The Prophet ﷺ asked Abbas to keep him behind the army so that Abu Sufyan could see the army in front of him and so that he gets to know that there is no point of showing resistance and so that he can convince the Quraish not to show any resistance as it would be futile.
 - ii. Abbas also asked the Prophet ﷺ to give Abu Sufyan some honor as he loves honor being a leader, so the Prophet ﷺ said, "Whoever enters the house of Abu Sufyan is safe."
 - iii. Abu Sufyan would ask Abbas about every battalion that would pass by and when he saw the might of the last group, he asked Abbas, "Who are these?" Abbas said, "This the Messenger of Allah ﷺ with the Muhajiroon and Ansaar." Abu Sufyan remarked, "No one has the might to overcome these men! By Allah! O

Abul Fadl! The kingdom of your nephew has this day become great indeed."

Abbas said, "O Abu Sufyan, it is Prophethood (not kingdom)."

- iv. Four people were given the flags of army:
 - 1. Abu Ubaidah Amir ibn al-Jarrah,
 - 2. Zubayr Ibn al-Awwam,
 - 3. Khalid bin Waleed,
 - 4. Sa'd bin Ubadah.
- v. When Sa'd passed by Abu Sufyan, he looked at him and said, "Today is a day of slaughter! Today, the Ka'bah will be deemed lawful (for fighting)." Sa'd's anger was for the sake of Allah as the Quraish had fought the Muslims for a long time but obviously he was mistaken at this point at time.
 - 1. When the Prophet ﷺ heard about this, he took the flag and gave it to his son Qais bin Sa'd and said, "On this day, Allah will honor the Ka'bah and on this day, the Ka'bah will be covered (with a cloth)."
 - 2. The Prophet ﷺ was blessed with leadership qualities. He simultaneously managed to manage the fear of Abu Sufyan and removed Sa'd without hurting his feeling as it is nature of a man to want his children to succeed in life.

2. Entrance into Makkah.

- a. The Prophet ﷺ entered Makkah with Usama sitting with him on his camel and lowering his head so much so that his chin touched the hump of the camel and he ﷺ was reciting Surah al-Fath.
- b. They entered Makkah on Friday morning 21st Ramadan 8AH.
- c. The army entered the city from different directions.
- d. Abu Sufyan announced to the Quraish that whoever enters his house will be safe. When people heard this, they said, "May Allah fight you! And what will your house avail us?" Then he said, "Whoever enters his house is safe and whoever enters the Masjid is safe."

3. Resistance faced by Khalid bin Waleed.
 - a. None of the battlaions faced resistance except Khalid for he was faced by Safwan bin Umayyah, Sohail bin Amr and Ikrimiah bin Abi Jahl. Around 20 people from Quraish were killed and they soon realized that their opposition is of no benefit so they fled.
4. Ka'bah is cleansed of Idols.
 - a. The Ka'bah was surrounded with 360 idols. The Prophet ﷺ was on his camel and started pointing with his staff and recited:

وَقُلْ جَاءَ الْحَقُّ وَزَهَقَ الْبَاطِلُ ۚ إِنَّ الْبَاطِلَ كَانَ زَهُوقًا

"And declare, "The truth has come and falsehood has vanished. Indeed, falsehood is bound to vanish." (17:81)

- b. Whenever he would point, the idol would fall down on its face. He did this until all of the idols were broken.
 - c. Then he ﷺ asked for the keys of the Ka'bah to be brought. Uthman bin Talha brought the keys of Ka'bah. Once in the days of persecution in Makkah, the Prophet ﷺ asked Uthman to open the door of Ka'bah for him to which Uthman responded in a harsh manner. So when Uthman brought the keys, the Prophet ﷺ said to him, "O Uthman, perhaps you that this key is in my hand today and that I may give to whomever I please." Uthman responded, "Indeed, the Quraish have today been destroyed and humiliated." The Prophet ﷺ responded, "Nay, today the Quraish has become prosperous and strong."
 - d. The Prophet ﷺ entered Ka'bah with Bilal, Uthman and Usamah and prayed inside Ka'bah.
 - e. Despite what Uthman had done previously, the Prophet ﷺ handed over the keys to him and said, "Take your key, O Uthman, for today is a day of piety, faithfulness, and loyalty. Take it perpetually as a time-honoured thing; no one will take it from you except for an unjust wrongdoer."
 - f. Prophet ﷺ ordered Bilal to climb the roof of Ka'bah and made the adhan. The voice which echoed in Makkah few years ago, "One! One!" came back and proclaimed Allah's Oneness.
 - g. He ﷺ also ordered to place Maqam-e-Ibrahim at its place as the polythesists had placed it along with one of the walls of the Ka'bah.
5. Addressing the Quraish & the acceptance of Islam.
 - a. The Prophet ﷺ then addressed Quraish and asked, "What do you think I will do with you?". Quraish responded, "You will do well by us, for you are a noble and generous brother and a noble generous nephew. No reporach upon you this day; may Allah forgive you."
 - b. There was a general forgiveness for all but if mercy goes beyond those limits, it can no longer be described as mercy but as weakness. There were around 13 to 19 people which were named by the Prophet ﷺ who should be executed in any case.

- c. Once the people of Makkah were forgiven, they decided to enter the fold of Islam all except a few.
 - d. The Prophet ﷺ took oaths from them. When it was time to take oaths from women, he took oath that they will not associate partners with Allah, steal, commit adultery, kill their children etc. When the Prophet ﷺ said, "And not to steal." Hind said, "O Messenger of Allah ﷺ, Abu Sufyan is a miserly man; he doesn't give me that which is enough for me and my children. So will I be sinning if I take something from his wealth without his consent?" The Prophet ﷺ said, "Take from his wealth which is sufficient for you and your children based on urf (custom)." As Hind was hiding her identity, it was exposed and the Prophet ﷺ asked her if she is Hind to which she said, "Yes, so forgive me for what has happened in the past and may Allah then forgive you," Hind was therefore pardoned by the Prophet ﷺ.
 - e. Then the Prophet ﷺ took the oaths from women as well verbally as he never touched a woman who was not lawful to him during his lifetime.
6. Destroying the Houses of Idols:
- a. Khalid bin Waleed was sent to destroy al-Uzzah which was located in the region of Nakhla.
 - b. Sa'd bin Zaid was sent to destroy Manat (which was worshipped/venerated by Aws and Khazraj before accepting Islam).
 - c. Amr Ibn al-Aas was sent to destroy Suwaa.
7. Islam of several notables:
- a. Islam of Sohail bin Amr:
 - i. Sohail initially locked himself up in his house fearing assassination. His son, Abdullah who was a companion, came to him after seeking protection for him from the Prophet ﷺ. The Prophet ﷺ commanded the companions not to give Sohail a stare and said that he has nobility and sound mind and he shouldn't be ignorant of Islam.
 - ii. Sohail didn't accept Islam at this stage but said, "By Allah! Both when young and old, he has always remained righteous and faithful."
 - iii. He accepted Islam on his way back from the Battle of Hunain.
 - b. Islam of Safwan bin Umayyah:
 - i. Safwan fled from Makkah and wanted to commit suicide.
 - ii. Umair bin Wahb chased him until he convinced him to come back. Safwan thought that he would be killed by the Prophet ﷺ and he wanted Umair to give him a guarantee.
 - iii. Umair went back to Makkah and asked the Prophet ﷺ to give him something that he can present to Safwan as a guarantee.
 - iv. The Prophet ﷺ gave him his turban he was wearing when he entered Makkah.
 - v. When Safwan saw it, he agreed to come back.
 - vi. When Safwan came back, he said, "Umair told me that you have invited me and that if I'm pleased with the matter (Islam) then that's fine otherwise you will give me two months to decide." The Prophet ﷺ asked him to come down from his camel. Safwan said, "No, by Allah, not until you make the matter clear to me." The Prophet ﷺ said, "Rather, you will be given a period of four months to decide."

- vii. Safwan lended one hundred suits of armour in the expedition of Hunain and accepted Islam on the way back when he was given a fortune by the Prophet ﷺ.
- c. Islam of Abu Quhafah:
 - i. Abu Quhafah, father of Abu Bakr, also accepted Islam at this stage.

The Battle of Hunain

1. Hawazin and Thaqeef wanted to lead an attack on Makkah before the Prophet ﷺ could do so.
2. The Prophet ﷺ therefore left Makkah on 5th of Shawwal 8AH and left Attab bin Aseed as the governor of Makkah.
3. Thaqeef and Banu Hilaal from Hawaazin were involved in the battle.
4. Their leader was Malik bin Auf, who was an overzealous young man, and he ordered all his army to bring their families and cattle along with them in the battlefield. He wanted to do this because he didn't want the army to flee. And Malik also said, "Verily before this Muhammad never fought a real battle up till now...."
5. One of their wisest men who was venerated by their people was Duraid bin as-Simah. He didn't like the decision of Malik and said, "When a defeated man is forced to flee, can anything stop him from running away? If the battle goes your way, all that will benefit you will be a man with his sword and spear. And if the battle doesn't go your way but against you, you will have left your family, and your wealth exposed."
6. The Muslims were 12000. And some of the new converts from Makkah said, "Today we will not lose for a lack of number."
7. Malik knew the terrain very well and he concealed his units in the mountains such that they would be hidden, and they could bombard arrows at their enemies.
8. When the arrows were shot at the Muslim army, they didn't know what to do and as a result there was a chaos in the ranks and people started moving here and there.
9. The Prophet ﷺ asked his uncle Abbas, who had a loud voice, to call people towards him, "O people of as-Samurah (the tree under which the pledge of Ridwan took place)!" Abbas recounts, "By Allah! It was as if they returned upon hearing my voice as quickly as a cow returned to its children, saying 'Here we are, responding to your call! Here we are, responding to your call.'"
10. Now when the companions gathered, the Prophet ﷺ said, "This is when the fighting becomes intense."
11. The Prophet ﷺ threw pebbles towards them and said, "By the Lord of Muhammad ﷺ, be defeated."
12. The people of Hawaazin barricaded themselves inside their fortresses, so the Muslims laid siege.

13. The Prophet ﷺ ordered the soldiers to burn down their gardens to pressurize them. He also announced that whoever from the slaves descended from the fortress would be freed. As a result, 23 slaves came out and accepted Islam.
14. When the siege lasted long, the Prophet ﷺ consulted to end the siege as it didn't matter now even if the people of Ta'if didn't surrender as they had no one in the community who were on their religion in their region. So, it was decided that they would leave Taif and the Prophet ﷺ prayed for them.
15. A lot of booty was gained in this battle. The Prophet ﷺ gave a huge amount to the leaders of Quraish, Ghatafan and Tameem to mold their hearts towards Islam like Abu Sufyan, Suhail bin Amr, Hakim bin Hizam, Safwan bin Umayyah etc.
16. Some of the young Ansar were concerned as to why they weren't given any share. So the Prophet ﷺ called them and said to them (the jest), "I gave those people much shares in order to make them firm in their Iman. As for you people, I know you don't need it to make you firm in your Iman. Aren't you happy that people go home taking this wealth and you go home, taking the Messenger of Allah ﷺ with you?" When Ansar heard this, they burst into tears.

Lec-31- The Battle of Tabuk

1. The Battle of Tabuk took place in Rajab 9AH. This was the last battle in which the Prophet ﷺ took part.
2. The reason for the battle was quite clear. After having dealt with the Arabs, the next threat that awaited the Muslims were the Romans and the Arabian tribes which were under the influence of the Romans. These Arab tribes were used as proxies by the Romans so that no Arab would be able to take the Romans by surprise and these were the tribes that the Muslims fought against in the Battle of Mu'tah.
3. There are different names that are used by scholars when they refer to this battle, such as:
 - a. Fadihah, the one that exposes. As this battle exposed many hypocrites.
 - b. Usra, the battle of difficulty and this battle was one the most difficult battles.
 - c. Tabuk, the water point where the Muslims made their camp.
4. The Battle of Tabuk was difficult for many reasons:
 - a. The journey was extremely long. It would take them 3-4 weeks to reach Tabuk.
 - b. The weather was extremely hot.
 - c. It was harvesting season and if they would leave their crops, the income they would earn for half of the year would be wasted.
 - d. The battle was not against any small enemy. They were expecting Arab tribes supported by the Romans.
 - e. All these factors combined made it very difficult and that is why it was also named as "The Battle of Difficulty".
5. This battle was not something voluntary, it was an obligation for every sane adult to join the army.
6. As the battle was expected to be fierce and as it was far away and a lot of people were expected to join, the Prophet ﷺ made an announcement to contribute in the way of Allah. Many companions contributed wholeheartedly. Some of the examples are as follows:
 - a. Narrated 'Abdur-Rahman bin Khabbab:
"I witnessed the Prophet (ﷺ) while he was exhorting support for the 'army of distress.' 'Uthman bin 'Affan stood and said: 'O Messenger of Allah! I will take the responsibility of one-hundred camels, including their saddles and water-skins, in the path of Allah.' Then he [(ﷺ) again] urged support for the army. So 'Uthman [bin 'Affan] stood and said: 'O Messenger of Allah! I will take the responsibility of two-hundred camels, including their saddles and water-skins, in the path of Allah.' Then he [(ﷺ) again] urged support for the army. So 'Uthman bin 'Affan stood and said: '[O Messenger of Allah] I will take the responsibility of three-hundred camels, including their saddles and water-skins, in the path of Allah.' So I saw the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) descend from the Minbar while he was saying: 'It does not matter what 'Uthman does after this, it does not matter what 'Uthman does after this.'"
(Tirmidhi: 3700)
 - b. Narrated Zaid bin Aslam:

"I heard 'Umar bin Al-Khattab saying: 'We were ordered by the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) to give in charity, and that coincided with a time in which I had some wealth, so I said, 'Today I will beat Abu Bakr, if ever I beat him.'" So I came with half of my wealth, and the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) said: "What did you leave for your family?" I said: "The like of it." And Abu Bakr came with everything he had, so he said: "O Abu Bakr! What did you leave for your family?" He said: "I left Allah and His Messenger for them." I said: '[By Allah] I will never be able to beat him to something.'"

(Tirmidhi: 3675)

- c. There were some companions who wanted to contribute in the way of Allah but they didn't have much to give. From such companions was Abu Uqail. He earned some dates through labor and brought it to the Prophet ﷺ which the Prophet ﷺ spread over all the contributions made by other companions. When the hypocrites would see such stuff, they would make fun of it and they would say, "Verily, Allah doesn't need the charity of this person!". Regarding such instances, Allah revealed:

الَّذِينَ يَلْمُزُونَ الْمُطَّوِّعِينَ مِنَ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ فِي الصَّدَقَاتِ وَالَّذِينَ لَا يَجِدُونَ إِلَّا جُهْدَهُمْ
فَيَسْخَرُونَ مِنْهُمْ سَخِرَ اللَّهُ مِنْهُمْ وَلَهُمْ عَذَابٌ أَلِيمٌ

"There are those who slander some of the believers for donating liberally and mock others for giving only the little they can afford. Allah will throw their mockery back at them, and they will suffer a painful punishment."

(Surah at-Tawbah, verse 79)

7. While the companions were preparing for the battle with zeal, the hypocrites were busy discouraging those who were preparing for the battle. Some of the ways were:
 - a. They would discourage the companions by reminding them of the heat. Allah revealed regarding them:

فَرِحَ الْمُخَلَّفُونَ بِمَقْعَدِهِمْ خِلَافَ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ وَكَرِهُوا أَنْ يُجَاهِدُوا بِأَمْوَالِهِمْ وَأَنْفُسِهِمْ فِي
سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ وَقَالُوا لَا تَنْفِرُوا فِي الْحَرِّ قُلْ نَارُ جَهَنَّمَ أَشَدُّ حَرًّا لَوْ كَانُوا يَفْقَهُونَ

"Those hypocrites who remained behind rejoiced for doing so in defiance of the Messenger of Allah and hated the prospect of striving with their wealth and their lives in the cause of Allah. They said to one another, "Do not march forth in the heat." Say, O Prophet, "The Fire of Hell is far hotter!" If only they could comprehend!"

(Surah at-Tawbah, verse 81)

- b. One of them excused him in front of the Prophet ﷺ by saying that he would be tempted by seeing the women of Romans. Allah revealed regarding him:

وَمِنْهُمْ مَنْ يَقُولُ أَوْدُنْ لِي وَلَا تَفْتِنِّي أَلَا فِي الْفِتْنَةِ سَقَطُوا وَإِنَّ جَهَنَّمَ لَمُحِيطَةٌ بِالْكَافِرِينَ

"There are some of them who say, "Exempt me and do not expose me to temptation."¹ They have already fallen into temptation. And Hell will surely engulf the disbelievers."

(Surah at-Tawbah, verse 49)

- c. The Prophet ﷺ accepted the excuses of all of these hypocrites and didn't say anything to them.
8. The Prophet ﷺ departed with 30,000 people. Majority of the hypocrites didn't join the army but some joined the ranks.
9. The Prophet ﷺ appointed Muhammad bin Maslamah as the governor of Madinah and appointed Ali bin Abi Talib to take care of his family.

Allah's Messenger (ﷺ) set out for Tabuk. appointing `Ali as his deputy (in Medina). `Ali said, "Do you want to leave me with the children and women?" The Prophet (ﷺ) said, "Will you not be pleased that you will be to me like Aaron to Moses? But there will be no prophet after me."

(Bukhari: 4416)

10. Some of the companions remained behind but managed to catch up with the army. They were Abu Dhar al-Ghifari and Abu Khaithamah.
11. The Muslims camped in Tabuk for 20 days but no army appeared. The surrounding tribes were terrified of the Muslim army and some of them came to Prophet ﷺ to make peace treaties.
12. On their way back, the Muslims passed through the area of the people of Thamud. The Prophet ﷺ forbade the companions from drinking water from that well and to only enter into their houses crying.
13. Also, some of the hypocrites tried to assassinate the Prophet ﷺ by making him fall of the cliff but their efforts were in vain as the Prophet ﷺ had Hudaifah bin Yaman and Ammar bin Yasir with him and above all Allah saved His Prophet ﷺ.
14. There were some companions who were sincere but couldn't make it to Tabuk because of their procrastination. The story is narrated by Ka'b bin Malik, who was one of the three who stayed behind, himself:

Narrated `Abdullah bin Ka`b bin Malik:

Who, from among Ka`b's sons, was the guide of Ka`b when he became blind: I heard Ka`b bin Malik narrating the story of (the Ghazwa of) Tabuk in which he failed to take part. Ka`b said, "I did not remain behind Allah's Messenger (ﷺ) in any Ghazwa that he fought except the Ghazwa of Tabuk, and I failed to take part in the Ghazwa of Badr, but Allah did not admonish anyone who had not participated in it, for in fact, Allah's Messenger (ﷺ) had gone out in search of the caravan of Quraish till Allah made them (i.e. the Muslims) and their enemy meet without any appointment. I witnessed the night of Al-`Aqaba (pledge) with Allah's Messenger (ﷺ) when we pledged for Islam, and I would not exchange it for the Badr battle although the Badr battle is more popular amongst the people than it (i.e. Al-`Aqaba pledge). As for my news (in this battle of Tabuk), I had never been stronger or wealthier than I was when I remained behind the Prophet (ﷺ) in that Ghazwa. By Allah, never had I two she-camels before, but I had then at the time of this Ghazwa. Whenever Allah's Messenger (ﷺ) wanted to make a Ghazwa, he used to hide his intention by apparently referring to different Ghazwa till it was the time of that Ghazwa (of Tabuk) which Allah's Messenger (ﷺ) fought in severe heat, facing, a long journey, desert, and the great number of enemy. So the Prophet (ﷺ) announced to the Muslims clearly (their destination) so that they might get prepared for their Ghazwa. So he informed them clearly of the destination he was going to. Allah's Messenger (ﷺ) was accompanied by a large number of Muslims who could not be listed in a book namely, a register." Ka`b added, "Any man who intended to be absent would think that the matter would remain hidden unless Allah revealed it through Divine Revelation. So Allah's Messenger (ﷺ) fought that Ghazwa at the time when the fruits had ripened and the shade looked pleasant. Allah's Messenger (ﷺ) and his companions prepared for the battle and I started to go out in order to get myself ready along with them, but I returned without doing anything. I would say to myself, 'I can do that.' So I kept on delaying it every now and then till the people got ready and Allah's Messenger (ﷺ) and the Muslims along with him departed, and I had not prepared anything for my departure, and I said, I will prepare myself (for departure) one or two days after him, and then join them.' In the morning following their departure, I went out to get myself ready but returned having done nothing. Then again in the next morning, I went out to get ready but returned without doing anything. Such was the case with me till they hurried away and the battle was missed (by me). Even then I intended to depart to take them over. I wish I had done so! But it was not in my luck. So, after the departure of Allah's Messenger (ﷺ), whenever I went out and walked amongst the people (i.e. the remaining persons), it grieved me that I could see none around me, but one accused of hypocrisy or one of those weak men whom Allah had excused. Allah's Messenger (ﷺ) did not remember me till he reached Tabuk. So while he was sitting amongst the people in Tabuk, he said, 'What did Ka`b do?' A man from Banu Salama said, 'O Allah's Messenger (ﷺ)! He has been stopped by his two Burdas (i.e. garments) and his looking at his own flanks with pride.' Then Mu`adh bin Jabal said, 'What a bad thing you have said! By Allah! O Allahs Apostle! We know nothing about him but good.' Allah's Messenger (ﷺ) kept silent." Ka`b bin Malik added, "When I heard that he (i.e. the Prophet (ﷺ)) was on his way back to Medina. I got dipped in my concern, and began to think of false excuses, saying to myself, 'How can I avoid his anger tomorrow?' And I took the advice of wise member of my family in this matter. When it was said that Allah's Messenger (ﷺ), had come near all the evil false excuses abandoned from my mind and I knew well that I could never come out of this problem by forging a false statement. Then I decided firmly to speak the truth. So Allah's Messenger (ﷺ) arrived in the morning, and whenever he returned from a journey., he used to visit the Mosque first of all and offer a two-rak`at prayer therein and then sit for the people. So when he had done all that (this time), those who had failed to join the battle (of Tabuk) came and started offering (false) excuses and taking oaths before him. They were something over eighty men; Allah's Messenger (ﷺ) accepted the excuses they had expressed, took their pledge of allegiance asked for Allah's Forgiveness for them, and left the secrets of their hearts for Allah to judge. Then I came to him, and when I greeted him, he smiled a smile of an angry person and then said, 'Come on.' So I came walking till I sat before him. He said to me, 'What stopped you from joining us. Had you not purchased an animal For carrying you?' I answered, "Yes, O Allah's Messenger (ﷺ)! But by Allah, if I were sitting before any person from among the people of the world other than you, I would have avoided his anger with an excuse. By Allah, I have been bestowed with the power of speaking fluently and eloquently, but by Allah, I knew well that if today I tell you a lie to seek your favor, Allah would surely make you angry with me in the near future, but if I tell you the truth, though you will get angry because of it, I hope for Allah's Forgiveness. Really, by Allah, there was no excuse for me. By Allah, I had never been stronger or wealthier than I was when I remained behind you.' Then Allah's Messenger (ﷺ) said, 'As regards this man, he has surely told the truth. So get up till Allah decides your case.' I got up, and many men of Banu Salama followed me and said to me. 'By Allah, we never witnessed you doing any sin before this. Surely, you failed to offer excuse to Allah's Messenger (ﷺ) as the others who did not join him, have offered. The prayer of Allah's Messenger (ﷺ) to Allah to forgive you would have been sufficient for you.' By Allah, they continued blaming me so much that I intended to return (to the Prophet) and accuse myself of having told a lie, but I said to them, 'Is there anybody else who has met the same fate as I have?' They replied, 'Yes, there are two men who have said the same thing as you have, and to both of them was given the same order as given to you.' I said, 'Who are they?' They replied, Murara bin Ar-Rabi Al- Amri and Hilal bin Umaiya Al-Waqifi.' By that they mentioned to me two pious men who had attended the Ghazwa (Battle) of Badr, and in whom there was an example for me. So I did not change my mind when they mentioned them to me. Allah's Messenger (ﷺ) forbade all the Muslims to talk to us, the three aforesaid persons out of all those who had remained behind in that Ghazwa. So we kept away from the people and they changed their attitude towards us till the very land (where I lived) appeared strange to me as if I did not know it. We remained in that condition for fifty nights. As regards my two fellows, they remained in their houses and kept on weeping, but I was the youngest of them and the firmest of them, so I used to go out and witness the prayers along with the Muslims and roam about in the markets, but none would talk to me, and I would come to Allah's Messenger (ﷺ) and greet him while he was sitting in his gathering after the prayer, and I would wonder whether the Prophet (ﷺ) did move his lips in return to my greetings or not. Then I would offer my prayer near to him and look at him stealthily. When I was busy with my prayer, he would turn his face towards me, but when I turned my face to him, he would turn his face away from me. When this harsh attitude of the people lasted long, I walked till I scaled the wall of the garden of Abu Qatada who was my cousin and dearest person to me, and I offered my greetings to him. By Allah, he did not return my greetings. I said, 'O Abu Qatada! I beseech you by Allah! Do you know that I love Allah and His Apostle?' He kept quiet. I asked him again, beseeching him by Allah, but he remained silent. Then I asked him again in the Name of Allah. He said, "Allah and His Apostle know it better.' Thereupon my eyes flowed with tears and I returned and jumped over the wall." Ka`b added, "While I was walking in the market of Medina, suddenly I saw a Nabati (i.e. a Christian farmer) from the Nabatis of Sham who came to sell his grains in Medina, saying, 'Who will lead me to Ka`b bin Malik?' The people began to point (me) out for him till he came to me and handed me a letter from the king of Ghassan in which the following was written: "To proceed, I have been informed that your friend (i.e. the Prophet (ﷺ)) has treated you harshly. Anyhow, Allah does not let you live at a place where you feel inferior and your right is lost. So join us, and we will console you." When I read it, I said to myself, 'This is also a sort of a test.' Then I took the letter to the oven and made a fire therein by burning it. When forty out of the fifty nights elapsed, behold ! There came to me the messenger of Allah's Messenger (ﷺ) and said, 'Allah's Messenger (ﷺ) orders you to keep away from your wife,' I said, 'Should I divorce her; or else! what should I do?' He said, 'No, only keep aloof from her and do not cohabit her.' The Prophet (ﷺ) sent the same message to my two fellows. Then I said to my wife. 'Go to your parents and remain with them till Allah gives His Verdict in this matter.' Ka`b added, "The wife of Hilal bin Umaiya came to Apostle and said, 'O Allah's Messenger (ﷺ)! Hilal bin Umaiya is a helpless old man who has no servant to attend on him. Do you dislike that I should serve him?' He said, 'No (you can serve him) but he should not come near you.' She said, 'By Allah, he has no desire for anything. By, Allah, he has never ceased weeping till his case began till this day of his.' (continued...) (continuing... 1): -5.702:... ... On that, some of my family members said to me, 'Will you also ask Allah's Messenger (ﷺ) to permit your wife (to serve you) as he has permitted the wife of Hilal bin Umaiya to serve him?' I said, 'By Allah, I will not ask the permission of Allah's Messenger (ﷺ) regarding her, for I do not know What Allah's Messenger (ﷺ) would say if I asked him to permit her (to serve me) while I am a young man.' Then I remained in that state for ten more nights after that till the period of fifty nights was completed starting from the time when Allah's Messenger (ﷺ) prohibited the people from talking to us. When I had offered the Fajr prayer on the 50th morning on the roof of one of our houses and while I was sitting in the condition which Allah described (in the Qur'an) i.e. my very soul seemed straitened to me and even the earth seemed narrow to me for all its spaciousness, there I heard the voice of one who had ascended the mountain of Sala' calling with his loudest voice, 'O Ka`b bin Malik! Be happy (by receiving good tidings).' I fell down in prostration before Allah, realizing that relief has come. Allah's Messenger (ﷺ) had announced the acceptance of our repentance by Allah when he had offered the Fajr prayer. The people then went out to congratulate us. Some bringers of good tidings went out to my two fellows, and a horseman came to me in haste, and a man of Banu Aslam came running and ascended the mountain and his voice was swifter than the horse. When he (i.e. the man) whose voice I had heard, came to me conveying the good tidings, I took off my garments and dressed him with them; and by Allah, I owned no other garments than them on that day. Then I borrowed two garments and wore them and went to Allah's Apostle. The people started receiving me in batches, congratulating me on Allah's Acceptance of my repentance, saying, 'We congratulate you on Allah's Acceptance of your repentance.' Ka`b further said, "When I entered the Mosque. I saw Allah's Messenger (ﷺ) sitting with the people around him. Talha bin Ubaidullah swiftly came to me, shook hands with me and congratulated me. By Allah, none of the Muhajirin (i.e. Emigrants) got up for me except him (i.e. Talha), and I will never forget this for Talha." Ka`b added, "When I greeted Allah's Messenger (ﷺ) he, his face being bright with joy, said "Be happy with the best day that you have got ever since your mother delivered you." Ka`b added, "I said to the Prophet (ﷺ) 'Is this forgiveness from you or from Allah?' He said, 'No, it is from Allah.' Whenever Allah's Messenger (ﷺ) became happy, his face would shine as if it were a piece of moon, and we all knew that characteristic of him. When I sat before him, I said, 'O Allah's Messenger (ﷺ)! Because of the acceptance of my repentance I will give up all my wealth as alms for the Sake of Allah and His Apostle. Allah's Apostle said, 'Keep some of your wealth, as it will be better for you.' I said, 'So I will keep my share from Khaibar with me,' and added, 'O Allah's Messenger (ﷺ)! Allah has saved me for telling the truth; so it is a part of my repentance not to tell but the truth as long as I am alive. By Allah, I do not know anyone of the Muslims whom Allah has helped fortelling the truth more than me. Since I have mentioned that truth to Allah's Messenger (ﷺ) till today, I have never intended to tell a lie. I hope that Allah will also save me (from telling lies) the rest of my life. So Allah revealed to His Apostle the Verse:-- "Verily, Allah has forgiven the Prophet, the Muhajirin (i.e. Emigrants (up to His Saying) And be with those who are true (in word and deed)." (9.117-119) By Allah, Allah has never bestowed upon me, apart from His guiding me to Islam, a Greater blessing than the fact that I did not tell a lie to Allah's Messenger (ﷺ) which would have caused me to perish as those who have told a lie perished, for Allah described those who told lies with the worst description He ever attributed to anybody else. Allah said:-- "They (i.e. the hypocrites) will swear by Allah to you when you return to them (up to His Saying) Certainly Allah is not pleased with the rebellious people-- " (9.95-96) Ka'b added, "We, the three persons, differed altogether from those whose excuses Allah's Apostle accepted when they swore to him. He took their pledge of allegiance and asked Allah to forgive them, but Allah's Messenger (ﷺ) left our case pending till Allah gave His Judgment about it. As for that Allah said:-- And to the three (He did for give also) who remained behind." (9.118) What Allah said (in this Verse) does not indicate our failure to take part in the Ghazwa, but it refers to the deferment of making a decision by the Prophet (ﷺ) about our case in contrast to the case of those who had taken an oath before him and he excused them by accepting their excuses.

(Bukhari: 4418)

Lec-32- The Farewell Hajj & the Illness and Death of the Prophet ﷺ

The Farewell Hajj

1. Hajj became obligatory in 10AH.
2. The Prophet ﷺ announced that he would be leaving for hajj and he left Madinah 5 days before the end of Dhul-Qa'dah.
3. The Prophet ﷺ reached Makkah on 5th of Dhul Hijjah and a total of 100,000 Muslims joined him from all over Arabia.
4. The Prophet ﷺ assumed the ihram from Dhul-Hulaifah which is the meeqat for the people of Madinah.

5. The Prophet ﷺ performed Hajj-e-Qiran in which one doesn't exit Ihram except after performing Hajj.
6. When the Prophet ﷺ reached Makkah, he performed Umrah. He ﷺ didn't exit the Ihram as he was doing Hajj-e-Qiran.
7. On the 8th of Dhul Hijjah, he went to Mina and on the Day of Arafah (9th), he addressed the gathering of the Muslims. The Prophet ﷺ emphasized on several points and some of them were:
 - a. The wealth and the blood of a Muslim are sacred and must not be violated.
 - b. The practices of the days of ignorance will not be practiced anymore.
 - c. The usury of the times of ignorance (people would give loan for a time to take it back with usury on it) will be forgiven and the first usury the Prophet ﷺ forgave was of those people who had to return their loans to his uncle Abbas bin Abdul Muttalib, who would give people loan to gain usury on it.
 - d. Husbands should fear Allah regarding their women as they took them from their families on the name of Allah.
 - e. Hold tightly to the Book of Allah.

8. After addressing the gathering, the Prophet ﷺ asked the people, "O people, have I conveyed?" and he asked this three times and when the people replied in positive, he ﷺ raised his finger towards the sky and said, "O Allah, be a witness!"
9. On the 10th of Dhul Hijjah, the Prophet ﷺ sacrificed 63 of the 100 camels he brought himself and ordered Ali bin Abi Talib to slaughter the rest.
10. The Prophet ﷺ stoned the jamaraat on the Days of Tashreeq (11th, 12th and 13th of Dhul Hijjah) and immediately after completing the rites of Hajj, he left for al-Madinah.

ILLNESS AND DEATH OF THE PROPHET ﷺ

1. Signs that the Prophet ﷺ would pass away:
 - a. وما محمد الا رسول
 - b. انك ميت
 - c. اليوم اكملت لكم دينكم
 - d. اذا جا
 - e. Jibreel visits the Prophet ﷺ twice last year.
 - f. "Take your rites from me for indeed I don't know; perhaps this Hajj will be my last Hajj."
 - g. "O Muadh, perhaps you will not meet me again after this year and perhaps you will pass by my grave and my masjid."
 - h. Jibreel orders him to visit the martyr of Uhud and al-Baqee. And on his way back, he says to his freed slave, "O Abu Muwwaihibah, I have indeed been given the keys of the treasures of this world and deathlessness in it after which I will have Paradise. I was given a choice between that and between meeting my Lord and Paradise."
 - i. Muwwaihibah said, "May my father and mother be sacrificed for you, take the keys of the world, deathlessness in it and then paradise."
 - ii. The Prophet ﷺ responded, "....I have indeed chosen to meet with my Lord and Paradise."
2. The fatal illness started on the last day of Safar or the first day of Rabi-ul-Awwal and he was in the house of Maymoonah.
 - a. He kept on moving nights, and would ask "Where I would be tomorrow?" The wives understood that he wanted to be at the house of Ayesha, so they gave him permission to stay in her house until he got well.

MONDAY

3. Ayesha had a headache and, "I have a headache." And the Prophet ﷺ said, "No, my head!" and continued, "If you were to die before me, I would pray janazah over you." And Ayesha responded, "O death and calamity! By Allah, I believe you would like to see me dead and were that to happen, you would have at the end of the day spent the night with one of your wives."

TUESDAY

4. "O Ayesha, I can still feel the pain from the food I ate in Khayber and this is the time I feel my aorta about to be severed by that poison."

WEDNESDAY

5. When the pain worsened in Ayesha's house, he ordered her to pour water over him and he tied a black turban around his head and went out and led the people in prayer and gave a Khutbah in which he said:
 - a. "Allah gave a servant of His a choice between this world and what He has with him and that servant chose what is with Allah." No one understood what the Prophet ﷺ was referring to except Abu Bakr who started to cry profusely and said, "We ransom you with ourselves with our children (O Messenger of Allah ﷺ!)".
 - i. And the Prophet ﷺ said, "O Abu Bakr, don't weep, for the one who most favored me with his companionship and money is Abu Bakr and if I were to choose a close friend I would have chosen Abu Bakr but Allah has chosen me as his Khaleel and it is the brotherhood of Islam and its love until Allah joins us in His Presence. All the doors to the masjid must be sealed except for the door of Abu Bakr."
 - ii. And Abu Bakr responded, "Am I and my money but for you, O Messenger of Allah ﷺ?"
 - b. "May Allah fight the Jews and the Christians; they turned the graves of their Prophets ﷺ into Masjids."
6. Abdullah bin Mas'ood visited him in these days and said after touching him, "O Messenger of Allah ﷺ, you are made to suffer a great deal of pain during your illness."

THURSDAY/FRIDAY

7. The last time Prophet ﷺ led the companions in prayer out loud was the maghrib prayer on Thursday/Friday and he recited Surah al-Mursalat (that was the last Surah to be recited publically by the Prophet ﷺ).
8. On that very night, Bilal gave adhan for Isha and came to call the Prophet ﷺ for prayer. He asked for the container of the water to be filled to pour over himself. He did it but couldn't get up and lost consciousness. When he gained consciousness, he asked, "Have the people prayed?" And Ayesha replied in negative. He again poured water over him and lost consciousness, and this happened for seven times until he said to Ayesha, "Order Abu Bakr to lead the people in prayer."
 - a. Ayesha resisted the idea for a while saying that Abu Bakr would cry a lot as he is tender hearted, but the Prophet ﷺ insisted. Ayesha then asked Hafsa to say the same thing and this caused the Prophet ﷺ to become angry and he said, "You are like the women of Yusuf; order him to lead the people in prayer."
9. Some companions visited in the house and he asked them to bring something to write for them but the companions disputed and so the Prophet ﷺ asked them to leave. And then he commanded them three things.
10. People started gathering in Masjid as they were worried about the Prophet ﷺ

SATURDAY

11. He felt a bit better at the time of Zuhr and was taken by Ali and Abbas with his head tied to the masjid while the companions had started praying. When the people saw the Prophet ﷺ coming, he started motioning to Abu Bakr to stay at his place but Abu Bakr moved a little back and the Prophet ﷺ sat and lead the prayer and Abu Bakr prayed behind him and the people followed Abu Bakr.
- And Prophet ﷺ gave a sermon and first said to Ansar, “By the One in Whose Hand is my life, I do love you (O Ansar).”
 - And said, “I advise you to take care of and be kind to the Ansar, for they are very close to me.....They have paid what they owed and all that remains is for them to receive what is owed to them. So accept from those among them who do well and pardon those among them who do wrong.”
 - Expel the polytheists from the Arabian Peninsula.
 - Treat the delegations well.
 - “Let no one among you die except while he is having good thoughts about Allah....”

12. The Prophet ﷺ felt better at the time of Fajr and when the companions started the prayer, he stood up and moved the curtain of his house and started smiling by looking at his companions and his face was radiating. The companions were about to break their prayer, but he motioned the people to stay where they are and he let the curtain fall and this was the last time the companions saw him.
13. After fajr, his pain worsened again and Fatimah visited him and the Prophet ﷺ said something to her and she cried and then she laughed. Later she told that the first thing was that the Prophet ﷺ was expecting his death and the second thing was that she would be the first one from his family to join him and she would be the leader of the women of Jannah.
14. Usama came and the Prophet ﷺ started pointing towards the sky and then putting his hand over Usama, indicating that he ﷺ is praying for him.
15. At this point Ayesha held him along with her chest and Abdur Rahman bin Abi Bakr visited and he had a miswak in his pocket which the Prophet ﷺ was looking at. He ﷺ was too weak to talk and Ayesha understood that he wanted the siwak and so she asked him and he responded in positive and then she took the siwak from Abdur Rahman and chewed it and gave it to the Prophet ﷺ and she said, “He ﷺ began to clean his teeth with it in a very complete and beautiful manner.”
16. The Prophet ﷺ started losing consciousness and then he would wake up and pour water over his face and he would say اللهم اعني على سكرات الموت and لا اله الا الله ان للموت سكرات and he also said, “Prayer! Prayer! And what your right hand posses!” then he didn't have the energy to say anything.
